

STRANGE CASE OF MRS. MONTANYA

C. O. Whittemore Says She Picked Up Pistol, Presumably Examining, Went Off.

WAS SHOT THROUGH HEAD.

Several Were in Room at Time but
No One Saw Just How Shooting Occurred.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 5.—The mysterious shooting of Mrs. Lorena de la Montanya in her apartment in San Francisco last Friday night, which the police at first thought to have been suicide, was explained today by C. O. Whittemore, vice president of the Los Vegas & Tonopah railroad, a resident of Los Angeles, who was with Mrs. Montanya at the time. Mr. Whittemore says that Mrs. Montanya accidentally shot herself while handling a revolver. According to his statement he, R. G. Hanford and a Mrs. W. H. Patton of San Francisco were dining with Mrs. Montanya. Hanford, who had a revolver in his pocket and placed it on a table.

"While our attention was diverted," said Whittemore, "Mrs. Montanya picked up the pistol and, I presume, started to examine it."

"We were all startled by a sudden report and Mrs. Montanya fell from the settee to the floor. The bullet had entered her temple. We quickly called for a physician, and when there was no response I went to my hotel to bring the doctor. Arriving there, I found that he had already responded, and I did not return to the scene. Mr. Hanford, I believe, also left very shortly after I did."

Mrs. Montanya received a final decree of divorce on the day of her death, her former husband being Marquis James de la Montanya, well known in the east.

A NEW ASPECT.

San Francisco, July 5.—Although an entirely new aspect was given to the shooting of Mrs. Lorena de la Montanya, divorced wife of Marquis James de la Montanya, last Friday night, by the story of C. O. Whittemore of Los Angeles today, and by the corroborative statements of R. G. Hanford and Mrs. W. H. Patton of this city, the other two persons in the room at the time, there is still some doubt as to whether the shooting was with suicidal intent or accidental.

Hanford, who corroborated Whittemore's statements today, but said that he believed Mrs. Montanya killed herself. He said that he was seated across the room, looking out of a window when the report of the weapon sounded, and looked around only in time to see the stricken woman fall. With Whittemore he went to Coroner Leland within a few hours and gave his story of the affair. Leland sailed with the naval reserve aboard the Alert on Saturday, and is not expected to return until tomorrow.

MOTHER AND FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

Hollister, Cal., July 5.—Mrs. M. Le-cumber, who keeps a boarding house at a mining camp near New Idria, in the southern part of San Benito county, and her four children, were burned to death as the result of an alleged incendiary fire last night.

SAMUELSON FALLS FROM MOTOR

One of the largest crowds of the season witnessed an excellent program of bicycle races at the saucer track last night. The spectators were close and exciting and there were one or two surprises.

In the ninth mile of the 10-mile three-covered motorcycle race Samuelson's new machine went down, throwing the rider to the track, but fortunately he escaped injury. The race was won by Whittier and Turville second.

The half-mile handicap professional was won by Iver Lawson who came over the finish line with a burst of his old-time speed. Walker captured the five-mile event, having been pulled by Barrett.

McCack gave Wright a surprise by taking the half-mile but the champion Simon pure captured the two-mile event. The summary follows:

Five-mile handicap—Lawson (scratch), won; Carlisle (100), second; Nesbitt (20), third. Time—1:51.

Five-mile lap, professional—Walker won; Samuelson, second; Palmer, third. Time—10:06.

Two-mile motor race—Whittier won; Turville, second; Samuelson (fall), third. Time—13:03 2-5.

Half-mile, amateur—McCormack won; Wright, second; Hume, third. Time—59:4-5.

Two-mile lap handicap, amateur—Wright (scratch), won; McCarthy (50), second; Hume (25), third; McCormack (55), fourth. Time—3:55.

WHAT WERE CALLED REAL AUTO RACES

About 200 persons pumpled up a dollar each yesterday afternoon to see what had been advertised as automobile races, and in the language of the Dutchman, "De vass stinged." It was about the biggest farce ever pulled off in Utah and Ed. McClelland, manager of Wanda-mere, made it plainly understood that the management was in no way responsible for the fiasco, as the track had been leased for the day by C. W. Danzle, who promoted the races.

The nearest approach to a race was between R. H. Dowle, driving a Buick and H. C. Davis, driving a Ford. For two and a half miles the machines ran around the track and then the Buick overtook the Ford and won. The time announced was enough to make anyone dizzy even if the speed would not. There was a few minutes of a physical contest which was claimed to be done in 1934, but most of the spectators apparently hailed from a far state called Missouri. A bunch lined up on motorcycles for a five-mile race and then it was called off.

AT THE RESORTS

Lagoon—Monday was a big day at Lagoon. The crowds equalling those of last year at the resort, which was almost unprecedented. The train service was much improved, and barring some delay on the last train, caused by the breaking of an engine, the crowds were handled in admirable style.

Tomorrow the Ohio society and their friends will enjoy an afternoon at Lagoon. Dr. Snider, who is at the head of the committee on arrangements for the affair, says that all Ohioans or descendants of Ohioans are particularly invited to be present, and also their friends. The afternoon will be spent more in the nature of a family luncheon party than anything else, with just a big family of natives of the Buckeye state and their friends participating. The trains at 4 and 5 p. m. will carry the Ohioans to the Davis county resort.

Saltair—Every day is Elks' day at Saltair. The local lodge has a committee of men out on each railroad engine, Salt Lake and they receive all Elks bound for the big convention in California and show them about Salt Lake. A portion of the regular program is an afternoon at Saltair, and it is estimated that 5,000 Elks will visit the resort every day for the next 10 days.

The management has put a very large force of men at work repairing the damage done by the windstorm of Sunday evening. The platform between the pavilion and the men's bunking quarters has been practically repaired, and all the portions of the building and walks injured by the storm will be rebuilt at once. It is expected that by this evening all signs of havoc created by wind and rain will be wiped out.

Wandamere—The "day" at Wandamere was celebrated in good style yesterday. No special features were on, outside of a general patriotic observance of the Fourth, but many people went to the resort for a few cool hours in the heat of the day and for the ball in the evening.

One feature had been advertised in the shape of automobile races, but these were not conducted under the resort management, and were entirely separate and distinct from the resort. That the races were somewhat of a fiasco has determined the management to permit no more features of this character unless they be under the direct control of the resort management.
