RESCUED FROM FREEZING.

Pedestrian From California Picked up On Road Near Riverdale.

Ogden, Jan. 27.-Andrew Miller, an old gentleman, was found chilled and old gentieman, was found enned and suffering from the cold yesterday near Riverdale by Daniel Bateman of that town, who picked the man up, and took him to his house, where he was warm-ed, then brought to Ogden and turned over to the county officials for medical attention. The man is over 70 years of age, and claims that he came here from California, having walked the greater part of the way, suffering many privations, having at times lacked food and shelter to keep him from the cold blasts. His feet are partially frozen, blasts. His feet are partially frozen, but with care for a few days they will be all right. He says that he had his feet frozen once before several years ago, and that each winter he suffers considerably from the cold and frost. He is now at the county jail, where he is receiving every possible care, the county howsielan having diven bin
