In answer to that Mr. Stewart stated that the time would be rather short in which to prepare his abstract and brief and he would much prefer to have the case go over until the February term of court. The question involved in this appeal, he said, is the misconduct of the jurors, the same question as on the former appeal, but it is based upon additional and different facts. Since the first appeal Mr. Royal B. Young has given the defense facts concerning the mis-conduct of the jurors which were not know at that they and which form know at that time and which form the grounds of this appeal. In addition that, Mr. Stewart said that there also the affidavit of one of the also: urors, in regard to the conduct of the jury, which was not in the record of the former appeal.

RESISTED BY ATTORNEY-GEN-ERAL.

Attorney-General Breeden resisted the motion for a certificate of probable sause for the reason that the same matter is brought up in this appeal as in the former one and further he thought the court should put a stop to this endless chain of appeals.

PROCRASTINATION DISAPPROVED.

Justice Bartch expressed his disapal of this repeated prograstination He said that there ought to be an end some time to such litigations. He was ing to suspend the rule of the court and hear the arguments on the appeal at this term and settle the matter before the date of execution, but he was not in favor of issuing a certificate of bable cause and allowing the case

FAR EASTERN SITUATION. It Seems to be Very Much Less Reassuring.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—A request of the Associated Press for a statement today of the foreign office indicating Rusia's position in connection with the far eastern question elicited only the significant reading of a less reassuring dispatch from Tokio.

The newspapers here say the Russian Pacific squadron consists of 54 war-ships, including six battleships, eight first class and five second class cruis-ers, two-torpedo transports and 24 torpedo boat destroyers, ha ing an argre-gate of 750 officers and 13,200 men. There are now on the way to the far east two battleships, three first class cruisers and 11 to pedo boats of various classes with 164 officers and 3,284 men.
