A CONSPIRACY

To Destroy Property of the C. B. & Q. Company.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Thomas I. Broderick and J. Bowles, members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and a man named Wilson, were arrested on the C. B. & Q. train nea Aurora this afternoon. They had dynamite in their possession, and are charged with conspiracy to destroy the railroad company's property. They are in the county jail, each under bonds of $5000. It is stated that the Burlington Company has had a large force of detectives for some time watching the movements of the strikers. It was discovered that dynamite was used in several unsuccessful attempts to wreck trains within the past month. Officials of the road state tonight that positive information was received that today was the day chosen for upon the company's property. The officials are reticent regarding their sources of information, but the plot is known to them, and they admit that besides the definite plan to blow up the trains upon the tracks by means of dynamite cartridges, it included the probabilities of an attack upon the depot property and the magnificent office buildings here. The officials say that had the danger not been so imminent, they would have allowed the conspirators to go on and criminate themselves further, but the plot had reached a stage where it was necessary to take decisive steps to prevent great destruction of property not to say loss of life.

When the men were arrested today, one of them took from his pocket and threw it out of the window. The train was stopped and the letter picked up. It is now in the hands of District Attorney Ewing. He refuses to reveal its contents, but General Manager Stone intimates that it gave important information regarding the plot. The men appeared greatly agitated when arrested and arraigned in the United States Commissioner's office here and demanded that Chairman Hoge be sent for. When he arrived they recognized him at once, but he claimed not to know them. Detectives found on the seat on the train in which they arrested these men several sticks of dynamite, and on opening a valise found a number of dynamite cartridges. The men disclaim all knowledge of this property and say it does not belong to them. One of them was very much agitated while the others were composed. Neither of the three would tell their place of residence. They have been traveling about on the "Q" system for some weeks.

District Attorney Ewing arraigned the men under section 5253 of the United States Revised Statutes, which relates to the carrying of on passenger trains. It is supposed this charge is brought temporarily until the Burlington officials can perfect their case. Commissioner Hayne held them in $5000 bonds each for examination on the 13th. Hoge and Vice Grand Master Hannahan informed the men that they could do nothing for them tonight and they were sent to jail.

General Manager Stone, of the "Q.," when interviewed would tell no more than given above, but said he believed high officials of the Brotherhood are connected with the conspiracy.

"I don't know any of those men," said Chairman Hoge to a reporter. "They may be members of the Brotherhood. I don't remember them. If their case is found worthy of investigation we will help them and get them bail."

On Broderick's person was found a membership card, declaring him a member of Pottsville Division 90. Broderick and Wilson had just come on from Creston, Iowa, where Broderick was closely identified with the strikers. Wilson is supposed to be a striking fireman.

Drowned in the Rapids.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 5.—Robert Flack, of Syracuse, who came here last week to go through the rapids and whirlpool, was drowned last evening while trying to navigate his life-boat, The Phantom, in the whirlpool. Flack thought to advertise himself and his life-boat by the trip. He started from the Maid of the Mist landing, above the old suspension bridge, and in two minutes was battling with big waves below the cantilever bridge. His boat was overturned twice, but turned right side up again. The third time she went over and stayed bottom up floating past the Devereaux College grounds, where stood Flack's rival, Percy and William Stephenson and wife, Flack's sister. Nothing but the keel was visible as the boat rushed into the whirlpool. Here it drifted about in the eddies until it came near shore when Percy swam out and brought it to shore. Flack was still strapped to his seat, his face purple with congestion and stone dead. A Syracuse undertaker named McCarthy, who is said to have been backing Flack, took the corpse home to Flack's widow and children.

Cleveland Declines the Invitation.

NEW YORK, July 5.—President Cleveland's response to the invitation to attend the Gettysburg reunion, which did not reach the office of the secretary until after his departure for Gettysburg, is as follows:

"I need hardly assure you that I should be glad to be present on this very interesting occasion. In view, however, of my confining duties here and all the circumstances surrounding the subject, I have arrived at the conclusion that I ought not to leave here at the time suggested. The meeting of the survivors of Gettysburg upon the field where they fought twenty five years ago cannot fail to teach an impressive lesson and convince all our people that bravery is akin to magnanimity, while it reminds them that the object of war is the attainment of peace."

Items from France.

PARIS, July 5.—Temps says: The Panama Canal syndicate has been definitely formed. The syndicate will deposit rentes to an amount sufficient to guarantee the payment of the lottery prizes and the redemption of the bonds.

The government has given its assent to the lottery loan of $12,000,000 to aid the sufferers from the locust plague in Algiers.

An article in the Temps advocates an alliance between France and Austria to counterpoise the power of Germany.

The locust plague in Algeria is becoming worse; 60,000 laborers and 2,000 soldiers are powerless. The whole country is devastated, and it is feared famine and pestilence will result.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

An Appropriation for the Utah Penitentiary.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Senator Call today proposed an amendment to the sundry civil bill to appropriate $100,000 for the repair and enlargement of the Salt Lake (Utah) penitentiary.

PENSION VETOES.

A message from the President was received by the Senate today vetoing the bill granting a pension to Mary Ann Doharety. The President shows the bad character of the woman and that her husband, on account of whose death the pension is desired, is alive and is himself drawing a pension. The President says he would like to see those who defended the government liberally treated, but the pension list should be a roll of honor and not a matter of indiscriminate almsgiving. The President refers to the large number of special pensions before him, and says:

"It would be well if all our general pension laws could be revised with a view of meeting every meritorious case. In the absence of such a revision and if pensions are to be granted on equitable grounds and without regard to general laws, the present methods would be greatly improved by the establishment of some tribunal to examine the facts in every case and determine upon the merits of the application."

The President also returned without his approval the Senate bill to grant a pension to J. B. Morton of Nebraska, as the dependent father of Calvin Morton, who claimed that his son was killed in the battle with the Indians in the Custer massacre. The President says:

"His name does not appear in any record of the soldiers engaged in that battle, and considering the complete list of casualties attending that battle, the death of the son of the beneficiary is far from being satisfactorily established."

The Senate bill to pension Polly A. Smith, the widow of Lieut. J. H. Smith, Second Artillery, who served in the army from 1854 to 1870, was also returned without executive approval, on the ground that the death had no connection with the service.

A DYNAMITE CASE.

Congressman Belmont, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, which was instructed by the resolution of the House to investigate the case of John Curtin Kent, a naturalized citizen of the United States, convicted in England of conspiring to murder by the use of dynamite, will submit the report tomorrow. It recites the history of the case in detail, expresses deep sympathy for Kent and continues as follows:

"The fact that the naturalization of Kent was not known at the time of his trial to the American authorities, is evidence of the propriety of the recommendation made by President Cleveland in his message of 1884 and repeated in 1885, in favor of the establishment of a central bureau of decrees of naturalization granted by the courts of the United States."

The C. B. & Q. Strikers.

NEW YORK, July 5.—A special meeting of New York City Division 105 Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, held on the 3d inst., it was decided to assess the members of this division $5 per month for three months, or more if necessary, and to donate the same to members engaged in the strike of the C. B. & Q. Railway.

A Gasoline Explosion.

OIL CITY, PA., July 5.—Leaking gasoline in front of the Union refinery spread out on the river this evening and ignited in some manner. Two boys playing on the bank of the river were fatally burned. Two tank cars on the bank caught fire and exploded with tremendous force, scattering the fragments blocks about. The flames were quickly subdued. The pecuniary damage is small.

Fifty Persons Mangled.

MEMPHIS, July 5.—While 300 or 400 people were seated in the grand stand on the grounds of the Yallbusha County, Mississippi, Fair Association yesterday, the supports gave way without warning and the structure fell to the ground. No one was killed outright, but nearly fifty people were taken from the ruins with broken arms and limbs, bruised bodies and almost every conceivable wound. Some of the wounded, it is thought, cannot live.

POLITICAL.

Various Opinions on the Coming Campaign.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 5.—The concensus of opinion of the members of the Harrison notification committee is that the republican ticket will be elected.

M. M. Estee, who was chairman of the Chicago convention, says that since the convention he has traveled in New York and Pennsylvania. The result of his observations is that Harrison and Morton will carry New York.

J. B. Wheeler, a New York member of the committee, says that he has talked with many of the leading politicians of New York City since his return from Chicago, and his conclusion is that New York will go for Harrison. "The issue of protection will be fought squarely out in New York," said he, "and there is no doubt but that we shall win. Thousands of leading business men who have heretofore voted the democratic ticket will not support its free trade platform of this year, and will vote for Harrison. Morton's candidacy will help things, too He is known all over the state as an honest, successful business man without any of the disagreeable features that so often attach to rich men. Every Irishman who voted for Blaine at the last election will vote for Harrison, and thousands besides. Blaine will stump the state for the ticket. The Irishmen know too much about political economy as administered by England in Ireland to give the English policy and foothold here, and Mr. Blaine will help them to understand the situation."

Hon. M. D. Foley, of Nevada said that Morton's nomination would add strength to the ticket. "I have been mainly in New York since the convention," said Mr. Foley, "and my opinion is that Mr. Morton's record as a business man will be an important factor in our favor in our campaign. When the Morton firm failed in the panic through the failure of its customers, he turned over everything to his creditors. This paid them a certain amount of their claims, and when some years later Mr. Morton made money, he paid every cent of the old indebtedness, with interest, although he was totally released from legal claims. This is that is too often lacking," and Mr. Morton's possession of it will raise him in public opinion throughout the country."

Judge Charles W. Clisbee of Michigan, said people who talk about Michigan being a doubtful state simply don't know the facts. Michigan is absolutely safe for the republican ticket. The protection plank above would carry the state, but a large proportion of the prohibition vote will come to us. Another thing; there are thousands of old soldiers who have been democrats, and solid for Cleveland in 1884. Not one half of them will do so this time. They have had enough of him. They will vote for the old soldier, Benjamin Harrison.

Mr. Estee, speaking of the prospects in Indiana, said: "We shall carry Indiana certainly. The democrats, while they keep up a bold front, admit when they speak their real minds, that they have very little show. One of their leading men, an old time well-known democrat, told me he did not think that Cleveland could carry the state against Harrison." Estee would not name the gentleman he referred to, but the inference was drawn that he meant Senator McDonald.

"We have a ticket we can fight with," said Judge Clasbie, and "such a ticket always ge's stronger. Blaine will make a tour of the doubtful states, and this will, it is thought, gain many votes."

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS CONVENTION.

BALTIMORE, July 5.—The convention of democratic clubs held its second session this morning at the Academy of Music. William A. Russell of Massachusetts, temporary chairman, called the convention to order at 10:30 o'clock.

The constitution states that the object is to foster the formation of permanent democratic clubs and societies in the United States; to insure active co-operation in the dissemination of Jeffersonian principles of government; to preserve the Constitution of the United States and the autonomy of the States; resist revolutionary changes and the centralization of power, and the appropriation of the money of the public for other than the uses of the government economically administered, and to oppose commercial restrictions for the benefit of the few at the cost of the many. The affairs of the association are to be managed by a general committee of four from each state and territory, with the officers of the association. The convention of the association shall be held every fourth year, subsequent to the national democratic convention, and a two-thirds vote of the general committee shall call a special meeting.

Mr. Flaherty of Massachusetts offered a resolution declaring that the convention of democratic clubs protests against tyranny and oppression wherever they may exist, declaring further that it is in favor of the success of the Irish race for home rule in Ireland,

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill was presented and explained in detail by Plumb. On one point the committee had been unable to agree. That was the item inserted by the Senate making an appropriation of $100,000 for continuing experiments in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum. The work heretofore in that direction has been of the greatest possible value. Very great progress had been made, so great, in fact that there were today erected, and in the progress of erection, four large sugar factories, having an aggregate capacity of 5,000,000 pounds, and it was confidently believed that the result of that work would still further demonstrate the fact that the United States, in a short period of time, would supply all the sugar its people consumed. The conference report was concurred in, and a further conference asked on the sorghum item.

Call offered a resolution (which was adopted) calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the improper selections of swamps and overflowed land.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Jackson of Pennsylvania, from the committee on public lands, reported a bill to authorize the establishment of a land office at Folsom, N. M.

Several important bills were reported and referred, and the House then went into committee of the whole on the bill for the settlement of the claims of the State of Florida for expenses incurred in suppressing Indian hostilities.

The morning hour having expired the bill went over without action and Holman called up the Senate land grant forfeiture bill, with the amendments by the House committee. The substituted amendments offered are as follows:

By Stone of Missouri—To declare a complete forfeiture of the entire grant where the road was not completed in time.

By Payson of Illinois representing the minority of the committee—To confine the forfeiture to lands opposite portions of the road not now completed.

Holman stated the nature of the proposition before the House and pointed out the difference in effect between it and the Senate bill. He said that the Senate bill would declare a forfeiture of 5,627,436 acres while the pending bill would work a forfeiture of 54,323,996 acres subject to bona fide sales to settlers. He then went on at length to defend the course of the democratic party in granting

LANDS TO RAILROADS.

Payson of Illinois deprecated what he described as Holman's long political speech. After stating the rules which had governed Congress in making the grants Payson declared that the decision of the Supreme Court had affirmed the right of railroad companies to go on with the construction of their lines after the expiration of the date fixed in the granting acts, in the absence of a prohibitive clause, and as fast as their road progressed and selections were made to sell their lands. He was weary of waiting here for years for something to be done. Here was an opportunity which should be availed of. Since the last Congress the Northern Pacific had constructed enough road to cloud the title of 3,000,000 acres of land, and the process would go on unless the House accepted the Senate bill.

McRae of Arkansas—If the Senate as constituted now refused to declare the forfeiture, the House should join issue and go to the country which would elect a Senate which would pass bills.

Weaver said the roads had not complied with the terms of their grants and never would. The people would be justified in asserting their rights.

The first proposition in order was Stone's amendment, to make the forfeiture complete of lands where the terms of the grant had not been complied with. The amendment was rejected—yeas 60, nays 104.

The question was then put on Payson's minority amendment (similar to the Senate bill). The amendment was rejected—yeas 71, nays 92.

The committee substitute was then adopted, and the question recurring on the passage of the bill the vote resulted—yeas 111, nays 12. No quorum.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe Cold, attended with a distressing Cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease.
