

DESERT EVENING NEWS.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1904.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of communications. Correspondents are asked to send every communication accompanied by their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—In the performance of "Colleen Bawn" to-night, we look for much genuine enjoyment. Elly O'Connor, innocent, loving, cunning and winning, is a character around which M. Mc. Scheller will throw all the charms of her chaste and natural acting, and which she will embellish with the most perfect singing. Miss Kenzie's Danny Mann is an artistic and powerful impersonation. From the manner in which Mr. Lindsay played O'Callaghan on his last benefit, we look for a most excellent characterization of Miles. Miss Adams plays the lively, dashing Anne Clutter. Mrs. Clutter is played by Miss Sheelah, and Mrs. Bowring a good Mrs. Creagan; while Mr. Graham and Mr. Hardie, as Kyrle and Hardress, have characters to which they are well suited. The cast is a powerful one, and the playing should be splendid.

THIRD WARD, SALT LAKE CITY, NOV. 1TH, 1904.—Editor Deseret News.—Dear Sir: As you were pleased to notice the party in the 3rd Ward on Monday evening, and the presentation of which I was the object, permit me through your columns to briefly express my warm acknowledgments to the scholars and teachers of the Sabbath School, and to the committee who superintended the arrangements. The many bestowed upon me of the good feelings of those in whose society I have labored with so much pleasure and profit, in the Sabbath School of the 3rd Ward, was an unexpected and unlooked for, as it was gratifying and will be cherished as a testimony of the esteem of those whom I respect and love. If my being called to a mission south had no other gratification, the fact that it elicited such a token of their affection would make me ever remember it with the highest feelings. I cannot express myself to them as I would, but they will ever have a warm friend and affectionate brother, in Sir,
Yours respectfully,
JOHN WAYMAN.

LATE FROM BEAR RIVER.—The Frontier Index of the 3rd says: "The liveliest city, I do not think, in America, is Bear River." A frank admission.
From it we learn that the railroad was completed and construction trains running to a point on Muddy Creek, opposite Fort Bridger, thirty miles east of Bear River city. The following headed "Walking Papers," clipped from its local column, is significant: "WALKING PAPERS.—The gang of gamblers from the railroad towns, who are congregated here, are ordered to vacate this city or hang within sixty hours from this noon. By order of."
ALL GOOD CITIZENS.

POLICE.—Joseph Neely was "drunk and disorderly," for which his Honor, Justice Clinton, fined him this morning $10.

FROM ENGLAND.—In the Millennial Star of Oct. 19th, by letters from Elders James Needham and James Sharp to President A. Carrington, we learn that the work is progressing under the charge of the former in the Kent Conference and under the charge of the latter in Edinburgh. The spirit of immigration prevails among the people, who are making noble efforts, in the midst of their poverty, to help themselves by the time the next season for immigrating comes around.

THE STORM.—Didn't it come down last night and to-day, with a heavy continuous fall, drizzling the valleys and covering the mountains in a wintry robe of white? We may have a spell of fine weather yet, however, before winter fairly sets in.

AN UNDERGROUND FIGHT.—Two miners named Owen McCabe and John Conway, got into a fight about a week ago, in the 700-foot level of the Yellow Jacket mine, Virginia, Nevada, when the latter struck the former a blow above the right eye with the back of a pick, causing in nearly two inches square of his skull, and producing a wound which is believed to be a result in death. So says the Enterprise of the 31st ult.

PROGRESSIVE.—The Deseret Steam Wood working Company commenced operations yesterday, a block and a half west of the old Tabernacle, Messrs. Folsom & Romney and Latimer & Taylor having entered into a co-partnership in the business, in the firm name of Folsom, Romney & Co. Part of the machinery has not yet been received, but is expected here in a few days, having left Bryan on the 4th. The planing, tonguing and girding machinery is running; the saw and door machine is also running in a day or two; and when the balance is received and put in working order, a great want in the Territory will be supplied. When in full working order they will be able to furnish mouldings from one inch to nine inches, with a long lumber in any quantity, and everything else in their line. We are gratified at the opening of this establishment. Their machinery is first-class, the premises commodious, and they have every facility for doing a large and extensive business.

WHICH.—The Denver Rocky Mountain News, under the heading "Personal and Political," gravely informs its readers that "Boston has snow birds," and that "there is a good deal of sickness among the mosquitoes." It is easy to understand how approaching winter might early favor the "Hub" with these ornithological specimens, and how the song of the mosquitoes would give place to the languid chilliness induced by frosty nights; but how those specimens of the animal kingdom have become involved in the late political contest, or whether they are claimed as being "personal" or "political" notice, remains to be decided.

NEW RAILROAD TOWN.—The line of the C. & R. R. is becoming noted for "magic" and temporary railroad towns, as well as the U. P. R. R. towns are nearly forgotten. Wamsutter is almost an old story. Wamsutter seems to be fading, and a new town is being built. It is the great point of attraction in that region for season. The Virginia Enterprise says: "The new town of Argonne, on the railroad, is now completed, is situated about eight miles east of the mouth of the river, there are 333 miles east of Sacramento. Argonne, however, passengers are carried no farther than Wamsutter, for the reason that there are no houses at Argonne for the accommodation of travelers. It is as yet a town without a public house. Public houses will be built, and passengers will be carried through Argonne, having 20 miles of stage travel. It is expected that Argonne will be the big town of all that region, as it is there that the new Argonne will strike the railroad. The site of the town was selected eight miles beyond the mouth of the river, for the reason that from that point a better road to Astoria could be built."

SENSATION HEADLINES.—The Omaha Herald of the 31st ult., heads a telegram received concerning the hanging of the five men at Bear River, reported yesterday's News, with "Wholesale" suspension of the men, and "Wholesale" hanging in one day, and a good day for hanging. Elmer Lamb, Jig Dancing Extraordinary, and several other names are mentioned. Now, what do you think of that for sensationalism?
