LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—The weather was no impediment on Saturday evening that a large house would have been an extraordinary event. The play, "Nick of the Woods," was well rendered. Mr. Cogswell made a very good "J. H. Henshaw." Miss Walters, Miss Simmons, and Messrs. Thorne, Dwyer, and Dunne also rendered their several roles in a commendable manner.

For this evening there is a rare attraction, consisting of the grand spectacular romance, "The Witch," or the "Frozen Hand," with splendid new scenery, machinery and appointments, and new and beautiful music, in which Betty Ruhl, the star premieress, and Emily Ruhl, the premier danseuse, will appear in some of their wonderful evolutions. Mr. Cogswell will assume the character of "Harold, the Sea King." Miss Walters "Minna," Miss Kent "Druda," the Ice Witch," Miss Simmons "Ulla," Mr. Graham "Magnus Suono," Mr. Thorne "Grenthoff," and Mr. Dwyer "Svenno." In spite of the show, we shall be surprised if there is not a large house to-night. "A Kiss in the Dark" will precede the spectacle.

EXPLANATORY.—In consequence of the labor attending the arrangement of the News in its new dress, we are under the necessity of omitting a few advertisements this morning, and the News is published later to-day than usual, which our readers and patrons will be forward to excuse.

BOUNTIFUL MEETINGS.—The meetings held at Bountiful yesterday, under the auspices of the Salt Lake County Home Missionaries, were very numerous and attended, considering the condition of the weather, and a most excellent spirit prevailed throughout. The speakers were Elders Joseph H. Felt, Isaac Green, Milo Andrus, Geo. Tisdale, H. W. Naislett, and R. F. Nelson. The principal subjects dealt upon were the proper training of the young, tithing, and the latter-day judgment.

WELLS FARGO'S STAGES STOPPED.—The Stages of Wells Fargo & Co. have stopped running from this city, on account of the epidemic.

REBUTAL.—In an obituary notice of Mr. Homer Roberts, published in the News a few days ago, the types were inadvertently made to say that the gentleman died at the residence of his father. He died at the residence of his brother, Mr. H. H. Roberts, of this city.

THE SNOW.—Our long snow storm, continuing on and off since Friday, seems broken. For such a long storm the amount of snow on the ground is not much, say four or five inches. There was more yesterday. A sharp frost now would make sleighing practicable, of which we have had uncommonly little this winter.

Editor Deseret News.

Please publish the following advertisement from the eastern division superintendent of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company, with which the Deseret Telegraph Company connects.

Respectfully,
A. M. MURPHY,
Supt. Deseret Tel. Co.
SALT LAKE, Jan. 26.

On and after February 1st to tariff to any point on the Atlantic and Pacific lines will be $2.50 for 10 words.

Y. J. DICKY.

MARRIAGE.—In this city, on the 24th instant, by Rev. D. H. Miller, at the residence of the bride's father, Captain Francis M. Bishop, of the Deseret University, and Miss Eliza Pratt, daughter of Professor O. and Mrs. Adeline Anna Pratt.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH GREAT REDUCTION IN RATES.—The president directs that on and after February 1st, 1913, there shall be no rate between offices of the Western Union company higher than two dollars and fifty cents for a "day" word, all Western Union rates therefore which are at present higher than two dollars and fifty cents will be reduced to that amount from February 1st, 1913.

W. B. HERRING, Superintendent.
P. O. Box 1338, Salt Lake City.

HOME MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS.—Sunday, Feb. 2nd, South Cottonwood (Kullin's Ward).
Elders H. Miller, R. F. Nelson, Isaac Green, Theo. T. Miller, Milo Andrus and Samuel Nielsen.

PRINCETON, FEB. 9th.
Elders Milo Andrus and Isaac Green. Meetings commencing at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. The Elders named are requested to participate in filling the above appointments.

Saints from adjoining districts and wards are cordially invited to attend.

REUBEN MILLER,
per E. E. S.

"SUBSCRIBER" ANSWERED.—In answer to the query of "Subscriber," which appeared in the News a few days ago, "Bookkeeper," who says he would like to have an interview with "Subscriber," requests us to insert the following:

SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 27, 1913.

Editor Deseret News:

Sir:—Not having seen any reply to "Subscriber" I would say that before appointing him it is necessary to comprehend the magnitude of the business. Some do and others do not require a treasurer or secretary. The book-keeper, who should have experienced man, and not a boy just from college, full of theories, is, in fact, the secretary, and it is his duty to thoroughly understand the whole of the transactions of the establishment, to keep the books and accounts correctly, and conduct the business in a strict but gentlemanly manner, not neglecting anything or anybody.

The best work on book-keeping is "Practical Experience."

CLOSED UP.—We learn that Mr. David Jay, merchant of this city, has closed up his business, having sold his premises to the Messrs. Anschutz Bros., and his stock to Z. C. M. I.

COMMERCE HERE.—The offer, by the Z. C. M. I., of a reward of $500 for the best design for a telephone exchange, is a commendable to the scientific.

The St. Louis Democrat says: "There is no disease so fatal as the Western horse fever, as it has been found to be a disease of the blood, and is being cured by the use of a new medicine."

THUNDERSTORMS.—At one p.m. to-day, windy.
