EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, October 26, 1876.

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

Last Night's Dispatches.

The Sullivan Trial.

CHICAGO, 25.—The jury in the Sullivan case have not yet agreed. There is intense excitement here as to the verdict. It is understood that eleven are for acquittal. In the court room this afternoon the prosecuting attorney and Judge McAllister had some warm words as to the course of the latter in this trial.

The Indian Campaign—Movements of Troops.

CHEYENNE, 25.—The arrival of Gen. Merritt's command at Red Cloud yesterday signalized the closing up of the Big Horn and Yellowstone campaign, which will be succeeded by the Powder River expedition, consisting of fifteen companies of infantry and eleven companies of cavalry, the latter principally of the Fourth Regiment with a few companies of the Second and Third, which have not been in the summer campaign. All are fresh troops, and will be commanded by Gen. Crook in person.

The Fifth Cavalry will have its winter headquarters at Fort Russell, Gen. Merritt in command. The Third goes to Fort Laramie and ten companies will remain at Red Cloud.

Spotted Tail was formally installed chief of the Sioux nation by virtue of the authority of the President, and was, as such, accepted by all the Indians at that agency.

The capture made by Gen. Merritt consisted of five hundred Indians, seven hundred ponies, and a large number of arms. The last named will be disposed of at public auction on the second of November, at Fort Laramie. The moral effect of this decisive policy is wholesome and peace promises to prevail at the agencies.

Robbery and Attempt at Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, 25.—Joseph Regan attempted to commit suicide yesterday by drowning. It appears while walking through an alley between Seventh and Eighth Streets and Walnut and Clark Avenues, he was attacked by negro prostitutes and robbed of $3,000 in bonds and $8,500 in promissory notes, and despairing of recovering the property he attempted suicide. Several arrests have been made and one bond and all the notes recovered.

Indiana Election—Official Returns.

INDIANAPOLIS, 25.—The Secretary of State, to-day, authorizes the following as the result of the recent election: The highest vote cast was for Treasurer of State; democratic 212,019; republican 206,218; independent 16,082; total 434,319. The average plurality for the democratic State ticket is 5,846. The majority for Williams over Harrison for Governor was 5,139.

Changes by Prest. Grant.

WASHINGTON, 25. — Revenue agent Alvin B. Clark, arrived from California to-day, and on reporting to the department was discharged from the service by order of the President. The grounds for the dismissal are not made public, but it is understood to have been caused by Clark's participation in certain political movements, and his failure to substantiate the charges made by him against Collector Sedgwick and some prominent Californians last year.

There seems to be no doubt that Elmer Washburne, chief of the secret service division of the Treasury, will shortly be removed from office, as soon as his successor is determined on. The President declined to see him when he called to-day, and he is virtually out of office now.

A Murderer Hanged.

LITTLE ROCK, 25.—Henry Scales, colored, was hung by the Cherokee authorities on the 21st, for murdering a negro. This was Scales' third victim.

FOREIGN

GREAT BRITAIN.

Troops for Malta—Spain Proposes an Extradition Treaty with the U. S. —The Conspirators.

LONDON, 25.—The Financier says it is understood, in view of a possibility of further serious complications in the east that the Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamship Cathay will embark a large number of troops at this port for Malta on the 28th inst.

Reuter's dispatch from Madrid says the Spanish foreign minister proposes the conclusion of an extradition treaty with the United States.

Eighteen generals and 108 other persons connected with politics have been arrested as accomplices in the recent conspiracy.

A royal order has been published fully approving the action of the sub-prefect of Port Mahon toward Protestants.

Grant's Illegal Proclamation.

Attorney General Taft, in his proclamation, makes no allusion to section 5,299 of the Revised Statutes, which is the enforcement law of 1871; or to the negro amendments. He backs out entirely and totally from his first opinion given to the President, and adopts the soundness of the criticisms of the World thereon.

Now, neither the law of 1796 nor of 1807, nor section 5,297 of the statutes codifying them, say a word about "domestic violence," but only specify insurrection against a State government. Nor does either say a word about the President's power "to enforce the due execution of the laws" of a State. They only empower him to aid the State "to suppress" an actual "insurrection against it. It is only actual "insurgents" he can command to "disperse" and to "retire peacefully" from an actual insurrection.

What and where is the "insurrection" against the "State" of South Carolina?

This is the way Grant describes it:

"Certain combinations of men against law exist in many counties of said state, known as the 'rifle clubs,' who ride up and down by day and night in arms, murdering some peaceable citizens and intimidating others, which combinations, though forbidden by the laws of the State, cannot be controlled or suppressed by the ordinary course of justice."

Is that "insurrection," or is it violation of the criminal statutes? Can there be such insurrection against a State by such lawlessness unless the officers of the law are resisted by a force which the "State" cannot overcome? Is every combination of thieves, tramps or housebreakers in this city an "insurrection" against New York? Are the "Molly Maguires" in insurrection against the State of Pennsylvania?

Attorney General Taft has been driven from his position, but his latest is, if possible, more disgraceful than his earliest attempt to coerce by bayonets the election of Hayes.

That there are disorder and domestic violence in South Carolina every one sees, but it has not risen to the proportion of "insurrection;" and if Chamberlain says it has he knows that he lies. The condition of things in that unhappy state is purely local under our system of dual governments; and the President has no more right to meddle with it than with tramps in New York who murder and rob and burn, or "Molly Maguires" in Don Cameron's own commonwealth of Pennsylvania.—N. Y. World.
