"They lace in front" MODEL M

Model "M" attains the summit of corset ideality for the figures embraced by the intention of its design—figures of 140 pounds and upwards. It gives the willowy grace, the snug hips, long waist line, and the absolutely correct front.

It has a long back which by its carefully planned lines reduces the hips in appearance and cleverly draws them back thereby imparting the lines of youth. The soft extension at the bottom of the front clasps with hook and eye fastening, thus performing a necessary province without the discomfort of long front steeles. The multiplicity of figures make this model desirable in many instances in sizes as small as 19 and always for figures with large hips.

"They Lace in Front" Expert Corsetieres in attendance.

ONE OF THE NEW FLOWER BORDERED SUNSHADES. An accessory to the summer wardrobe which merits more than usual attention is the sunshade. There are plain and embroidered white lilies for wear with the linen tailor-made coaching parasols in brilliant reds and greens, for the suit of serge or mohair, and innumerable novelties for dressy wear, quite the most attractive of which is the hand painted sunshade. Hand painted they call them, but in reality they are made of a wamp print silk, the floral border extending almost half way from the tips to the center. White, delicate pinks and blues are the favorite colors, these combining well with the highly colored floral borders, the rose being a favorite pattern. The plain silk center is very often of moire taffetas.

THREE PIECE COSTUME OF WHITE MOHAIR.

Among the very many three piece costumes which were noted at the Morris Park races of this season was a three piece costume of white English mohair. The skirt, a circular model with long train, is trimmed in a novel fashion with fancy white silk braid and narrow and wide folds of white taffeta silk, these folds applied with rows of machine stitching, done with heavy silk which resembles a fine braid. The waist is a jumper model of mohair elaborately trimmed with the braid and silk, and built over a tight fitting, well lined of taffeta. The gumples is of all-over white Normandy Val, and the touch of gold in the form of buttons which trim the jumper is complimented by the two tones of cream and butter colored lace frilled on the short puffed sleeve. The high grade of this jumper bodice is built in one with waist and worn on the outside of the skirt. Accompanying this costume is a hat of mauve colored chip trimmed with china astors in three shades of pink and mauve and a single 21 inch golden brown plume. The sunshade, (which when closed the wearer carries in the same fashion that maids of other days carried the empire staff) is one of the new empire models in mauve colored silk with a white enameled stick and handle in the form of an owl's head.
