

IN THE WORLD OF WOMEN

NOTABLE UTAH WOMEN.

MRS. EMMA J. MCKICKER.

The past week will loom a distinct social septenary in the season's record for the brilliant weddings consummated within its time. No nuptial event has ever before transpired in Salt Lake which made the atmosphere of the Bransford-Harris wedding, and the Griffin-Thomas event was distanced only in the lavishness of detail of the former—no more artistic and delightful affair having taken place in wedding annals in the city than the latter. The marriage of Miss Kearns and Mr. F. J. Westcott was a quiet home affair but attended with notable details, and a number of other home weddings have rounded up the week's nuptial record to its last day. Besides these have occurred some pleasant afternoon functions few in number, but making up in delightful social detail for the decrease in events.

On Tuesday evening St. Paul's church was the scene of one of the most elaborate bridal events that have yet taken place in that pretty edifice. The occasion was the wedding of Miss Flora Griffin and Elbridge L. Thomas, the church audience, and chief participants in the event being features of an exceptionally beautiful affair. The decorations, which were in white and green, were artistically arranged—the church being embowered with palms and heavy foliage plants, the railings twined with rosebuds and vines. Trailing vines and roses latticed the windows and the central aisle was framed at intervals with garlanded arches, fashioned with bands of broad white satin ribbon caught in lover's knots. At 8 o'clock the opening strains of "The Voice That Breathed Over Eden" were played by Organist Berkehoel, and at the same moment the church choir of thirty-five voices chanted the words of the song from the vestry afterward taking their places in the choir stalls. Then to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march the bridal party entered the church from the northeast door, passing up the central aisle to the chancel steps. The ushers, Robert Olen-Grenning, David McQuade, Samuel Porter, Lear Riter, Ray Savage, Shirley Webber, and Charles Lawrence, came first, followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Charles E. McCullough. Then came the bride's maid in white, Miss Irma Alf and Miss Lucille Jennings, Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick and Miss Florence Terhune, Miss Josie Katz and Miss Evelyn Thomas. After them came the maid of honor, Miss Anna Davidson of Wichita, Kans., and then the bride on the arm of her father. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Arthur Thomas, and the group stood together while Rev. St. John read the preliminary service. Then the bride with her father and maid of honor and the groom and his best man advanced to the chancel rail and Rev. Ellis Bishop performed the marriage ceremony, the choir chanting "O Perfect Love, All Human Thought Transcending" during the service. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bridal party passed from the building. At the home of the bride's parents a large reception was held, the decorations being in white, yellow and violet arranged with artistic effect. Palms, roses, chrysanthemums, violets and ferns were used, the bridal couple standing under a canopy of green with huge wedding ball of white roses as a pendant. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe over tulle with bodice and sleeves of Renaissance lace. Her veil was of white tulle and was fastened with a diamond clasp—the gift of the groom. The maid of honor, Miss Danielson, was gowned in yellow tulle with draperies of white embroidered chiffon; the matron of honor, Mrs. McCullough, in lavender mousseline de sole over tulle and the six bridesmaids respectively in white, yellow and lavender creations of silk and lace. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Griffin, and the groom is son of ex-Governor Arthur L. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left on Wednesday for an eastern trip, and upon their return will be at home at 367 Third street.

On Wednesday Miss Margaret Kearns and Frank J. Westcott were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed in the forenoon at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Thomas Kearns. Bishop Scanlan officiated, the ceremony taking place in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends. The drawing room was prettily decorated with white roses and palms, and the dining room in which a dainty wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony, with American Beauty roses and ferns. The couple were the recipients of many valuable wedding gifts, among them a check for $2,000 from the bride's father, and also a check for a large amount from Mr. David Keith. The bride was a becoming traveling gown of brown cloth with hat to match, and carried white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Westcott left on the 12:30 train for an eastern trip, and on their return will reside at Park City.

Mrs. Margaret Miles, Dr. Lucia Miles and Mrs. John N. Sharp entertained at cards yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Annett. The rooms were tastefully decorated in autumn leaves and flowers, and the tables and score cards were also decorated with autumn leaves. Miss Annett was awarded the guest's prize, Mrs. Gallacher the first prize and Mrs. Cowan the second. The guests were: Miss Annett, Madame Pfoutz, Mrs. Pfoutz, Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. Scarf, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Officer, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Chesnut, Mrs. Le Grand Young, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Trent, Mrs. Hoag, Mrs. Wainock, Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Florence Young, Mrs. Brint, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Markland, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Fred, Mrs. Darling, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Trent, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Terhune, Mrs. Volmer, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Cawen, Miss Terhune, Miss Preston.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick entertained at an elaborate dinner at the Knutsford on Monday evening in honor of Miss Flora Griffin, who on Tuesday became Mrs. Emma J. McKicker, whom Governor Wells has recently appointed to succeed the late Dr. John R. Park as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been prominent for many years in educational matters, her efforts both in a public and private way having been directed towards the interests of learning. Mrs. McKicker was born in northern New York and her ancestors were amongst the oldest families of New England. While still a child she removed with her parents to Wisconsin and there received her early education, graduating from Downer college in 1858. She afterward studied music at the Chicago musical college and received a teacher's certificate from that institution. In 1859 she came to Utah, and taught for some time at the College Institute, later filling the position of principal. During the State Constitutional convention she was one of the committee which secured provision for the kindergarten as a part of the public school system, and was chosen president of the Free Kindergarten association in 1895-6. She was appointed a member of the Board of Regents in 1896 and still continues in that position. Last year she spent several months traveling through the State inspecting the systems of the various schools from the kindergarten to the University, gaining a practical knowledge of the methods in vogue throughout the State. She also spent some time in Colorado examining the school systems there. Last winter Mrs. McKicker took the degree of B. S. at the University, while continuing private studies at home without personal instruction, the lady being an original investigator in favorite branches of natural science—particularly biology. Mrs. McKicker has also been actively interested in club matters, having been a prominent member of the Ladies' Literary club, the Utah Woman's Press club and the Cleo-Ann. In 1896 she was elected president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, and has been chairman of the educational committee since its organization.

Mrs. E. L. Thomas. The table was laid in the red dining room, and was elaborately spread with Japanese embroidered over pink and decorated with white chrysanthemums. The place cards had the monogram of Mrs. McKicker, and the groom engraved in hand-painted flowers. Pink candles in hand-carried out the color-scheme. The guests were: Miss Irma Alf, Miss Lucille Jennings, Miss Florence Terhune, Miss Josie Katz, Miss Evelyn Thomas, Miss Anna Davidson, Miss Constance Kirkpatrick.

The marriage of Miss Rose Boudry and Harry Bows took place on Thursday night at the home of the groom, 224 Third East street. Rev. A. H. Henry officiated. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and flowers, the parlor in which the ceremony was performed, being especially tasteful. The bride wore a becoming gown of white chiffon over white silk. The bridesmaid, Miss Clara Raht, was gowned in lavender colored silk. An elaborate supper was served after the ceremony, the table being prettily decorated. The bride is a well known Salt Lake girl, and the groom is a successful sheep man of Nevada. Both have many friends who will extend hearty congratulations and good wishes.

Another wedding of Thursday was that of Miss Freda Barnum and Harvey H. Cluff, which was solemnized in the Temple. The bride is well known in educational circles, having been for the past two years instructor in elocution and physical culture in the L. D. S. College. Previous to her teaching she graduated from the Provo B. Y. Academy and afterward spent two years successfully at Berkeley Lyceum, in New York, and at Dr. Sargent's Physical Culture school at Harvard.

The groom is also a graduate of the Provo B. Y. Academy, and a resident of that city. He has recently returned from a two years' absence in the East, where he studied law. Mr. Cluff left on Thursday evening for Des Moines, Ia., to complete a course at the Highland Park college. Both bride and groom have a large number of friends who wish them happiness.

Miss May Vowles' birthday was celebrated on Thursday evening in a pleasant party given at her residence. The rooms were prettily decorated in autumn leaves and with music—a number of vocal and instrumental selections being rendered. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed by those present. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Linsley, H. B. Brooks, Edith Jones, Nell Fowler, Chas. Jeremy, Margaret Hague, Mamie Griffiths, Dora Crockett, Emma Brown, Hattie White, Alfred Johnson, Sadie Squires, W. D. Campbell, J. Backham, J. W. Spay, Hattie Ward, Janie Forbes, E. A. Parsons, Ellen Coulam, Fannie Coulam, Christo, Hyldahl, S. D. Bradford, Althea Hyldahl, Chas. Hunter, Max Hunter, Will Morris, L. J. King, Clara Sherrill, Louis Sherrill, Lillian Vowles, Gus Gilbert, Ed. E. Pike.

The marriage of Pansy Mousley Yager and Robert Roden Jr. occurred on Wednesday, the ceremony being performed in the Temple by John R. Winder, and a pleasant reception following in the evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lina D. Mousley. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, and with crepe paper in tasteful arrangement. Refreshments were served during the evening and the time delightfully spent by all present. The couple were the recipients of many handsome presents, comprising valuable articles in silver, cut glass, china and furniture. The guests were: Robert Roden Sr. and Mrs. Roden, Rose Lily and Elizabeth Roden, Joseph Isaac and Josiah Roden, President Angus M. Cannon, Sarah M. Cannon and Ann Amanda Cannon, President David Cannon, William Cannon, George M. Cannon, Addie M. Cannon, John M. Cannon, Zina B. Cannon, Mr. Ellis, Mina Cannon, Lewis M. Sorenson, Jos. Bywater, Rula Bywater, Hattie Ward, Janie Forbes, E. A. Parsons, Charles Strong and wife, Emma Everett, Sarah Robinson, Frank Chamberlain, Mary Chamberlain, A. M. Cannon Jr., Kate Cannon, Ethel Cox.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the card party given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order of Railroad Conductors on Monday night. The event took place in the L. O. B. hall and was enjoyed by all present. The prize winners in the contest were Miss Hattie Brown, Mrs. Rich, Mr. H. A. Seine and Mr. J. D. Smith. Thomas Martin favored the guests with a number of vocal selections which were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Mabel Park Thomas entertained at a pleasant neighborhood party yesterday afternoon. The time was spent with music and conversation, and refreshments were served. Among the guests were Mrs. Minnie James, Mrs. Walter Squires, Miss Ida Moyle, Mrs. H. S. Boutle, Mrs. L. Young, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Orson Rogers, Mrs. Midgley, Mrs. Nathan Sears, Mrs. M. A. Sears, Mrs. M. C. Godde, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. J. Clive, Mrs. Maggie Moyle, Mrs. Mary Moyle, Mrs. A. J. Gray, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Geo. Pyper, Mrs. J. D. Owen, Mrs. Theo. Burton.

The Bransford-Harris wedding has been the chief topic of the week. Should such affairs become continuous, Salt Lake would doubtless soon become ranked amongst the social centers of the West.

Mr. and Mrs. David John have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Emma John, and Mr. James C. Knudson, the event to take place at their residence in Provo.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury left on Tuesday for New York, where she will visit with relatives during the next month. At the end of that time she will be joined by Mr. Salisbury and Miss Salisbury, and will accompany them on a journey to Europe. They will be absent a year.

The piano recital given by the pupils of Prof. Cook, assisted by Miss Emily Jessup, at the Ladies' Literary club house, last night was an artistic and social success.

Mr. and Mrs. Grenick, Mr. and Mrs. Cobley, Miss Cobley, Miss Ida Chandler, Mrs. Sadie Mann, Miss Theo. Kahler, Will Kahler.

The ladies of the 11th church gave a pleasant social last night in the league rooms of the church. An enjoyable program was rendered, and refreshments were served, the evening being delightfully spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Uhl are organizing French and German conversation classes to meet at their residence on Tuesday evenings. The number will not be limited, but will be open to all their friends who may be interested. The initial meeting will take place next Tuesday.

Mrs. Judson entertains at dinner this evening in honor of her guests, Mrs. T. P. Meacham of New York and Mr. Lyman of Albany.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Preston Jr., of Logan, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pyper, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller of Spokane.

The marriage of Miss Alice Calder and Mr. J. Tuddenham Jr. takes place next Wednesday.

A number of box-parties witnessed the performance of the Mandarin during the week and others are planned for this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller of Spokane were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer on Monday. Mr. Miller is one of the big writers of the New York Life Insurance Co.

The engagement of Miss Emily Jenkins and Mr. David Smith was announced during the week. Both Miss Jenkins and Mr. Smith are very popular in social circles in this city.

Miss Eva Price leaves Monday for St. George, where she will spend several weeks.

Mr. Thomas Keogh has returned from the East.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Meacham of New York, Mr. Silas B. Lyman of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. Pearl will be the guests of M. J. J. Judson during the next two weeks.

Mrs. Lucia Tierman and Mrs. Henry A. Whitney will give a reception on Thursday, Oct. 18.

Miss Stella McChrystal and Miss Jennie Sullivan have returned from a trip to Yellowstone park.
