The recent rains destroyed the feed in the foothills along the west base of the Sierras.

At the Oakland, Cal., trotting park races, Oct. 11 and 13, the following record is given—

The San Francisco cadets have returned, proud of their successful trip to the east.

Half a dozen Street Arabs, one only seven years old, were arrested at San Francisco for burglary.

It is proposed to reduce the capital stock of the Emma mine to $5,000,000.—Sacramento Union.

The telegraph line running from San Diego into Arizona will be completed to Prescott by the holidays.

The Modoc captives left Klamath Oct. 12, for their home in Wyoming Territory.

A large number of people are arriving in California to spend the winter.

McKenley & Bradley have ten acres of cotton on Lower King's River, Cal., from which they expect a profit of $50 an acre.

A. J. Atwell and a large party in a new schooner are on Tulare Lake, Cal., intending to explore it thoroughly.

The Sink of the Humboldt is alive with waterfowl—ducks, geese, swans, cranes, pelicans, snipes, curlews, etc.

At Elko, Oct. 12th, in a shooting and cutting affray, Thos. Williams was assaulted and badly hurt by D. N. Harding.

A Chinaman took the first premium on butter at the Fair at Seattle, W. T. as being the best exhibit of old butter.

A bridge across the Willamette river opposite Portland, to be built with private capital, is in contemplation.

The Territorial Enterprise thinks the Virginia people, having now plenty of pure soft water from the Sierra Nevada, should brew their own beer.

It is reported that the bodies of four white men have been found on the beach of the northern coast near where the George N. Wright is supposed to have been wrecked.

The Chinese laundrymen of Stockton, Cal., are now employing young and respectable looking white women to assist in washing and ironing. John be pow'ful mad.

Shiel Barry, a noted member of the theatrical profession, passed through the city yesterday, en route for San Francisco, where he is to play an engagement. Miss Le Clerc, lately playing at the California Theatre, went east yesterday.—Sacramento Union, Oct. 13.

At Brattleboro, Vt., lately, a trunk at the depot suddenly exploded, "seriously burning and injuring a lady who stood near, upon her head," as an exchange says. It is probable that this calamity will teach her not to stand on her head any more.

The editor of the San Jose Mercury says if he should stop to chase down all the falsehoods of his intemperate contemporary, the Patriot, he would run his editorial legs off. The solution of this problem is to find out how a man may run his legs off when he stops.

The machinery now in use at the Los Angeles Woolen Mills has proved quite inadequate to fill the large supply of orders that are coming in. The proprietors have deemed it necessary to order new machinery of greater power, and completeness, which is expected on the next steamer.

Virginia City (Nev.), Oct. 10.—At half-past three o'clock this afternoon a Portuguese by the name of Antoine Silva, while attempting to jump on the cars in the vicinity of Gold Hill, fell in front of the cars. He was run over and had both his feet cut off. Twelve cars passed over him. The man is still alive, but little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

A native Californian, named Jesus Marisch, while intoxicated, fell under the fly-wheel of the Soquel steam flouring mill. The pinion of the fly-wheel struck him on the head and broke his skull, beside mangling his limbs. The body was found under the mill wheel by O. P. Wilson, the miller, while breathing, but in a few moments expired.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

Near Stockton, Cal., a rough presented a revolver at a man named Gibbs of Napa and Miss Winchell of Vacaville, who were sitting in a rural cemetery, with orders to them to stand and deliver. The lover stood and the ruffian "went through him," getting $40 and watch and chain, and then told the couple to "git up and git" on pain of death.

The laying of the corner stone of the State Capitol of Oregon, took place at Salem on the 8th inst. with imposing ceremony. Some eighty-three articles were deposited under the stone. The oration of Hon. S. F.
