

TOM JOHNSON HAS LOST EVERYTHING

Mayor of Cleveland Will Have to Give Up His Home and Take Smaller Quarters.

AUTOS AND LUXURIES TO GO

His Fortune Was Wrecked by Devotion to Affairs of Estate of Dead Brother.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 19.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, who for years has been credited with possessing a very large fortune, today announced that he had lost everything, and would be compelled to give up his beautiful home on Euclid avenue and move into smaller and less expensive quarters.

The mayor also stated that he would give up his automobiles and other luxuries because he could no longer afford to keep them.

HOW FORTUNE WAS WRECKED.

His fortune was wrecked, the mayor declared, by his devotion to the affairs of the estate of his dead brother, Albert, who was heavily interested in traction properties in the east.

After Albert's death a question was put up to him whether he should resign his office as mayor and take up the management of Albert's estate.

"I decided that I would not. I had entered the fight in this city with certain ideals before me. I wanted to fight privilege and special interests, and I had already decided to give up working for dollars. So I concluded to stay right here and do what I could to help my brother's children at long distance.

"Why did I choose the course I did? Well, I tell you. It's not because I am a philanthropist, for I am not. I acted from a purely selfish motive. I wanted happiness, and nothing else, when I closed up my business affairs and took up civic activity.

"And I have been happy, too. The past seven years have been the best of my life, leaving out of consideration the loss of my brother.

"I am going to be happy yet, too. We may have to go back to a cottage, but that's the way we started, and we can look upon that as a joyful change. We did in the big house on Euclid avenue.

HIS ENEMIES AFTER HIM.

"They tell me that my enemies are planning to bring financial trouble upon me. I've been expecting it. There's one mistake I have not made—that of failing to foresee the efforts of those who would like to destroy me if opportunity presented.

"My enemies are capable of that. One may expect nothing else from special privileges. However, I realize that any other set of men in the same circumstances would act the same.

"Let them do what they may. Let them make any sort of attack upon me that they choose, with whatever success, and they will find me with a thousand fights left in me.

"I'll never give up. I am well and strong and confident, and they'll always find me at the front.

"If I had been a coward—if I had run away from this fight for the people of Cleveland—I could have saved my fortune and built it up. But I had chosen my course, and I did not have any mind for altering it.

"The pursuit of mere dollars does not interest me. I suppose I could go down in Wall street now and make some money. I have bought and sold with R. H. Harriman, and I suppose I could go and do it again. But I am not going to do anything of the sort.

"I don't want you to misunderstand what I have been working for as mayor. I have not been laboring with the expectation of being rewarded by the gratitude of the people. One cannot count on that. It's pleasure in doing work that I like that has kept me in the fight.

"I have never made a single penny out of the street railway since I became mayor. Nobody else has worked as hard as I, and I have not drawn a cent of pay from the Municipal Traction company as treasurer. I don't propose to ask a cent for my work in helping the receivers.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

"I have never spent money in politics. In no campaign have I ever paid more than my assessment, $500, on the $5,000 salary of mayor. Some times I have not paid that much in cash, when the committee has allowed me a certain amount for the use of my tent. We have never been in debt at the end of the campaign but once.

"When I gave up active business affairs I did it because the requirements of my work did not square with my principles.

"I suppose I could have taken up a life of ease when I retired, had I wished. I was welcomed at the clubs. Fast horses, yachts and other amusements were open to me. For me, though, happiness lay in another direction.

"My only recreation has been automobile driving. I'd like to keep one of my automobiles, but I can't.

"Back in my prosperous days I gave the home on Euclid avenue to my wife. It is her's yet, and she will own it still, even though we can't afford to live in it.

"I don't feel discouraged. I am a free man, and that means a great deal to me. And I have my friends, too.

"Don't you suppose it will be worth something to me to have my friends realize that I entered the mayor's office rich and left poor? The realization of what all that means is worth more to me than the money I have lost.

WILL KEEP IN POLITICS.

"I am going to keep on just as I've started. I am going to be a candidate for mayor again this term."

The Municipal Traction company of which Mayor Johnson was treasurer passed into the hands of a receiver in the federal court several days ago. Following this came the transfer to two local banks of the Depositors' Savings and Trust company, of which the mayor was president. It is said this action was precipitated by the threats of Mr. Johnson's individual creditors to fight suits to obtain payment on notes indorsed by the mayor.

It is said Mr. Johnson has recently lost approximately $100,000 in connection with his interests at Loraine, O.

PRODUCE.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The local wheat market opened strong today with prices up 1/4 @ 1/2 @ 3/4, and after dipping on profit-taking again became strong on buying by many of yesterday's sellers. The principal demand was for December delivery, which was opening at 1.04 1/4, sold off to 1.03 1/4, and then advanced again to 1.04 1/4 @ 1.04 3/4.

Commission houses were active bidders for corn, and with limited offers the market displayed decided strength. December opened at 81 1/4 @ 83, and later sold at 81 1/4.

Cats were firm, because of the strength of wheat and corn. December opened at 1/2 @ 1/2, higher at 49 1/2 @ 49 3/4, and sold at 49 1/2.

Provisions opened easy owing to heavy receipts of live hogs here and at other western packing centers, but became firmer on buying by pit traders. Prices at the start were 2 1/2 lower to 5 1/2 higher.

Later the wheat market weakened again on selling by a leading elevator interest. December declining to 1.03 1/2. The market, however, quickly rallied again on covering by shorts. December advancing to 1.04 1/4, equalling yesterday's high mark for the season. The close was strong with December up 1/4 at 1.04 1/4.
