The symptoms of the disease are almost unnoticed at first, so insidiously do they steal over the body; gradually the little pains and stiffness increase, until they develop greater inconvenience day by day.

The knees, ankles and other joints of the body, ache constantly, swelling to several times their natural size; the patient finds himself unable to get around—is soon incapacitated for business, and later is confined to his bad attents belongs.

confined to his bed, utterly helpless.

It is not generally known that the usual treatment for Rheumatism is decidedly injurious to the system. The doctor is able to relieve the first touch of the disease, but with the return of cold, disagreeable weather, the pains become sharper, and more constant, the bones ache more severely, and the disease gradually, but surely, possesses the entire body.

Rheumatism is a disease of the blood, for which all physicians prescribe notash mercury and other mineral mixture. The disease of the blood is the state of the state scribe potash, mercury and other mineral mixtures. The effect of these drugs is like adding fuel to the fire—hence the increasing severity of the disease.
