WILL FENCE OGDEN CANYON.

County Commissioners Will Safeguard Travel in That Thoroughfare-New Roadway for Ray.

Ogden, April 17 .- At the meeting of the city council last night the question of rebuilding the bridge at the mouth of Ogden canyon and reopening the Dugway road to the canyon occupied much of the time. The petition that was so generally signed by the business men scheduly signed by the opened. The Ogden City Improvement league sug-gested the appointment of two mem-bers of the council, who, together with the city engineer and the city attorney, should confer with the management the city engineer and the city into they, should confer with the management of the Sanitarium relative to the per-manent course of the river. The sug-gestion was adopted and Councilmen Weatherby and Browning were ap-pointed. Immediately thereafter a res-olution was adopted providing that the people directly interested in the course of the river meet the members of the council on some date to be named later, with regard to the matter. Councilmen Powers and Dickson were named to represent the council. The people residing in the flooded dis-triet of the city sent in a petition ask-ing for relief and blaming the Short Line bridge for obstructing the river and so causing much of the damage done since the high water began. The pedition was referred to the water com-mittee. It was reported that the street supervisor had given all temporary supervisor had given all temporary protection to property along the river that could be given until the water receded. The water committee reported that it had conferred with the waterworks company relative to extending the mains in certain portions of the city. The committee said it was assured that the matter would be attended to as soon as possible whenever the company found it to be justifiable. The Utah Light & Railway company informed the council that the contract for lighting the streets in the business section of the city would expire June 1 and that the council would have 30 days after that time to renew it. The matter, was referred to the light com-mittee.

Complaint was made that the Union Pacific is not putting Twenty-sixth street back into good condition where it street back into good condition where it has been dug up for the railroad's pipe line and that the railroad people have been notified of this fact. A motion prevailed that unless the street was placed in its former condition within a certain time the city would do the work at the railroad company's ex-pense.

OGDEN CANYON TO BE FENCED. Commissioners Decide to Make Travel

Safer on Noted Highway.

Ogden, April 17.-The county commis-sioners have practically decided to fence a number of places in Ogden canfence a number of places in Ogden can-yon next to the river where the road is narrow and the banks of the river are dangerous. This matter came up for discussion yesterday at the regular meeting of the board. Each member was heartly in favor of the proposition which was presented first by Commis-gioner McKay, who has charge of that portion of the county. The sad ac-cident of Sunday, when Miss Phillips was drowned, brought the necessity of this precaution being taken more fore-ably to the minds of the commissioners. The fence will be built of two rails of hom pipe set in concrete posts six inches in thickness, thus making it very strong, and it will not detract

The county engi-near was instructed to prepare an esti-mate of the cost of such a fense. mate of the cost of such a fense. Sheriff Sebring was instructed to en-force the laws in Ogden canyon to the letter, which he will do without favor, and the commissioners will stand back of him in all prosecutions. Especially will attention be given to fast driving either by automobiles or vehicles. County Surveyor Craven showed the board a map of the Roy district with the proposed new road and recom-mended that in the future the county build uniform poads. CITY COUNCIL, Members of the free library trustees appeared before the city council last evening, and Dr. F. W. Taylor, in be-half of the trustees, presented a letter from Mr. Andrew Carnegie, which stat-ed that if the city council by resolu-tion would agree to contribute $1,750 annually for the support of a library and give a site, he would give $17,500 for a building. Dr. Taylor presented a resolution to be passed by the coun-cil. This provided for an appropria-tion of $2,000 annually, and Dr. Taylor stated that the committee favored a $20,000 library, and that Mr. Carnegie would give $22,000, if a $2,000 appropri-ation was made. Dr. Taylor also stated that, while the city had offered a site, the trustees had received applications
