Reckless Driving Results in Serious Smashup-Baptist Convention-Junction City Briefs.

S. T. Whitaker, director general of the Louisiana Purchase exposition commission for Utah, and a little boy had a narrow escape for their lives yesterday afternoon in a runaway. Mr. Whitaker was driving a team attached to a livery surrey, when the horses began to cut up and finally ran away. Mr. Whitaker was unable to manage them, but held to the lines, missing telegraph poles and other obstructions along the road for six blocks, until they reached the corner of Jefferson avenue and Twenty-third street, when in trying to turn the corner the vehic e struck against a telegraph pole in the middle of the road, throwing Mr. Whitk and the boy to the ground. Mr. Whitaker sustained some injuries to his ft hand and was badly shaken up, hile the boy escaped with slight ulses. The top of the surry, togelh-with the seats, were torn from the say bed and crushed to pleces, the bed and crushed to pleces, the was broken to splinters and the ontinued its wild chase up to the emetery, where it was stopped by
