IT WAS A TERRIBLE FALL.

The sudden Death of Henry Johnson at the Horn Silver Mine, Frisco.

From particulars now at hand it is ascertained that Henry Johnson, who met death so suddenly at the Horn Silver mine, Frisco, on Wednesday evening, July 11th, was a native of the State of Ohio.

The unfortunate man's body was found in a very peculiar position, and it is believed that he fell from the top of the mine.

The death of Henry Johnson is a great loss to the mine, and it is believed that the cause of the accident was a defective ladder.

It is believed that the cause of the accident was a defective ladder, and it is hoped that the mine will be made safer in the future.

A STIRRING TIME. Is apt to follow the breaking of a shell, but the result in the case of our beautiful eggs is immensely satisfactory. There isn't a hen acknowledging I love Sam's authority, that wouldn't be proud of our eggs, which are now only a cents a dozen. You're bound to thank our groceries, too, staple, fancy and great, fresh from the garden and farm, and as welcome to the table as an umbrella is to the sun. You can't make about anything out of prime groceries—a meal for instance, and as usual we've grown that was half as fine as those concocted of our table vegetables and delicacies. Have you one of these boxes of our quality? Fastidious, in taste, quality, price, half a dozen, $1.00 per dozen.
