SENSATIONAL LEAP FOR LIBERTY

J. H. Kellogg Jumps Through Car Window of Fast Speeding Train.

BLAZE IN SKATING RINK.

Damage of $1,000—By Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg.
Death of Miss Maggie Layton—Runaway Girl Captured.

Ogden, March 8.—Rather than face the courts with a criminal charge placed against him, J. H. Kellogg, being taken to Butte by Deputy Sheriff Mark Murray, jumped through the window of an Oregon Short Line train, at Peacott, early Saturday morning and made good his escape. Kellogg's leap for life and liberty was one of the boldest that has occurred in local annals of crime and one that shows nerve and cunning on the part of the criminal. Thus far the man has made good his escape.

Kellogg was arrested at the Ogden Union depot Thursday evening as he stepped from the Butte train, upon telegraphic instructions from the Montana town charging him with forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses. Friday evening Deputy Sheriff Murray arrived in the city to take Kellogg back with him. The man made no resistance and seemed willing to go back and face the charges.

The officer and his prisoner left Ogden at 12:25 Saturday morning. They occupied a seat in the smoking car. Shortly after leaving McCammon, Kellogg complained of the car being closed and raised the window. The deputy being a little drowsy, contented. The prisoner, seated next to the window, waited a few minutes for the deputy to get quiet again, then he suddenly leaped from the fast speeding train, and made good his escape.

SUNDAY FUNERALS.
 The funeral of the late James Thompson was held at the Fifth ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bishop H. C. Jacobs presiding. The music was furnished by the ward choir. The interment was in the city cemetery.

The funeral of Edward Speak was held at the St. Joseph's church Sunday at 2 p. m. Rev. Father Ryan officiating. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery.

HARVEST OF THE REAPER.

Margaret Elizabeth Layton, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Layton, died at the family residence, 221 Grant avenue, Sunday at 8 a. m. of pneumonia, after a short illness. The sudden death of the young girl caused a severe shock to the family as well as a host of friends in the city and county. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in their bereavement. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. at the St. Joseph's church. The interment was in the city cemetery.

RUNAWAY GIRL CAPTURED.

Ogden, March 8.—Lottie Mordock, the girl with the roving disposition, who has caused her family a great deal of worry during the past three or four months, by running away from home with a horse, and who left Friday morning with a valuable horse belonging to Henry Larson of Five Points, was captured in the northern part of the county on Saturday by juvenile officer H. C. Jacobs and is held in the juvenile ward of the county jail pending an investigation into her case by the juvenile court officers.

FIELDING MUST PAY PENALTY.

Ogden, March 8.—Word has been received in Ogden from Seattle, Wash., stating that Frank Fielding, who was taken to that city some weeks ago to face the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, had been given an indefinite sentence of from one to 14 years.

Fielding's escapades in this city with the Ogden Savings bank by securing money under false pretenses, also married an Ogden girl when he had a wife in Salt Lake City, will be remembered by the readers of this paper. The case against Fielding in Ogden was dismissed after the bank had been reimbursed for its losses. As soon as he was given his liberty in Ogden, Fielding was immediately arrested upon a warrant from Seattle, where it is alleged he defrauded a number of persons when he was on his bridal tour with his young Ogden wife.

SKATING RINK FIRE.

Shortly after last midnight, fire broke out in the roller skating rink owned by Phil O'Mara of Salt Lake City, which is situated in the principal business block of the city, being a one-story brick in the rear of the postoffice, and immediately adjoining the Browning Bros. garage. It being vacant since November, this fact leads to the belief that the fire was of an incendiary origin. For a time it seemed certain that great damage would be done. There was much excitement in the postoffice in the attempt to save all the valuables. The front of the garage was smashed in and most of the autos ran out into the street. It was feared that the fire would get into the gasoline in the garage and work great damage, but after a hard fight, the fire department succeeded in forcing its way into the fire, and in half an hour had it completely under control. The total damage will not exceed $1,000 and it is understood that this amount is covered by insurance.

FRANCHISE FOR INTERURBAN.

The county commissioners this morning granted a franchise to Lyman Skoutz, J. M. Offord and J. A. Taylor to construct a suburban street car line on the county roads between Ogden and Plain City, passing through Farr West and Harrisville. This is intended as a branch of the Ogden Rapid Transit system. The franchise, earned above will commence the roadway and the Rapid Transit people will lay the rails. It is expected that work on the line will begin at an early date.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Frenchman Deported.—United States Immigration Inspector DeHart, accompanied by Julius Hagbert Anderson, left Sunday afternoon for New York, having in custody Louis Delacour, who will be deported to France, whence he came to this country with an unbalanced mind.

Marriage Permit.—A marriage license was issued last Saturday afternoon to Louisa Nygren and Caroline Smith, both of Ogden.

Many Applicants for Job.—The board of education has on file 11 applications for the position of superintendent, the position from which William Allison resigned on March 1. Asst. Supt. Adams is acting as superintendent. The appointment of the superintendent will probably be made during the week.

Scorchers Warned.—The first arrest of the season for exceeding the automobile speed law was made yesterday afternoon by Special Officer William Reast and the offender was D. A. Smith, proprietor of the European hotel. The officers of the police and sheriff forces have been instructed to see that the speed of automobiles is considerably lessened this year and to arrest all offenders. Wm. Reast has been appointed automobile and bicycle officer and will see to it that riding bicycles on the sidewalk in the restricted districts and speeding automobiles in the city districts are stopped. Smith's case will be heard before Judge Murphy in the police court.

Thurston, born in Sevier county, O., May 26, 1835, and was baptized when 9 years old; went to Nauvoo with her father's family in the fall of 1845. They spent the winter there and in the spring of 1846 moved with the body of the Mormon people to Winterquarters, Ia., and in the spring of 1847 they joined the company of migrating saints in their westward movement, of which President J. M. Grant was captain. They arrived in Salt Lake valley in October, 1847, she was married to President J. M. Grant Dec. 12, 1847 and they had seven children. After his death she married Elder John F. Snedaker, and they had seven children born to them. All but two of them have preceded her to the great beyond.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. R. V. LeMay of Oakley, Ida., and Joseph L. Snedaker of this city, who is filling a mission in Germany. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. Funeral services in the fourth ward meetinghouse Monday, March 8.

PROVIDENCE.

DEATH OF WILLIAM FIFE.

Honored Veteran of Nauvoo and Utah Pioneer Closes Life's Labors.

Special Correspondence.

Providence, Cache Co., March 7.—William Fife, a resident of Cache valley, died at his residence in Providence, Feb. 24, of general debility. He is the son of James and Margaret Matison Fife, born Jan. 2, 1827, in Edinburgh, Scotland. He came to the United States with his parents in 1842, participated in the early trials of the saints in Nauvoo, and with them was exiled from there. In 1850 he arrived in Utah and settled in the Seventh ward of Salt Lake City. He took an active part in the Echo canyon campaign, and in 1853 at the time of the move, he went to Springville, Utah county. In 1859 he moved to Cache valley and Providence.

He was thoroughly conversant with the hardships of pioneer life. In 1865, he married Miss Phoebe Hemenway of Salt Lake, who with four sons and four daughters survived him. Three children preceded him. Nineteen grandchildren have been born into the family. He was an industrious energetic workman, an honest man, a good neighbor and friend, and an active worker in the church.

FILLMORE.

Candy Spread Function by High School Students—News Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Fillmore City, Millard Co., March 4.—The water system of Fillmore is making progress. The work of excavation of the trenches to lay the pipe has been let to W. N. McBride, and contract for pipe has also been awarded.

The State Bank of Millard county is now in its own building, where every convenience for transacting the business is supplied.

The students of Fillmore high school watered the eighth grade students of Fillmore district school in a grand candy spread in the old State House hall. Invitations were extended to the city council, the bishopric and parents. One hundred pounds of candy in 27 varieties was served the 200 guests in artistic style. The candy was the product of the labors of the high school students, under instructions of Mrs. J. Mills. A very much appreciated program was rendered.

The school business is overdone here, there being three sessions in this city, but rumor says that two will go out of commission soon.

Fruit buds are yet dormant, and the hope is that there will be a crop of fruit this coming season.
