"THE OGDEN JUNCTION" is the title of a new semi-weekly paper published a Ogden City, the first number of which, issued on the 1st inst., came to hand this morning. Its contents are varied and sprightly, and in addition to telegraphic, local, and much other matter of interest, include the first instalment of a history of Ogden city, from its settlement, nineteen years ago, up to date. The paper presents a very creditable appearance and will be published every Tuesday and Saturday. It will advocate, according to its "Saluta-tory," all matters of real interest to the people of this Territory, and as a co-worker in the cause of truth and human progress, we bid our new co-temporary "God speed" and wish it every success. It is published at six dollars per year.

UTAH CENTRAL PROGRESSING.-From John W. Young, Esq., who arrived in this city, from the end of the track of the Utah Central, on Saturday evening, we learn that the rails are laid to Bountiful-about eight miles from this city. During the last three days of work on the line, there were three days of work on the line, there were three and a half miles of track laid, which is very excellent progress when the diffi-culties to be encountered at this season of the year are considered.
