

NEW TRIAL ORDERED, Supreme Court So Rules in Damage Sult Against Southern Pacific.

The supreme court today handed opinion reversing the judgment of the lower court in the case of William Morgan vs Oregon Short Line Railroad company appellant and re-manding the case for a new trial. • The action was brought in Boxelder county to recover damages the death of plaintin s son, John Morgan, who was killed near Brigham City, Jan. 5, 1901. The jury in the lower court brought in a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $2,500. From that judg-ment this appeal is taken, resulting in the reversal by the supreme court to-

WEATHER OUTLOOK.

This city threatens to become noted for winter for, and there was a regular blinder between 7 and 10 a. m. today, Great care was imperative in street car operation. In driving and in crossing the streets. The fog was due to a stagmant condition of the atmosphere, and was cleared up after neen, by a slight breeze. The prognostications for tonight and to morrow are fair, and with moderately low temperatures. It was 12 degrees below they are have a the charge, and through the north generally the mercury sank way down.

ST. JOHN'S CHAPEL DEDICATED.

The new St. John's chapel of the Epis-capal church on Eleventh South street, was dedicated yesterday afternoon, by Bishop Tuttle with impressive services, The attendance was gratifying, and the bishop preached an excellent service, The farger chapel has been much needed of late, as the number of Episcopalians in the southern part of the city is increas-ing.

COIN WAS NOT BOGUS.

It now transpires that the 129 gold piece passed on the Rich tailoring house Sat-urday is not house, as was supposed, but just as good as any that are turned out of Uncle Sam's mint. The discovery was made this morning by Detective Chase, who took the coin to a number of banks who pronounced it all right. The suspected stranger is therefore cleared of all suspicion, and may go on his way rejoicing, as the coin is now accepted as genuine legal tender.

Scrofula It is commonly inherited.

Few are entirely free from it. Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it. Common indications are bunches in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely, This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought.

"My daughter had scrofula, with eleven sores on her neck and about her ears. Hood's Sarsaparilla was highly recommended and she took it and was cured. She is now in good health." MRS. J. H. JONES, Parker City, Ind. 9 touched her on the shoulder. She turned and faced a soldler whom she remem-bered seeing on the car. The fellow spoke to her and she screamed. Instantly the man selzed her by the throat, choked her and then struck her a heavy blow on the head knocking her to the ground. She was unconscious for some time but when she could collect her scattered senses she caled leady for help. Some of the neighbors responded and when they heard her story a se refuling party was organized but the soldler who committed the dastardly act could not be found.
