OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - AUG. 12, 1895.

On a Long Tramp.

Mr. Winters, aged 68, and his wife, 63 years of age, passed through Ogden yesterday, having walked nearly all the way from Eugene, Oregon. They are making their way to Cheyenne Mr. Winters is a pioneer, having passed through Salt Lake in July of 1847, staying three weeks on route to California. Although only a lad at that time he can remember Brigham Young. This is the first trip ever alone 1848. Lack of employment is compelling him to leave Oregon. Mr. Winters is a carpenter by trade and a well preserved man of his age. He and his wife passed through carrying a bundle of quilts.

A complaint charging Coughlin and George with the murder of Edward Dawes was sworn to by Sheriff Wright on Saturday.

Simms and Westover, charged with the Lynn burglary, have been held to the grand jury in $500 bonds.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - AUGUST 12, 1895.

Rich in Gold.

A short time ago the discovery of a claim giving promising indications of gold, by Emil Anderson and Oscar Bjorkman, within five miles of Logan, was noted in these columns. On Friday your correspondent saw a beautiful specimen of quartz from the same claim, about one-eighth of the ore being pure gold, proven so by the acid and other tests made in his presence by an expert. If they can find any considerable amount or large quality, and indications are favorable, they are on the road to wealth. The developments made on this claim within the next few weeks may cause a rush.

M. H. Farnes of Logan has received the cheering intelligence from Weatherby station, Baker county, Oregon, that the Bonanza Gold Mining and Milling company, in which he is a heavy stockholder, will make a small run of one hundred tons this month, as are assaying from $170 to $500. Their tunnel has been driven to a depth of over seven hundred feet. A heavy dividend is expected as a result of the run.

Notes.

The new catalogue of the B. Y. College, just issues from the press of Smith, Cummings & Co., is a thing of beauty, if not a joy forever. President Kerr has taken great pains in tabulating and classifying its contents, and it is the most complete and attractive catalogue yet issued for the college. Seventeen beautiful half-tone engravings adorn its pages; the paper is of excellent quality and the typographical work is a fine sample of the art preservative.

The Y. M. M. I. A. of Cache county has been busy for a long time collecting a fund for the erection of a monument to perpetuate the memory of John D. Gibbs, of Providence, who was slain by a mob in Tennessee, together with Elder Berry and the Crozier boys. Their efforts have been successful, and the contract has been awarded to P. O. Hansen of this city. It will be built of Georgia Cherokee marble, and will be a masterpiece of the sculptor's art.

A heavy frost fell last Wednesday night, and in some parts of the valley inflicted great damage to corn, beans, potatoes, etc. The frost followed its usual eccentric methods; in some instances leveling the vegetation on one half of a lot, and leaving the other half untouched; destroying the results of a summer's work for one man, and sparing by his neighbor. Logan has its effects less than some other towns.

Loud and lascivious conduct was the charge hooked against Julius Halvorsen on the police court docket on Saturday. He was caught in the tool chamber of a deaf and dumb womanfied woman on Friday night, but the evidence was not considered strong enough to hold him on a more serious charge. The judge found him guilty and imposed a fine of $15 and costs.

Robert Gray, a peripatetic vendor of jewelry, was arrested for peddling without a license. His plea was a claim to be but found a good thing when he must sell cheap to get broke. A bill of six such rings, for which he paid $3.75, was found on his person. It cooled four dollars each. He had one to sell.

Dr. H. J. Richards and family, of Salt Lake, passed through Logan on their way to the Yellowstone park the other day, and Mr. Kerrick and family and Miss Ella Ellerbeck passed through on the return journey.

Forty Logan people joined the Swedish band excursion to Garfield beach on Saturday, and a number of others were picked up at the different stations between here and Brigham City.

C. F. Olson, a legal light of Malad, and Elliot Davis, of the Preston Standard, rode their bicycles through from Malad to Logan on Saturday, arriving as fresh as daisies.

A handsome new iron fence now encloses the B. Y. College grounds, adding greatly to their appearance. Other extensive improvements are being made in the rear.

The Sportsman's club has its detectives watching parties suspected of shooting grouse during the closed season.

Professor Gentry's educated ponies and dogs were exhibited here on Friday and Saturday, and afforded Logan children much pleasure.

A new 10,000 bushel elevator has been added to the Deseret mills, and a new flume and penstock to the Thatcher mills.

OBITUARY NOTE.

MILLSBURY BAILEY BURTON.

ALTA, WYO., Aug. 8.—We are sorry to announce the death of Sister Millsbury Burton, who departed this life on Tuesday morning, the 6th inst., after an illness of a few days. Her death has cast a gloom over our ward, where she has resided since she left Hucknall-Torgard, in the Midland district, England, about eight years ago; and by her many good qualities and amiable disposition she had endeared herself to the Saints in Alta.

Sister Burton was the daughter of Ephraim and Eliza Bailey, and was born at Hucknall-Torgard in January, 1825, being 22 years and six months and at the time of her decease. She was married to Brother Franklin Burton, and leaves two children, the youngest of which was born shortly before her death.

Services were held in the ward church on Thursday at 2 o'clock, where a large company of Saints and friends had met to pay the last respects to our departed sister.

Consoling remarks were made by Elder Peter Hood Sen., Andrew Wallwork and Bishop Bowers. The remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege of sorrowing relatives and friends, and as the casket was lowered to the grave the Young Ladies' choir sang "Farewell and earthly honors," after which the grave was dedicated with prayer by Bishop James Bowers. This was laid to rest one of whom it can be said, she was a faithful daughter, a good wife and a loving mother. The sympathy of the Saints is given to Brother Franklin Burton, and to Brother Bailey and wife in this severe loss; and they extend to the saints grateful thanks for such unbounded act of sincere sympathy.
