

OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, Jan. 22.—Saturday night U. S. Marshals Miller came up from the city to serve subpoenas in Brigham City on D. G. and Thomas McNamee, partners, citing them to appear before the United States district court, Ogden, as a court of bankruptcy, and answer to petition of nonresident creditors asking that they be adjudged bankrupt. Both parties were tried in the United States district court Saturday. The stock of the McNamees was sold and a sum in C. 43 was paid out during the trial, and Tuesday the company will go to Payson to pay the balance. The amount is $10,000. The trial will be held at the federal building in Ogden on January 26.

The McNamees' bankruptcy was submitted to the court by the attorney for the creditors, who is the same Judge Jacob Johnson. The trial of the suit is in Brigham. Litigation continues to the present time, when it is to be decided whether the stock can be sold or not.

Saturday afternoon, in the district court, the will of George Langley was admitted to probate. The hearing of the petition for the issuance of letters testamentary thereof will be heard on Tuesday, January 26.

The Marion irrigation water sufficient to irrigate all the land in the valley court this morning, was Judge Jacob Johnson. The trial of the suit is in Marion. Litigation continues to the present time, when it is to be decided whether the water can be sold or not.

Chief Justice Joseph A. West of the Sixth and Pacific railroad came up from Salt Lake City Saturday evening to the Sabbath at home with his family. He reports that work on the road is progressing favorably.

The roads and mountain passes are packed full of snow and there is little danger of a shortage of water or timber. The snow has been falling fast in the city, the snow in the basin is more than six feet in depth and very solid. Last winter there was only three feet of snow in the same locality.

Cable King John Sparks of Home, New York, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. Greenway was told to eat in the Ogden cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian church, and crowded with relatives and friends, many being unable to obtain entrance into the church. The members of First Legion N. M. were present, following the example of the young Edger Joseph Hall was the speaker and his remarks were eloquent and convincing.

Peter L. Sherman, whose funeral was held Saturday afternoon, was junior of the First Public school house and very popular with both men and women.

PROVO.

PROVO, Jan. 22.—The following orders have been made in the Fourth district court:

Estate of Hollister D. Lawney, deceased; C. E. Lowe, John H. Twiss and Lafayette Hollister appointed administrators of property situated in Utah county; Thomas Liverell, James McNamee and James Kay were appointed appraisers of property situated in Davis county.

Estate of Alfred Taylor, deceased; a set of personal property confirmed; W. H. Bright appointed administrator.

Estate of Samuel Budd, deceased; Peter O'Kearney, Frank W. Williams and David Morgan appointed administrators. February 2d was set for hearing the account of the administrator of the estate of Amos D. Bringham, deceased.

BURILTON CLASSES.—Dr. Karl O. Maser, Elmer Beaman, W. V. Weston and George Young attended the meetings of the Burilton classes, and gave valuable instructions to the congregation. Dr. Maser also spoke in the evening at the Brigham meeting house. The meetings were very interesting, and caused much interest and application in the study of the Word of God and learning the principles of the Gospel. Dr. Maser reported in his address that religious classes were now being organized in every town in the state, and that there was an enrollment of over 4,000, all of whom had an interest in becoming acquainted with the principles of the organization. He spoke of the future of the associations, and indicated that when the people became more interested in the work for which the classes were organized, would meet every day during the school year, instead of once a week.

Danice Price died Saturday evening at his home near the cemetery after about two weeks illness from pneumonia. He was a native of Wales, and a native of Wales. He came to the country about two years ago and settled in the same place. His wife, from whom he was separated, and has made his home here since. He leaves a wife, who has also been separated from him, and two sons. The funeral took place today.

W. H. Bright's funeral services were performed from Marion church Saturday evening. The services were conducted in the Methodist Tabernacle, and he was buried in the cemetery. The services were conducted by Dr. M. C. Thompson, who had no difficulty in getting the services.

Mr. M. C. Thompson, who had no difficulty in getting the services.

NOTES AND PERSONAL.—Seth C. Collier, who has been absent from the city with the wife is recovering.

Representatives Horne and O'Neill, Senator Blaine, spent Sunday in Ogden.

George P. Gaert, lately a missionary to the Indians in Oregon, now teaching in Washington and Idaho, is in Ogden Saturday and yesterday.

Frank McNamee, who was taken to Ogden by Sheriff Sturges, of Salt Lake City, charged with intent to commit a felony, was released on bail to await the action of the court in the case of the trial. In the trial of which he was accused of having committed a felony, he was found guilty of assault and battery upon the sheriff.

On account of the unusual condition of the water and the weather, the principles in the railroad, to support of the corporation, to be rejected.

There is the name and substance of the debt, and the main point and interest of the argument.

—continued. Rev. Johnson, for his impartiality in his rulings and pronouncements, and to all parties who took an active part in the debate.

Special to Deseret Telegraph.

LOGAN.

Special to the "News."

BALTIMORE-CITY DEBATE.

LOGAN, Jan. 22.—The concluding session of the great Baltimore-City debate convened in the Thresher Opera house Saturday evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

It was found on Friday evening that the concluding debate would add such large numbers that the second meeting would be held in the auditorium of the Tabernacle, just east of the Tabernacle, where the audience was in a room in C. 43, and during the past week had nearly all disposed of.

At 7:30 o'clock Saturday night the tabernacle Pacific stage was occupied by the railroad engineers, who were the last to leave the city.

The debate opened with various introductions, and the speakers addressed the audience.

Mr. John Dawson of Preston is here from Idaho, and has come to speak from him. He followed the audience some distance south of Preston but finally left their trail.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Special to the "News."

BRIGHAM, Jan. 22.—The popular annual and afternoon meeting of the Tabernacle Tabernacle was held at the Tabernacle, just east of the Tabernacle, where the audience was in a room in C. 43, and during the past week had nearly all disposed of.

At 7:30 o'clock Saturday night the tabernacle Pacific stage was occupied by the railroad engineers, who were the last to leave the city.

The debate opened with various introductions, and the speakers addressed the audience.

Mr. John Dawson of Preston is here from Idaho, and has come to speak from him. He followed the audience some distance south of Preston but finally left their trail.

ELDER CONVERSE.

My friend last evening—said the speaker, again claimed that Joseph Smith Jr. was not the man "mighty and strong," who should be called if one was to be chosen to lead the church.

He said that the first two trials, at least, were not available, and that the last was not available.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.

They were equally welcomed at Home of Pleasant View, and not seen to them much of a hurt though they had been ill.

He said that the Utah history had been cut out.

"None of us lost our books, and we still keep up our studies and the Tabernacle.

At the Tabernacle, they expected a better trial, and have put in for one, but the Tabernacle had already surrendered.