

LANGDON WINS THE FIRST ROUND

Gains a Temporary Advantage Over San Francisco Officials And Politicians.

ATTEMPTS TO ANNOY HENEY.

Deputy Sheriff Undertakes to Search Him for Arms But is Stopped By Judge.

San Francisco, Oct. 26.—After a day of tremendous excitement, Dist. Atty. Langdon, who was last night suspended from office by acting Mayor Gallagher, was apparently in a victorious position, and had gained a temporary advantage over the city officials and politicians, whom he has announced he intended to have indicted for felonies and misdemeanors.

Almost at daylight this morning attorneys representing Langdon appeared at the residence of Superior Judge Sewall and obtained an order temporarily restraining Political Leader Abraham Ruef, whom the acting mayor appointed to succeed Langdon, from interfering with the officials or affairs of the district attorney's office.

Judge Sewall set the case for hearing one week from today. The restraining order was served on Ruef and the board of supervisors at an early hour. Langdon, with his assistant, Francis J. Heney, was not disturbed in their official capacity.

The excitement of the day came with the proceedings in the court of the court of Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham, where the nineteenth and final member of the new grand jury was chosen, and where it was expected that the court would settle the question of recognition of either Langdon or Ruef as district attorney.

When the desired juror had been accepted, Heney arose and made objection to the actions of a deputy sheriff who had several times attempted to search him. Ruef said that the deputy was acting under his instructions in being Ruef's belief that Heney was armed. The court warned the deputy to cease annoying Mr. Heney. Then came the question of recognition of either Langdon or Ruef as district attorney.

Ruef attempted to address the judge as "an officer of the court," but Heney objected to Ruef assuming such right. The silence of the courtroom intensified, for here, it was expected, that the fate of Heney or Ruef was to be decided, but Judge Graham declined to pass upon the issue, saying that he would not at that time settle the dispute, nor recognize any one as an officer of the court. He refused to hear any further argument on the subject.

Ruef, however, succeeded in obtaining permission to speak as an attorney at the bar, and declared that he wished to proceed with the examination of the qualifications of certain grand jury men. Heney interrupted, saying that the first thing he intended to do was to present to the grand jury a charge of felony and misdemeanor against Ruef.

At this juncture another objection came from U. S. Webb, attorney general for the state, who declared that the court should not permit such statements to be made before the grand jury, which was present, as it might disqualify them, and he averred that there was a possibility that they had already been disqualified.

Webb then asserted that he intended to assume charge of the matters now before the court. Judge Graham ordered the jury dismissed until Monday morning, and Heney strongly protested against the order, saying that Mr. Langdon knew what matters would be presented to the jury in its first hour, and that time would now be given to bribe certain witnesses and get them out of the court.

Henry Ach, acting as attorney for Ruef, offered to meet the attorney general and Heney so that the matter might be prepared for submission to the supreme court, but Heney refused, saying that it was his duty to defend the grand jury, and that he would confer with his attorneys. Court then adjourned to Monday.

Drunkards Cured in 24 Hours.

Any Lady Can Cure the Most Violent Drunkard Secretly at Home.

To Prove it, a Free Trial Package is Sent Sealed to All Who Write.

Let no woman despair. The sure, quick, permanent cure for drunkenness has been found.

It is Golden Specific. It has no odor. It has no taste. Just a little is put in the drunkard's cup of coffee or tea, or in his food. He will never notice it, he will be cured before he realizes it, and he will never know why he abandoned the taste for liquor.

Gone Mad From Whiskey.

His desire for drink disappears absolutely, and he will even abhor the very sight and smell of whiskey.

The vigor he has wasted away by drink will be restored to him, and his health and strength and cheerfulness will return to brighten your home.

Golden Specific has cured some of the most violent cases in a day's time. This fact is proven by many ladies who have tried it.

Mrs. Mattie Watkins, Vanceburg, Ky., says:

"My husband took two doses of your medicine about five months ago and has not taken a drink or had any desire for liquor since then. Our home is so different now."

Mrs. Mabel Zink, R. F. D. 6, Salem, Oregon, says:

"My husband has not touched liquor since I gave him the sample package of your Golden Specific."

Save your loved one from premature death and the terrible consequences of the drink cure and save yourself from poverty and misery.

It costs absolutely nothing to send your name and address to Dr. J. W. Haines, 737 Glen Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, and he will at once send you a free package of the marvelous Golden Specific in a plain, sealed wrapper.

He will also send you the strongest, conclusive proof of what a blessing it has been to thousands of families.

Early this morning a party of five prospectors made a bold dash into the reservation, but they had gone but a few miles before they were overtaken and summarily arrested. They were informed that they would not be allowed to locate on the reservation, and were ordered to leave the country under threat of arrest. Other prospectors who today had taken places too near the lines were ordered to keep at a proper distance.

THRILLING STORY OF RESCUED MEN.

New York, Oct. 26.—A thrilling story of the rescue of half a dozen men in the recent storm off the Florida keys and the subsequent suicide of a captain was related by Capt. Rudolph Rubell, of the Standard Oil company's steamer Capt. A. M. Lucas, which arrived here today after the most tempestuous voyage of her career.

The rescued men were fishermen whose boat had been swept to sea by the gale. The plight of the fishermen was called to the attention of a watchman on the Lucas during the height of the storm by a signal fire which they were burning on top of their houseboat before assistance could be sent, the signal fire had spread to the houseboat. The steamer was run alongside the burning houseboat and the men were rescued.

On Oct. 23 the sea quieted and the trip was continued without incident until Tuesday. Then Albert Nelson, whose home is in Brooklyn, suddenly jumped up from the dinner table, screamed out, "I can stand this no longer," ran to the rail and jumped into the sea. His minor was said, but became deranged. A boat several minutes later found him, but no trace of Nelson was found.

The poorest kind of an animal brings a large price, hence the reservation near Yerington and Schurz are being carefully guarded by mounted police.

Yerington, Nev., via Schurz, Nev., Oct. 26.—Tremendous excitement prevails at this point, and the northwestern side of Walker lake, where between 2,000 and 4,000 deer have gathered prepared for rush to the Nevada Indian reservation, a large portion of which was thrown open at noon on Monday next.

The reservation presents a spectacular appearance. Although the majority of those who are here for the hunt are seasoned miners, a large number have had no experience in mining whatever. A great percentage of the prospectors are from California, although Goldfield, Potosi and other Nevada mining towns have contributed the largest quota. Men are also here from nearly all the large eastern cities. Mining syndicates and their representatives who have been in the camp have been experienced as yet. It is believed much suffering may result unless more provisions are rushed in. The camp at Yerington was swelled by about 600 additional people today, and several thousand are expected tomorrow. Conveyances and pack animals have been chartered and a high price has been placed on them.

HEARST NOMINEES ARE HIT VERY HARD

Names of Independence Candidates for Congress and Assembly Ordered Removed.

JUDICIARY TICKET INTACT.

Decision Was Rendered by Appellate Division of New York Supreme Court.

New York, Oct. 26.—The appellate division of the supreme court today reviewing the decisions of the board of elections on contested nomination cases in New York county, today handed down a decision removing from the ticket a majority of the candidates nominated by the Independence league for Congress, the state senate and the assembly. In a few instances contested candidates will have places on the ballot for the reason that objection to their candidacy was not made within the prescribed time. To these will be added several against whom no protest was entered, and others still will be placed, not under the "balanced scales," the emblem of the league, but in another column beneath a distinctive symbol.

The decision affecting these local nominations is based on technicalities, the petitioners in each instance failing to observe the letter of the law.

Counsel for the league announced tonight that they had filed an application with the court of appeals at Albany asking for a special session of the court, at which the ruling of the appellate division may be argued.

In another decision the appellate division upheld the contention of the league that as it was a corporation its executive committee had the right to say who should be placed on the league ticket, the court holding that the judiciary ticket to appear under the balanced scales was the one authorized by the league managers. This leaves the league's judiciary ticket intact except in one instance where the nominee declined to run.

HUGHES WAITS ON HEARST.

Cornell, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, came to Corning today, held a reception of one hour in the late afternoon and tonight addressed a large audience.

Mr. Hughes' route from the station to the hotel here lay through the manufacturing district and twice Mr. Hughes was stopped by delegates of working men who came out in their clothes of toil to greet him. At both the old soldiers from the state soldiers' home were gathered in great number. Mr. Hughes spoke of his pleasure at meeting the veterans, and continued:

"I have been ordered to the front in this campaign and I have responded to what I believe to be a call of duty. The union must ever be preserved. It is not a call to arms, but it is a call to think; it is a demand upon intelligence; it is a demand for sober consideration of public questions. The issue of this campaign is whether the good sense of the people of this state shall triumph."

"It is a shame to find an organized effort, one which some think may possibly be conducted successfully, to make the people of this country think that all business life is based; that all those who are in control of great enterprises are plunderers and bandits; that there is no wholesomeness in American life. I tell you it is false."

Mr. Hughes said that he was appealing to the intelligence of the people and that he had made no statements during the campaign which were not facts. He declared he was still waiting for his opponent to answer his question as to whether or not the "Hearst corporations are good citizens and pay their taxes."

APPEAL TO FRENCH CATHOLICS.

Bordeaux, France, Oct. 26.—Cardinal LeCot, archbishop of Bordeaux, has issued an appeal to the faithful not to join "false Catholics and bad priests" in the formation of associations to take over church property, and warns the parishioners who do so that they will lose the right to confess and receive the sacrament, and notified the priests that they would be prohibited from preaching and administering the sacrament, that those "who thus wrongfully acquire church property" will not only die in a state of sin, but the obligation will rest upon their posterity so long as the memory of the robbery endures."
