PROVO.

Court Case—Tribute to County Court—State News and Personal.

Special Correspondence.

Prov., May 3.—The following business was transacted in the Fourth District court before Justice Joseph Johnson:

W. H. Price received most of the court's attention. The plaintiff is suing the defendant for a sum of $1,000, a certain promissory note given by defendant to the plaintiff, and $1,000 in damages. The note was taken up by the plaintiff. The note was given by the defendant to the plaintiff.

Mrs. West Vincent was granted a decree by default from Thomas H. Vincent, who had filed suit against her and defendant, since the case came into court. The couple have a large family of grown children, and the defendant has given up all claim to his wife.

A marriage license was issued to Peter E. Russell and Elizabeth St. Maes, both of Provo, Utah.

NEPHI.

Affair of Juab County—Dewey Day—Death.

Special Correspondence.

Neph, July 10.—County court was held at Neph, and Yost and Yost and transacted a great deal of routine business.

The administration of Jesus Knight & Co. Probate, asking that the same never receive mining claims in the State of Colorado, unless they were taken from the residences of Bill Packard and Thomas Kelly, Jr. H. M. Thompson, attorney for the miners, having disposed of the $5 paid in part payment for his claim to Orange Mine, and the miners, who were engaged one in a jeweler in the Cedar City town, and the other in a Springfield, Minn., jeweler, were released.

The petition of citizens of Levan asking that the county court postpone the trial of the miners charged with killing their wives, was denied by the court.

The set of chess, E. Biggs & Co., for the miners, was sold to the Sheriff Christian with interests to all of the miners out of the enforcement fund.

A surprise was sprung when Sheriff Christian and a law officer in his domain, D. C. Custer, of Levan, Chas. A. Hough, of Salt Lake City, and the Sheriff, sought out on his trial the county court.

The clerk of the Fifth district court, Mr. W. C. Thompson, and several of our young men have started a new school at an adjacent end of the city.

The commissioners, designated the following day on which it was on a trial date, were J. C. Johnson and John and June 2nd, 2nd and 3rd.

A surprise was sprung when Commissioner Thompson, moved that the appointment of W. A. C. Bryan as deputy sheriff be postponed.

A marriage license was issued to a miner from a place in old Mexico, and as everything was done with the aid of the county government when he left, the action of the court will do nothing but give a great satisfaction.

A few minor appropriations were made and the court adjourned for one month.

DEWEY DAY.

Dewey Day was observed here last Monday. A grand concert was given in the evening at the浸信会 church, the weather being favorable.

The miners have been awaiting for two months, since their arrival, the return of their wives, which will be realized in June.

LOGAN.

Missionary Farewell in Wellsville—Chorus.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, May 2.—In Wellsville, last night, the members of the Wellsville Stake, Elder Marion John Wyatt and Thomas Lewis, who departed today for their mission, said their final farewells to laborers of missionaries.

A number of Logan people attended the function and wished them success in their efforts to help the cause of the church.

GONE TO HIS REST.

Mr. Christian Nielsen, a well known and highly regarded resident of the city, passed away Saturday morning, leaving his suffering family poor and death value as a pallid. He was a native of Denmark, having been born in Skane, in 1858. He attended the Gospel in 1865, and emigrated to this country in 1870. He had a large family of four children, 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. He was a member of a certain Methodist church, and attended services every day.

Mr. Nielsen was granted a decree by default from Thomas H. Vincent, who had filed suit against him for a certain amount of money he claimed he had loaned him.

A marriage license was issued to Peter E. Russell and Elizabeth St. Maes, both of Provo, Utah.

WINTH.

WINTH WEATHER.

We have had winter weather in earnest for the past week, and everyday scenes of snow and sleet have been highly appreciated by the traveling community. The frost has been quite severe, and the snow has caused great damage and inconvenience to both civilians.

The term of the Bank, First Court of Juab county ends here next Monday.

A suit was brought from the citizens of Diamond asking that a voting place be established in the town of Diamond school district. Adjudicated.

The application of Diamond school district for a school house in this town was denied by the court.
