FIRE BUGS IN POCATELLO. Yesterday morning at the early hour of 3:30, the attempt of fire bugs to start a general conflagration was nipped in the bud by Oscar Moyes and Ed the bud by Oscar Moyes and Ed Mooney, who were going homeward on north Main street, formerly Cleveland avenue. They discovered fire in the rear of the Week's tea and coffee store, and they sounded the alarm. The prompt response of the fire team put out the blaze. A can of coal oil and straw taken from dry goods boxes, and other evidence showed that the fire was of incendiary origin, and the wooden building and sheds would soon have been a roaring furnace but for their fortunate presence. It is not known who started the conflagration.

HON. WILLIAM H. TAFT IS TO STUMP IDAHO.

Special Correspondence. OISE, Idaho, Oct. 11.-The coming to Idaho of the Hon, William H. Taft, secretary of war, to take part in the important political campaign now on in this state, is truly an important event. The Republican press of Idaho, have from the start recognized that the campaign of 1906, is of supreme consequence to this fair young state, and is attracting the serious consideration of the advocates of good, sane civil government everywhere. President Roosevelt early manifested a keen interest in the political contest here, and is especially desirous that the people of Idaho, should not be misled into administering an apparent rebuke to Governor Gooding, for his courage-ous enforcement of the law,

Outlook, one of the most powerful magazines of the country, devotes considerable space in a recent issue, to the labor troubles that have been a curse to Idaho, and to union labor as well. There is no impertinence in this man-ifestation of active interest in Idaho's affairs, because they are inspired by a world-wide participation in the princi-ples involved. While this state's reputation as a law-abiding and integral part of the Union is at stake, in a broader and more enduring sense, this struggle is not a mere incident, but a struggle is not a mere incident, but a battle for constitutional government and civil liberty. Both Senator Dubois and Judge Stocslager, have fared remarkably well at the hands of this people, and should have, at the opening of this campaign, arrayed themselves on the side of good government, law and order. Surely, it is not of paramount importants, these these mount importance that these two gen-tlemen should be continued on the Good, law abiding citizens have been

Good, law abiding citizens have been misled by all this hue and cry against Governor Gooding, for a pretended usurpation of authority.

Hundreds of reputable Democrats, who have withheld their support from the governor, really believe that he has been guilty of some atrocious wrong. duty to rebuke the administration and at the same time maintain the integrity of their party organization, but these premises are being rapidly dissipated.

Chairman Lockhart, of the Democratic state central committee, is displacing the historic Democratic party, with a hydra-headed mongrel, with as many aliases as the different sub-divisions of the state seemed to require. This vivacious youngster seems bent on the utter demolition of the old party. Before election day, it is safe to predict, the elements of fusion and confusion, will be reduced to a mere semblance of organization. It's ranks will be thinned by desertion and broken by futile contest against the unflinching phalanx of conquering legions.

Hence, the coming hither of Secretary Taft, is timely and will have a wholesome effect in evincing to the better elements of both parties just what this campaign means as an asset for future good or evil to this state, and just how men of integrity everywhere view the serious conflict now pending.

Fremont County Democracy Pays Its Respects to Idaho's Whirling Dervish.

DENOUNCES STATE PLATFORM

As Unjust and Uncalled for and a Base Slander Against the People Of Gem State.

Special Correspondence.

DEXBURG, Ida., Oct. 11.-The coun-K ty Democratic convention was held in Flamm's Opera House at Rex-burg on Wednesday, Oct. 10. The convention was called to order by County Chairman J. D. Millsap. The call was read by Secy. B. H. Miller. Judge Millsap then made a speech. He said that two years ago the con-vention put a ticket in the field, and all the candidates on it knew that it would be a losing ticket. The Democratic convention of Fremont county is now placed in a peculiar condition, owing to the stand taken by the state convention. He then went on to recite a little history in regard to county and state politics. He showed how Dubois captured the Pocatello convention about four years ago, and the bearing it had on the Democracy of Fremont county and of the state. Some soreheads of the party had raised the politics and now the party had fallen into ities and now the party had fallen into clique, and the outlook is very gloomy to those who believed in equal rights to all and special privil-announced the following temporary organization: J. M. Kerr, chairman; M. J. Hammond, secretary.

J. M. Kerr, on taking the chair, thanked the convention for the honor of being selected as temporary chairman of the convention. He felt it was a serious situation that confronted the convention. "I stand before you to-day as a Democrat, and believe the delegates present will stand by the princi-ples of Democracy regardless of the attitude of those looking for office."

Moved and seconded that the chair appoint a committee of three on cre-dentials and five on resolutions. The motion was carried, and the following were named:

The resolutions adopted by the convention were as follows:
We, the delegates and representatives of the Democratic party of Fremont county, state of Idaho, in regular convention assembled, do hereby reaffirm our allegisnee to the principles of Democracy as expounded by those stalwart statesmen, Andrew Jackson and Thomas Leftarson having for its basic principles. statesmen, Andrew Jackson and Thom-as Jefferson, having for its basic prin-ciples "equal rights to all and special privileges to none." We recognize in the Hon, William Jennings Bryan the most able champion of Democracy and the people's cause of today, and we piedge to him our united support, urg-ing his penningtion and election as presing his nomination and election as presing his nomination and election as president of the United States in 1908.

Second—We condemn, as un-Democratic, un-American, and dishenest, the highhanded and illegal action of the socalled Democratic state convention at Coeur d'Alene city in denying the regularly elected delegates from Fremont county to said convention their seats in same and seating in their stead a rump. county to said convention their seats in same and seating in their stead a rump delegation of self-appointed and self-constituted delegates who did not represent the sentiment of the Democrats of Fremont county, and thereby depriving and robbing them of their just rights and representation in said convention. Third-We denounce that portion of the so-called Democratic state platform which attempts and is intended only to create and stir up strife and contention and to array one class of citizens in this state against another as un-Democra-tic, unjust and uncalled for, and a base slander and libel upon the people of Southeastern Idaho. We assert that the people of Southeastern Idaho are just as liberty-loving, law-ablding, moral and patriotic as the people of any other portion of the state of Idaho or of the United States.

Fourth-We believe in a government of the people, for the people and by the people, and are therefore opposed to "machine rule" in any party and main-tain that every member of the party should have a voice in saving what the policy of the party should be and in naming the candidates of said party for the various offices and deplore the fact that the so-called Democratic convention at Couer d'Alene city run, gov-erned and dominated by a "machine" in the interest of one man who dictated the policy of said convention and also the candidates there nominated. Fifth-We are unalterably opposed to the re-election of Fred T. Dubois as United States senator from Idaho for

RANCH WOMAN'S HOME

THE owner of a million and a half acre cattle ranch is a person to impress the imagination, even when that person happens to be a man, but when the properietor of this truly lordly demesne happens to be a woman and the mistress of a stone castle in this country and of a beautiful home in England, a graceful hostess, an astute business manager, no less than a fearless horsewoman-well, then, the figure becomes one to conjure with.

Such is Mrs. Cornelia Adair, whose

the largest ranches in the United States should be owned by women and be by them managed with the great-est success. But while a great deal has been written of the ranch of 1,370,000 acres owned by Mrs. H. M. King far down in southwest Texas, much less is known by the public con-woman one would pick out as a ranch owner. She belongs to a wholly dif-ferent type from Mrs. King, as she is fend of travel and society. She oscil-lates between her Texas ranch and the beautiful home she maintains in England, where every year she spends several months.

A big event on the ranch, and one that large numbers of English visitors have enjoyed, is the annual round-up, when usually there are from eight thousand to ten thousand calves to be presided.

The annual net profit of the Adair ranch during the last ten years is computed at more than $100,000. Be-tween six thousand and eight thousand head of steers are annually marketed. head of steers are annuary markets. Just at present there are said to be about 45,000 head of cattle on the ranch, though ao one knows the precise number, it being impossible to count them, and the number may run a few thousand above or below that

The land is divided into many large pastures, and a large force of "fence riders" is on duty all the time to see that the dividing lines between them are kept intact. Then the cattle reare kept intact. Then the cattle require more or less attention, particular larly through the winter and spring. when the calves and weakly cows have to be fed and cared for. In former years Mrs. Adair superintended a large part of the work herself, but now although she keeps the threads of every department in her own hands she leaves its practical management

Comparatively little land in that region had been taken up, and it looked as if the day was far in the future when it would be.

He told his friends at the time he bought the land and established his big ranch on it that the day would come when his investment of $200,000 would be worth millions. Since his death his prediction has come true. Instead of the one storied log shack with which most ranches are equipped of really palatial nature. It is called the headquarters, and is a large ston house, resembling in appearance an nouse, resembling in appearance an ancient feudal castle more than anything else. It is said to have cost more than $50,000, and is equipped with every modern convenience, including electric light, a system of waterworks, a sewage system and other up-to-date appliances. There are many guest chambers, and when Mrs. Adair is on the ranch these are kept cupied, as the "headquarters" is scene of much gayety, in which the people of Clarendon and the adjacent anches often join.

Not least important in the equipment of this ranch are the stables and the kennels. Mrs. Adair is devoted to unting, wolves being the most available quarry in that region, and she keeps many good saddle horses and many dogs purely for the pleasure of the chase. People who have seen one of Mrs. Adair's wolf hunts say it is a beautiful sight. Level courses seventyive miles long stretch away on som parts of the ranch, unbroken by barbed wire fence or obstruction of any kind. But, of course, in a country like that hunting becomes pretty much a quesbetween wolf and tion of endurance log.-New York Tribune.

3. Because his selfish, un-Democratic and unpatriotic leadership has forced many true Democrats out of the party, and created dissension and disgust within its ranks.

4. Because he has wilfully and maliciously misrepresented social and mor-al conditions in Idaho, and particularly Fremont county, to such an extent as to create the impression that Idaho is not a fit place for decent and respectable people to reside and rear their families, and has thereby done much to hinder and retard the growth of our fair young state.

disband, and disorganize the Democratic party in Idaho with a view of organizing and building up the "American" party to further his own political ambitions.

Sixth—We maintain that the rights and privileges enjoyed by the citizens of our state in the exercise of the elective franchise, is most precious and dear to them, and any effort made by any citizen or class of citizens to deprive their fellowman of such privileges, should be denounced by all, regardless of party, color or creed, and we deplore the efforts made by the "Dubois party" in Idaho to disfranchise a large class of industrious, law abiding, moral and patriotic citizens and we denounce such efforts as un-Democratic and un-American.

Seventh-We, the Democrats of Fremont county, do most sincerely deplore the assassination of that noble, broad minded, patriotic Democrat, "the Hon-orable Frank Steunenberg," who was a high minded American citizen and patriot, basing his every political action upon a most conservative and just con-struction of the Constitution of the United States, always granting his fel-low citizens, regardless of creed, political persuasion or color, their just and full rights. We honor his memory.

Eighth-Be it therefore resolved by this convention, that we do now proceed to elect a county chairman, secretary and central committee, and that we do then adjourn subject to the call of the chairman and secretary or the central committee.

In the Woman's Synodical of the Presbyterian churches of southern Idaho and Utah, the Mormon question seems to be the main theme of discussion. The question was debated and lectured upon yesterday under the head of "The Problem in Idaho." The principal speakers were Mrs. McNiece of Salt Lake and Mrs. C. E. Brainard of Payette.

Last evening Rev. Clemenson of Logan, Utah, addressed the Woman's Synodical upon the subject of "The Problem of Mormonism." In the course of his remarks he endeavored to pay the Mormons a compliment by saying that they were in possession of the principal virtues held in common by civilized people from the fact that they were for the most part apostates from Chastian denominations, who other Christian denominations, whad taught them these principals their earlier days. He further said: "Could Mormons be emancipated from priest rule and be induced to relinquish the pagan tenets of their creed, they would become model citizens and cease to be at variance with the peace of their fellows."

Young 18-year-old Harry Thompson met with a painful accident Tuesday evening while out riding on horse-back with some friends. They were riding along at a moderate speed when suddenly young Thompson's horse fell dead to the ground. The fall was so sudden that the boy did not have time to release his feet from the stirrups, and the horse rolled entirely over him, pressing the horn of the saddle against the boy's stomach. It is feared he is injured seriously internally. HE WANTS THE MONEY.

The little woman, Anna Abbott, known as "The Georgia Magnet," who is appearing this week at the Orpheum theater in her hypnotic exhibition, is now under arrest for refusing to pay to H. L. Clyne $100 for lifting her when hypnotized upon the stage. This was the prize offered to any one who
