RAILWAY TO CAPITOL BILL.

When the West Temple Street line will be extended to Bunker.

The City Council recently adopted a report from the committee on streets which made no emphatic and almost unanimous report of the City Street Railway company to change its route to building and operating a line to Capitol Hill from Main to Center via Contract street. This has caused the company to file a strong objection with the city council. Their complaint was read at a meeting of the City Council last night and referred to the city attorney for investigation and report. The company states that it would be impracticable and almost impossible to build and operate a line over Contract street until a portion of that road should have been lowered six feet and that was the company's way they should not be expected to do.

In regard to the West Temple street franchise, the company says all subdivisions will be complied with by them as far as they can go, and when the roads will have their finality agreed upon. This will not be done for some time and all they ask, however, is that their franchise to build the line to the West Temple from Ninth Street, or Roger street be extended for one year.

AN ELECTION DISPUTE.

Come From Summit County, and an Action Has Been Filed—Other Suits.

George W. Young, plaintiff and defendant, vs. J. H. Deming, defendant and counterclaimant. This is the title of an action filed today in the office of the Third District court, transcript of the recent election in Summit County, at which the respective parties were candidates for the office of treasurer, and the cause was of the vote, as by the board of canvassers, and their findings.

Plaintiff now concedes the election on the ground of alleged misconduct on the part of Thos. Ball, Jr., the presiding judge of poll No. 1 in Canfield precinct, which was held on Oct. 21, in that town, in the course of voting, it is claimed, that he was wrongfully deprived of six of those, and therefore declares that Deming's election is illegal.

The board will appoint its own chairman.

A SHUFFLING OF CARDS.

Marshal Parsons Will This Evening Yield to His Successor.

THE NEXT PENITENTIARY WARDEN

The Re-organized Staff of Deputy Marshals—Tomorrow Begins the New Order of Things.

In view of the changes which will take place in the U. S. marshalship tomorrow morning, the outgoing deputies who have hitherto been acting under the retiring marshal, Mr. H. H. Parsons, are today bringing their farewell to those of their fellow officers who will continue under the new regime. Up to this time there have been seven deputy marshals; the new management has cut the number down to four in addition to Clerk Swan. So that while Messrs. Brown Cannon, Abe Dyer, Will Goodell, with Dan Swan, clerk, will go on as though nothing had happened to disrupt the harmonies while Charlie Goodell and Arthur Parsons will say all. A new comee will complete Marshal Parsons' quadrumvirate, namely, A. E. Foster, who is well known among Salt Lake real estate men.

At the penitentiary Warden Sam Parsons—who during his brief reign as the new warden has won many friends, and has earned the admiration of a thoroughly efficient officer—will be succeeded by Colonel George H. Spaulding, a gentleman who for the past three or four years has resided in this city and has identified himself with industry and public affairs. He appears to be a man of great energy and ability.

Assisted in these columns yesterday, Marshal Parsons will be succeeded by Frank Young in stock rating; as to "Sam," it is more than likely he will stand as a sort of a deputy marshal.

Marshal will qualify before Judge Zane at the close of the ordinary court business today, and his deputies will "name" at the same time. Court fees, for the calendar performance of trials, will be at $100.00 each. Mr. Benard paid an official visit to the penitentiary this morning, accompanied by the new chief warden, who virtually took possession and received instructions from the new manager. They are to be in touch with each other after noon.

The staff of penitentiary will be understood at any rate for the present—mainly wholly unchanged, and the future plan of the new marshal seems to be to make everything as pleasant as possible for his men.

DID NOT KNOW.

The staff of penitentiary will be understood at any rate for the present—mainly wholly unchanged, and the future plan of the new marshal seems to be to make everything as pleasant as possible for his men.

LAWYER'S TETE A TETE.

Caused in the Kolitz Case Take Testimony, Civil and Adjourn Until Tomorrow.

The Kolitz case was resumed before Justice Lee this morning and occupied all of the time up till noon. Thomas Fawcett, Thomas H. Nott and Al. Thorogood, witnesses for the prosecution, were examined and gave strong testimony against the defendant. There was considerable quibbling between counsel on either side over the qualifications under oath of Thorogood, who claims to have been a partner in business with Kolitz, and who is the official witness for the prosecution.

John W. Nichols, a lawyer in Los Angeles, who was a partner with Kolitz, stated that he had done and then said his evidence could not and should not be admitted in the trial. He also stated that the defendant was not by his way a criminal, but a notorious associate, or rather employee.

The case was adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Brussels, Nov. 20.—The committee of twelve appointed by the international monetary conference to report on the proposals submitted by Bredhoff, at yesterday no eight hours with only a short interval for luncheon. The members have arranged to give executive attention to the work of the committee, so as to be able to present an executive report to the conference.

Several experts, not delegates to the conference, have offered to give opinions on the precision of previous metals and other points relating to the deliberations, but the committee declined to hear witnesses on any side of the question.

It is understood that the committee take as the nearest approach to accuracy the statistics prepared by Olympia Haupt, especially for the use of the conference, giving estimates compiled from the latest date of the monetary stocks of the world and the annual production and consumption of gold and silver.

Senator Jones, one of the American delegates, has prepared a special statement of the consumption and production of silver. The committee will continue to the adoption of the international agreement, with a surcharge of 10 per cent. It also proposes the appointment of a permanent international commission to do the work of the committee, and should the price of silver fall below the amount of the original proposal, the commission will have authority to fix new rates and increase the remittance of the pieces. These coins shall be legal tender internationally, but to be used as a reserve coin and not to be coined as a standard coin.

On the platform were the city and state officials, including Governor Murphy, J. F. Foster, and acting Mayor Town Jamison. Hon. George T. Conner, permanent chairman of the State Land Commission, Hon. George F. Fleming, of the First Presbyterian church, affected first and President Gladstone gave the formal address for the State of Ireland. City Attorney E. C.
