Depravity and Disaster.

GALVESTON, Texas, 15. — New Scœur Lake special: Twelve tramps were noticed about the depot last night. The agent, suspecting they intended to rob the coming train, wired the superintendent, who ordered a posse of twenty men aboard at Liberty. As the train pulled in to Scœur Lake, the tramps rushed for the express car, but were halted by a score of Winchesters. The passengers, especially the ladies were almost panic stricken. Valuables were hurriedly secreted or thrown away. The gang, however, were unarmed, and asserted they only wished to steal a ride.

Belvidere, N.J., 15.—Peter Smith, horse thief, who fasted 36 days, escaped from jail to night.

Cleveland, 15.—A Massillon, Ohio, special to the Leader explains the report of the murder of a family near Canal Dover thus: "George Shaw was taken violently insane yesterday, and when arrested by the constable said he had killed his wife and children. His clothing being profusely stained with blood, lent credit to the story. Investigation proved that the family was uninjured."

San Francisco, 15.—The facts of a singular seizure have just been made public. Commander Russell under orders of the Navy Department seized the monitor Monadnock, being constructed at Vallejo, and removed it to the navy yard. The Navy Department made their contracts for the construction of the vessel with Phineas Burgess of New York, each for separate work. The first contract, $410,000, was for its completion and equipment for one year's sea service. Secretary Thompson annulled this, as it was not renewed by his successors. Under the second contract, Burgess holds approved claims against the Government for $212,000. His representatives were holding the ship against these claims, and also with the expectation that they would be allowed to file a final account. When the vessel was seized and carried off, no reasons were assigned.

Denver, 15.—One of the most brutal robberies that ever occurred in Colorado was enacted in Petersburg Grove, seven miles from this city, last night. At that place resides an old bachelor, P. Olsen, who usually kept small sums of money hid about his premises. Last night four disguised men went to his house and knocked as customary in the country. The farmer asked the visitors to come in. As soon as they were inside they seized Olsen, threw him on the floor, held him, then demanded where his money was. He replied he had none. After thoroughly searching the house to no purpose, Olsen still refused to tell where his money was hid, the robbers got willow switches, and whipped his bare feet and legs until they were covered with blood. Olsen still resisting, they built a large fire in the back yard, carried Olsen out, and proceeded to execute their threat to roast him alive. They placed his feet in the fire and literally roasted them. Even this terrible treatment would not open his mouth. The old man was then compelled to walk back to the house, where a scuffle ensued, during which the stove overturned, disclosing a money box containing $600, which the robbers took and decamped. No clue. Olsen will probably recover.

The trial of Martin and Coffin, charged with complicity in the Grand Lake assassination, last July, was called at Golden this morning. The prosecution moved to dismiss the case on the ground of insufficient evidence to convict the prisoners were discharged.

Port Rowan, Ont., 15.—A vessel struck Long Point beach, six miles from here, at noon to-day, in a heavy snow storm. A lifeboat has gone to the rescue.

New Orleans, 15.—A Times-Democrat special reports that a fire at Rusk, Tex., destroyed all the buildings on the west side of the public square. Loss, $60,000, insurance, $40,000.

Chicago, 15.—A fire broke out this afternoon in the heavy hardware, carriage and wagon stock warehouse of S. D. Kimbark & Co., Nos. 82 and 84 Michigan Avenue, adjoining the Illinois Central Railroad general office. The third and fourth stories containing all the lighter portion of the stock, were destroyed. Goods in the basement, belonging to Reid, Murdock & Fischer, wholesale grocers, were damaged to an unknown extent by water. The Illinois Central offices were saved by a fire wall. Loss on stock, $200,000, on building, $25,000. Insurance on stock, $235,000; on building, $45,000.

A fire occurred at midnight in the upper floor of Mandel Brothers' store, one of the largest retail dry goods stores in the city. Loss on stock, chiefly by water, $25,000; on buildings $5,000. Both were fully insured.

Goodrich, Ont., 15. — Another heavy gale to-night on Lake Huron. It is feared the result will be disastrous to shipping.

Montreal, 15. — Another of the Richelieu Company's steamers, the Abyssinian, is sunk. She is valued at $40,000.

New Orleans, 15.—A Picayune Natchez special says: Lehman & Rothschild's mammoth store at Blackhawk Landing, Concordia, Parish, is burned, with contents.

Bangor, Me., 15.—First reports of the damages by the gale ga e but a slight idea of the havoc wrought. Many localities are yet unheard from, but enough is known to demonstrate that the calamity was of great magnitude.

The greatest damage appears to have been caused within a belt some miles wide, crossing Piscataqua county and northern Penatecot into Aroostook. The same belt probably crossed Somerset county. At Shirley the storm was very severe. It followed down the Piscataquna Valley and crossed the Gulf and Cross, Longa and Indian townships to the lower lakes, and thence to a point near Patten. There are great stretches of country where the forests are levelled to the ground, and millions upon millions of feet of valuable timber destroyed. Whole townships in some instances are said to be nearly flat. Losses are certainly several hundred thousand dollars. A well-known lumberman estimates the total damage throughout the State at a round million.

Kingston, Ont., 15. — The tug Thompson, which left Charlotte, N. Y., for Kingston with the barges Senator and Milwaukee, coal laden, in tow, arrived to-day, with the former only. The Milwaukee snapped her tow-line when abreast of the main docks, and has not been seen since. It is believed she has gone down, with all on board, four in number.

Halifax, N. S., 15.—An explosion that occurred in one of the buildings of the gas company caused much damage; no person injured.

Times Boston: The cyclone in Oxford and Franklin Counties, Maine, caused a loss aggregating $150,000.

Bismarck, Dak., 15.—Thermometer 30 degrees below zero; strong wind blowing at 8 o'clock this evening.

St. Paul, 15.—Advices from all parts in the Northwest to-night show the thermometer ranging from 15 to 40 degrees below zero, and a strong wind blowing. No snow. All trains are delayed on account of the wind. Navigation has been practically suspended here for several days. The river closed to-night.

The Last Resort.

WINNIPEG, Man., 15.—The association formed here to take steps for redressing the grievances endured by Manitoba at the hands of the Dominion, at its last meeting, instructed a committee which met this evening with closed doors. It is understood it made progress and adjourned till Saturday to complete its labors, after which it will report to the association. It is understood the platform will be a demand upon the Dominion for the removal of the monopoly provisions of the Pacific Railway charter; greater encouragement to settlers by opening up land reserves; removal of duties upon implements, and redress of other grievances. In the country, the feeling of the farmers is becoming intensified at the oppressive transportation rates imposed on grain, and the favoritism believed to be shown to one strong milling firm. Meetings are being held in Southern Manitoba to send remonstrances to Ottawa. A meeting will be held at Brandon on the 26th, to organize a farmers' association upon principles similar to the grangers. Secession, however, will be only the last resort, but the agitation will become general if redress does not come. The people of Manitoba are attached to the Canadian constitution; they are indignant simply at the doings of Parliament and the Administration.

It is intended to send a delegation to Washington to urge the payment of the long delayed New Orleans prize money.

Chicago, 15.—Breeders and importers of Percheron horses of the United States met to-night. Addresses were made by Hon. E. B. Washburne, Hon. J. B. Grinnell, and others. The demand was granted in every instance with the exception of the Tribune. The compositors made the demand on the Typographical Union. But twelve Union men were at work on the Tribune, when the committee from the Union paid them a visit and ordered them to strike unless the demand was conceded. It not being granted, the Union men quit work and left the building. The non-Union men employed on the Tribune refused to listen to the committee. The Herald and Sun have been paying 46 cents and the Times 45. No demand was made on the latter paper.

Chicago, 25.—Times Raleigh: At a wedding in Carrituck, North Carolina, liquor at the supper table led to a difficulty in which several guests participated; six shots were fired in one minute, clearing the room. Washington, 15.—Senator Vest and Congressmen Carlisle and Casy Young, called with Commissioner General Morehead on the Austrian Minister, with a view of securing through the Austrian Government the transfer of the late Vienna Electrical Exposition to the World's Exposition at New Orleans next year. The Austrian Minister evinced the greatest interest, and promised to use his best endeavors to further the plan. A visit to the Department of State was also made, where it was learned that the foreign affairs of the World's Exposition, which under the act of Congress are in charge of this department, are in a most satisfactory and encouraging shape.

Chicago, 15.—Sensational special dispatches published here this morning to the effect that Lincoln's body had been stolen from the vault in Springfield are to-night emphatically denied. The remains have never been removed from the monument and are absolutely safe.

BEAR LAKE STAKE QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Pursuant to appointment our Conference was held at Paris, Nov. 10th and 11th.

The meeting on Saturday morning was thinly attended, owing to the extremely bad roads. In the afternoon and throughout the Conference we were blessed with the presence of Apostle M. Thatcher.

The reports of the Bishops were very encouraging, showing a growth of faith in the hearts of the people, and a corresponding amount of good works. Improvement, both individual and public, seems to be the order of the day and the spirit of the times; as evidenced by the new meeting and school houses in course of erection. The instructions and counsels of the Elders were given in power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit and were suited to the wants and condition of the Saints.

The General Authorities of the Church and the Stake were presented to, and sustained by the Conference. The changes made were: D. F. Lau was sustained as Presiding Priest of the Sodo Springs District, and John Skinner, Sr., as Presiding Priest of the Nounan District; also Samuel Matthews was ordained a High Priest and set apart as Bishop of Montpelier Ward by Apostle M. Thatcher.

T. MINSON, Stake Clerk.

A CLEVER ROBBERY.

The London correspondent of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph tells a good story of a capture of silver plate by a London thief. He writes: "The house of a relative of mine was robbed the other day in rather a novel manner. The family had gone to Aberdeen, leaving the house in charge of the cook and housemaid. The night after the family had departed the inevitable burglar appeared—this time in the guise of his natural enemy, the police. Blue coat, helmet, buttons—everything was right, from the japanned spike of his helmet to the sole of his brogan. He bore a purring little kitten in his hand, and, as the door was opened, began: 'I beg your pardon, Miss, but I suppose this dear little beauty may be yours, I found it just outside.' The housemaid's heart immediately went out to the pretty forlorn kitten; she caressed it gently, and reluctantly admitted that the 'pretty dear' did'nt belong to the house. 'Ah,' said the policeman meditatively, 't do seem qu er how the little things w ander sometimes, and it would be a shame to leave it in the streets. I'll just call on the other houses in the terrace, and if I can't find an owner I'll bring it back to you, you've plainly took a fancy to it, and have a rare tender heart, I know.' Need I say that the servant was immensely flattered, or add that, after disappearing for a short time, the policeman returned from his praiseworthy and fruitless effort to find a home for that kitten? Of course he was asked in to have a glass of beer in the kitchen, and made as deep an impression on the cook as he had before done on the susceptible housemaid. He didn't rush matters, he made a week's job of it. He was indeed a charming man, and one night while staying late and partaking of cold meat pie and unlimited beer, he entertained his fair hearers with blood-curdling stories of burglaries and murders, in all of which cases he had, of course, taken a prominent part in bringing the culprits to justice. Having wrought the women up to a proper sense of nervousness, he took his departure about midnight, but immediately returned with the startling intelligence that he had seen a suspicious looking character lurking about. The servants were much alarmed. So he suggested he had better go over the house with them and see that the fastenings, etc., were all right. The offer was eagerly embraced, and the procession started. While examining the dining-room window the constable pretended to notice marks on the sash with a burgling implement. The housemaid was scared to death, cook was inclined to be hysterical; and, to cut the long story short, the rogue was persuaded to stay all night. Cook made him up an impromtu bed on the dining-room couch, and retired to rest well satisfied with the capital arrangement which had provided them with a policeman all to themselves. The sequel may be easily imagined. Long before cook and housemaid descended the policeman had disappeared, and taken with him £300 of plate weight 1½ cwt., the clever thief probably had an accomplice but of this there is no proof, and not a sign of plunder or plunderers has been seen since."

GIVE THE "MEN BOYS" A SHOW.

"He will never be worth a cent. He will be a boy as long as he lives—always a boy." So I heard a proprietor say of one of his employes. It was intended to be a criticism—a crusher. I confess that I thought better of the young man for having heard this, although I had never seen him. I know if he was an overgrown boy the chances were that he didn't have the dyspepsia; that he had never knocked against the rough corners which seem to multiply; that, he must still be a trifle frolicsome in the nature—a bit devil may care. I could see him playing with the children at home, amusing them with his grimaces, and worrying a neighboring cat with the family dog I'd or'e believe there are many of these men boys in the penitentiary. They may not be financiers or merchants, but they are the lever of every-day life. Give them a show.—Chicago Herald.

THE SUN.

NEW YORK, 1884.

About sixty million copies of THE SUN have gone out of our establishment during the past twelve months.

If you were to paste end to end all the columns of all THE SUNS printed and sold last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense wisdom, sound doctrine, and sane wit long enough to reach from Printing House Square to the top of Mount Copernicus to the moon, then back to Printing House Square, and then three-quarters of the way back to the moon again.

But THE SUN is written for the inhabitants of the earth; this same strip of intelligence would girdle the globe twenty-seven or twenty-eight times.

If every buyer of a copy of THE SUN during the past year has spent only one hour over it, and if his wife or his grandfather has spent another hour, this newspaper in 1883 has afforded the human race thirteen thousand years of steady reading, night and day.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of the most popular of American newspapers, or of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women.

THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no matter how much the process costs, which prints the news of all the world without waste of words and in the most readable shape which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, and which therefore believes that the Republican party must go, and must go in this coming year of our Lord, 1884.

If you know THE SUN, you like it already, and you will read it with accustomed diligence and profit during what is sure to be the most interesting year in its history. If you do not yet know THE SUN, it is high time to get into the sunshine.

Terms to Mail Subscribers.

The several editions of THE SUN are sent by mail, postpaid, as follows:

DAILY—50 cents a month, $6 a year; with Sunday edition, $7.

IT DID THE WORK.

AN OLD SISTER IN THE 20th Ward, was for nine months unable to undress herself, owing to the effects of Rheumatism, but lately she took a few doses of the Brittannia remedy advertised in our columns, and was at once relieved of her infirmity. She is now perfectly free from pain and stiffness, and feels comparatively like a young woman. It is a marvelous remedy. All should try it who are afflicted with this painful malady. It is also a splendid tonic.

WILLIAM HUME.

The International Fisheries Exhibition, at London, has been one of the events of the year. A cablegram from Messrs. Earll & Cox, the United States Delegates, announces that the Fish Commission from this country received eighteen gold medals, one of which has been awarded to William Hume, the pioneer salmon canner on the Columbia River. This is the only cannery receiving a medal at the Exhibition at London.

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."

HORACE FAIRMOTHER."

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. A bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."

159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."

Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."

Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRADDON."

Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
