News from Arizona.-This moraing, we received a call from Brother Joseph H. Frisby, of Forest Dale, a new settlement in Arizona, about 100 miles south of Sunset Crossing, in a valley of the Mocheone range of mountains, 25 miles from White River. The settlement consists of about 20 families, and was presided over by Brother Alfred Cluff, formerly of Provo. Brother Frisby informs us that he and others went to Arizona last fall, for the purpose of founding a new settlement, and were joined by others from down south. The location of Forest Dale was most desirable; the land being very fertile, well adapted to various kinds of situation, climate, water power, of produce, timber of all kinds very plentiful and the facilities for graz-
