In a forgiving mood she has signed the papers asking the courts to dis-miss the damage sult against the young man who, she says, promised to make her his wife and then refused to take her to the altar. FORGIVEN, NOT FORGOTTEN. "Though she has forgiven him, she has not forgotten. "Indeed, there are moments when her heart is filled with hatred for the man whom she accused of trif-ing with her affections; there are times when she hates the very thought of him, she says, and when she pitie: herself for her lack of discernment and her foolish, girlish confidence in man.

man. "I don't see what on earth I found in the little freak,' said Miss Evans in an interview yesterday. 'He is such ah uninterosting creature, whose sole topics of conversation were baseball and figures. His letters were so empty, so barren of thought, that I often des-troyed them without reading them. When I think that I allowed him to caress me, to put his lips to mine and hold me in his arms, I realize the stupidity of it all, the foolishness of a trusting girl. Still I forgive him.' "Miss Evans said that Springer has molested her ever since she filed the $uperior court. She stated yesterday that Springer approached her several times at a sanitarium, where she is mursing her foster mother, the million-aire's wife, and that she finally yielded to his entreaties and signed the papers releasing him from any obligations to-ward her.

Or. Death After Operation—Following an operation. Andrew W. Johnson, of Spanish Fork, died at the Groves L. D. S. hospital shortly after 7 o'clock last evening. A week ago he came to the city for treatment and it was found that an operation would be necessary. He was too weak, how-ever, to stand the ordeal and death resulted as indicated. The deceased was about 50 years of age. The re-mains will be shipped to his home town for burial. Denutics Haid Resort — Deputy ward her.

"I was sick of him,' she stated. 'One evening he invited me and a friend to dine with him at a downtown cafe. We accepted and had a good time but when the walter came with his bill Springer gave me a sign of nas a more successful way of acquir-ing wealth than by suing men for breach of promise. She has adopted herself or been adopted into the family of a millionaire of the coast city. Miss Evans gained notoriety here by entering suit against Dr. W. A. Mc-Enery for $50,000, which she demand-ed as a pancea for her wounded feel-ings, alleging that Dr. McEnery had betrayed her under promise of mar-riage. She received a neat sum by way of compromise, and went to the coast. Very soon thereafter a similar suit was filed in Los Angeles against a young bank clerk named Curtis W. Springer, whom she accused of tamp-ering with her affections. Part of the alleged adoption is thus told in a Los Angeles paper of recent date: "Miss Edith Evans, the pretty young woman who sued Curtis W. Springer, the paying teller of the Southern Trust company, for breach of promise, no longer cares for the $50,000 damages she hoped to receive by order of the courts. time but when the waiter calles with his bill Springer gave me a sign of distress and I slipped him a $5 gold plece with which he settled for the supper. Then my friend said it was not right that I should pay and she returned the money to me and settled for the dinner.' "Miss Evans says that ever since she began the suit against Springer he has visited her frequently importun-ing her at times to agree to a dismis-sal of the action. He told her that he had a chance to regain his position in the bank, which he was forced to give up because of the notoriety the case gave him. RARE WORK SOON OUT OF PRINT

The announcement made by the Deseret News, that the History of Utah by Hon. Orson F. Whitney, was now being offered at half price and that it would soon be out of print, has excited considerable attention during Conference week. A large number of applications have been received at the Deseret News Book store from visitors to the city and many sets of this rare book have been sold. It is expected that as soon as the libraries of the country are heard from, the complete edition will be exhausted and our friends are once more reminded that this great work which originally sold at $30, is now offered at $15, when the present supply is exhausted the work will be absolutely unobtainable

Call at the Deseret News Book Store immediately and see the copies.
