UP BEFORE JUDGE ARMSTRONG

Complaining Witness Became Involved
In Scrape Later and the Two Men
Brought Into Court Together.

The case of Elie La Mike, charged with holding up and robbing Mike Musga in this city on the 12th of December, 1907, is on before a jury in Judge Armstrong's court today. The information charges that the defendant held up and robbed Mike Musga, a merchant tailor of Harrisburg, Pa., asking for assistance in locating one John Levy, who escaped from a train at Ogden during the latter part of March. Levy had been sick for five weeks in San Francisco, and the sickness had left him somewhat demented in his mind. He was being taken home by a companion and when the train reached Ogden Levy requested his keeper to purchase some fruit for him, and during his absence Levy slipped from the train and has not been seen nor heard from since. The description of Levy is as follows: Height, 5 feet 6 inches; age, 26; build, slim; complexion, fair. The mayor is requested to search hospitals, jails, asylums, etc., for the unfortunate man, and any information concerning him will be gladly received by his grief-stricken mother, addressed to Mr. Simms.

BANKRUPTCY PROBLEM.

Peculiar Case Comes Up for Trial Before Justice D. T. Smith.

The legal question of whether a man can include in a petition in bankruptcy an obligation which would not mature until seven years after the petition was filed, is involved in a suit that is ready for trial in the court of Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith. The suit is filed by Mrs. Ruth Perkins Matthews, a widow living in North Ogden, and the defendant is Prof. William M. Stewart, head of the normal department of the University of Utah. Mrs. Matthews, in a complaint filed on April 3, sets forth that on Jan. 1, 1899, at Salt Lake City, Prof. Stewart made, executed and delivered to her a note for $500, of which the following purports to be a copy:

"For value received I promise to pay Ruth Perkins Matthews $500 with interest as follows: Sixty dollars on or before Jan. 1, 1900 and the same amount annually thereafter until the above amount is fully paid.

"W. M. STEWART."

The complaint further sets forth that Prof. Stewart kept up monthly payments of about $5 per month, according to a schedule list given until $27 had been paid, when he ceased completely to make payments, leaving a balance of $273 still due, and it is for this amount that the suit is filed.

On April 11, Prof. Stewart filed an answer to the complaint alleging bankruptcy, and that the account was included in his list of liabilities in a petition filed Dec. 29, 1902, he having been discharged in bankruptcy in April, 1903.

The schedule of payments given shows that $92 was paid in on account on the note after the court had discharged the defendant in bankruptcy, and the face of the note shows that maturing at the rate of $60 per year, it would not be due until Jan. 1, 1909, ten years after it was made.

WHERE IS JOHN LEVY?

Demented Man Escapes From Train at Ogden in March.

Mayor Bransford this morning received a communication from A. J. Simms, a merchant tailor of Harrisburg, Pa., asking for assistance in locating one John Levy, who escaped from a train at Ogden during the latter part of March. Levy had been sick for five weeks in San Francisco, and the sickness had left him somewhat demented in his mind. He was being taken home by a companion and when the train reached Ogden Levy requested his keeper to purchase some fruit for him, and during his absence Levy slipped from the train and has not been seen nor heard from since. The description of Levy is as follows: Height, 5 feet 6 inches; age, 26; build, slim; complexion, fair. The mayor is requested to search hospitals, jails, asylums, etc., for the unfortunate man, and any information concerning him will be gladly received by his grief-stricken mother, addressed to Mr. Simms.

SAFETY APPLIANCE CASES.

"Guilty," was the verdict brought in yesterday by the jury which heard the case of the U. S. A. vs. the Southern Pacific, charged with violating the safety appliance act. This means that $100 must be paid as a fine. Another case against the S. P. is being tried today. This contains eight separate counts. To secure a jury an open venire was called.

LONE MAN SUSPECTED.

Burglar Alarm from Salisbury Home Brings Police to Neighborhood.

At 3 o'clock this morning Officers Johnson, Lyon, Pitts, Gillespie and Special Officer Riley, arrested a lone man, who gave the name of William Ristor, on Sixth East and First South street, directly in front of the residence of the late O. J. Salisbury. The man will either be charged with attempted burglary or vagrancy.

Shortly before 3 o'clock, a burglar alarm was turned in to headquarters and it is alleged that Ristor was trying to break into the Salisbury home. The officers rushed to the scene in the patrol wagon and found Ristor near the premises.

MORE BANK WITNESSES

A. E. Hyde and T. R. Cutler Subpoenaed by the Grand Jury This Morning.

"Pending public domain" was probably the thing investigated by the grand jury this morning. Public domain and land matters generally will occupy the jury's attention for a day or so, judging from the big list of witnesses awaiting their turn to go before the board of inquirers.

Subpoenas have been served upon two witnesses, prominent Salt Lakeers, who, it is confidently believed, will testify in connection with the Utah National bank affair. The two are A. E. Hyde and T. R. Cutler. The list of witnesses for the probing of "domain" affairs includes: R. W. Holmes and Harry L. Smith of Mackay, Idaho; Lee Kern and J. R. Kerr and Chas. B. Jensen from Chiles, Idaho; Geo. F. Purdum and Chas. R. Walters, Shoshone, Ida.; J. H. Wilson, W. S. Barnes and Geo. W. Barnes, Hildale, Ida.; J. L. Baxter, Soldier, Ida.; B. J. McGee, Corral, Ida.; Capt. Hair, special agent of the department of the interior, with headquarters in this city; Edwin Scott, Jr., and H. Adams, Meadow, Utah; David I. Crandall, W. Z. Crandall and Mel. Chase, Springville, Utah; Geo. H. Robinson, Robinson, Utah; W. R. Greenhalgh, Santaquin, and A. E. Cox, Goshen.

The presence of Capt. Hair and so many outsiders started a rumor that the recent non-graduate in timber lands were about to be investigated, but as these were nipped in the bud, it is not at all probable they will come up at all.

TO GRADUATE NURSES.

L. D. S. Hospital Class Numbers Thirteen This Year.

The Groves L. D. S. hospital will graduate a larger number of nurses on April 30 than is usual with home institutions. On the date mentioned, 13 ladies will receive credentials that will enable them to enter the best hospitals of the country. The three years' training that they have received is of a high class, comparing favorably with similar schooling in the east.

The graduating exercises will be held in Barratt hall, and the occasion will be a day of the most interesting. Not only for those immediately concerned, but for their friends. Later in the day a reception will be held in the Lion House, in honor of the successful candidates. Following are the ladies to receive diplomas:

Miss June Roberts, Miss Lettie Sorenson, Miss Martha Bullock, Miss Myrtle Brandler, Miss Marcella Wing, Miss Pernette Bagley, Mrs. Jennie Shields, Miss Elva Roberts, Miss Ella Gantz, Miss Maud Brown, Miss Vera Sohien, Miss Agnes Hoggan, and Miss Minnie Wheeler.

NOTICE.

The Salt Lake stake conference, advertised to be held on the 14th of June, will be held on the 25th of the same month instead. JOSEPH F. SMITH.

UNKNOWN MAN KILLED.

Mutilated Body Found Along Tracks On West Side.

The mutilated remains of a man were found at an early hour this morning along the tracks of the Salt Lake Route between First and Second South streets by Special Officer Maroni Gillespie, and up to a late hour today no identification had been made.

It is believed that the man attempted to board the train for Los Angeles, leaving here at 12:05, and was thrown under the wheels and killed. The clothing showed no marks of identification and the body was horribly mutilated. Officer Gillespie called up police headquarters and Justice Dana T. Smith was notified. Justice Smith ordered the remains removed to O'Donnell's undertaking establishment, where they will be prepared for burial. The police are making every effort to establish the identity of the man.

Undertaker O'Donnell discovered among the unfortunate man's clothing a money order for $3 purchased at Lowell Station, Bisbee, Ariz. The postmaster has been wired as to who made the purchase and on whom was the order drawn.

POLITICAL POINTERS

Col. Geo. B. Squires, an old campaigner of the Civil war, and the "man behind the boys" in organizing the Republican campaign in the last two years is a busy man these days. He is trying to get the party out of the notion of internal bickering, and into form to put up a united front with the opponents outside. During the incumbency of the late O. J. Salisbury as state chairman, Col. Squires acted as his assistant and managed most of the office affairs.

Wesley K. Walton, the new Republican chairman, is nominally from Rich county, but he has a Salt Lake county name near Murray and spends most of his time in Salt Lake. He has served through the last two senate sessions as the senator from Rich and Morgan counties.

A development of the year promises to be the retirement of many "wheel horses" and "war horses" from both national parties. The younger generation figure prominently in jettisoning prospective candidates for both state tickets.

John Q. Critchlow has called the committee of 15 and many other friends together for a Saturday evening at the Wilson. An effort will be made on that occasion to follow a California fashion, by launching a "Roosevelt-Lincoln club," with chapters in each town.

WOOL SELLS FOR 11 CENTS

Mrs. E. Bonnemort, the "Queen of Sheep Women," Disposes of Two Cars of Fleeces.

Unique indeed is the wool situation. Utah raisers are making a determined effort to hold their own and get value for their products, using their words. The "News" a few days ago printed the story of the first sale of wool in this state. There was any number of denials forthcoming from prominent wool growers of this state that any wool has been sold and when it was explained that Marcus Harris exhibited contracts, receipts and other papers usually drawn up in such transactions, the wool raisers did not withdraw a bit from their positive stand. The statement came in from all sides that the buyers had misrepresented things to attempt to "beat" the market, with the innocent aid of a newspaper. Wool growers are determined to get more than 10, 12 or 15 cents per pound, while the buyers are not offering any particular price but none above 12 cents. President E. H. Callister of the Utah Wool Growers' association makes a statement which appears on another page of this issue of the "News." What he says and the following paragraph put side by side show why the situation is unique.

Wool has been sold in Utah as the "News" said. Among those who have sold is Mrs. E. Bonnemort, the "Queen of Sheep Women," as she is called by wool raisers of the sterner sex who has just disposed of two cars of wool for which she accepted 11 cents a pound. (The "News" said wool has sold at prices ranging from 10 to 12 cents per pound.) Mrs. Bonnemort is a resident of Salt Lake; has a home on east Brigham street, and for a half dozen years has been an active wool grower and manager of big business affairs—affairs which would be too much for the ordinary woman. There are several others who have sold and the "News" has the names in its possession.

The sales are the exceptions to the rule, however, as a majority of the growers belong to the Utah Wool Growers' association, an organization which has been organized to get sheepmen to agree to create a good market for wool by storing it. As an illustration of how Utah growers in the "holding" plan are standing by their announced intention it is but necessary to refer to the wool growers with sheep at the R. G. W. corral, south of Price. Thirty thousand sheep have been sheared already and 60,000 are waiting their turn to be shorn. The clip from this big number not one pound is offered for sale, according to reliable information from the scene of shearing, itself. Every pound will be put away.

Buyers say the raisers are making a mistake in taking the stand that they (the buyers) are trying to bear the market by remaining inactive. Buyers from the east, but half the mills are running and with no demand for wool, stiff prices cannot be expected.

DR. STEWART CRITICIZED.

Is Accused of Somewhat Peculiar Procedure in Smallpox Cases.

There is considerable indignation expressed in different quarters over the action of Dr. Stewart, the health officer, in relation to several cases of smallpox which have occurred in this city during the past 10 days. Cases in point are cited on Sumner avenue where Lon J. Haddock and Mrs. Roberts are quarantined at their homes with the disease. Mr. Haddock, who was taken down over a week ago with a light case, asked that he be removed to the isolation hospital but was informed by the health authorities he must stay at home with his family. The public mind was so notified that he had better go out to the hospital as it had been decided to open that institution. It is understood that Mrs. Roberts also was so notified although the quarantine at her house will be raised on Tuesday. The alternative given is that they must remain in their rooms isolated from the rest of their respective families, all of whom have already been exposed to the disease for days.

The attending physicians, however, assure that the patients can go anywhere on the premises within 12 feet of the boundary line.

Dr. Stewart is further reported to have made the statement that if the patients named go to the isolation hospital today the quarantine on their homes will be raised tomorrow, although everybody on the place has been exposed to the dread malady and is liable to come down with it at any time.

LICENSE IS APPROVED.

Blanket Document for Salt Palace Signed by the Mayor.

Mayor Bransford this morning approved the blanket license for the Salt Palace for a lump sum of $240 for the season's run. The proposition had been held up by Mr. Bransford pending an investigation into the matter, and after satisfying himself that the amount was a fair remuneration for the attractions offered, attached his signature to the council resolution approving the same.

PUPILS WORKED ARBOR DAY.

According to the reports submitted to Superintendent of City Schools D. H. Christensen, Arbor day was generally observed by the school children at their homes. It has been the custom of the children to clean up yards, plant trees and shrubbery on their home premises on Arbor day, and then report to their teachers the amount of such work accomplished. This year the reports show a considerable increase over former years in the number of yards cleaned and trees planted. The summary of the work done this year is shown in the following figures given out by Superintendent Christensen: Yards cleaned, 6,169; trees planted, 6,498; shrubs planted, 8,227; flower beds planted, 8,783; vegetable gardens planted, 1,534, and vines, 108.

LATE LOCALS.

Local Bank Clearings—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $957,240.24, as against $959,425.76 for the same day last year. The close approach of today's clearings to last year's will be noted with gratification by the local business community.

Taking Smith Back—Sheriff Nesbitt of Monterey county, Cal., is a Salt Lake visitor today, on a short stop-over from Provo to Los Angeles. At the same time, located up in the county jail, is Walter C. Smith, who will accompany the officer to the coast.

D. C. Dunbar's Condition—Word from St. Mark's hospital late this afternoon, was to the effect that the condition of David C. Dunbar had not improved materially during the past day or two. For a time his recovery seemed to be rapid, much to the relief of his friends, but later developments are not so reassuring.

Articles Amended—Amendments to the articles of incorporation of the Rees-Grass Creek Coal company were filed in the office of Secretary of State Tingey this morning, authorizing the officers of the company to levy additional assessments upon the capital to carry on the business of the concern, which is the development of certain coal mining enterprises in Summit county. The Cache Knitting works of Logan also sent in an amendment to its original articles of incorporation, the purpose of which is to treble the capital stock of the concern. Under the amendment the company's capitalization is fixed at $75,000 in place of $25,000, as heretofore.
