That is the Report Sent From Rome to a London Paper.

BATHING CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS

Concerning the Invasion of Turkish Territory by Greek Volunteers Last Friday.

LONDON, April 10.—A dispatch to the Observer from Rome says that it was reported at midnight that war had been declared between Turkey and Greece.

A FAN-HELLION MOVEMENT.

ATHENS, April 11 (Spon).—Accounts are very conflicting as to what really happened last Friday when the frontier was crossed by the insurgents. A special correspondent of the Associated Press from London last evening (Saturday) and ascertained that the invaders numbered upward of 5,000. Among them were Amelias, Cypriotes and the Italian volunteers.

FOR EUROPE'S PEACE.

A San Arrangement of the Powers.

Berlin, April 10.—Copyrighted, 1907, by the Associated Press.—It is understood on reliable authority that another great struggle on the political horizon is imminent.

The relations of France and Russia have steadily grown worse in the last few years. The two nations are now in a state of mutual hostility, and the situation is becoming more and more dangerous.

On Friday a monk from Mount Athos, assisted by his abbot and two monks, held a religious service at Kalamata, at which all members of the invading party partook of the sacrament and received the oath of the order, "fidelity or death."

In addition to large quantities of ammunition and provisions, the forces had 25,000 of gold. During Friday night, following the service the frontier was crossed, the force moving in the direction of Kalamata.

While the movement was in progress a second band, the number of which is not known, had a religious service at Kalamata, at which all members of the invading party partook of the sacrament and received the oath of the order, "fidelity or death."
