

SPRINGFIELD IS FULL OF TROOPS

Entire National Guard of Illinois. With Exception of Two Colored Regiments, There.

FURTHER TROUBLE LIKELY.

Rev. D. P. Roberts, Colored, Advises Negroes to Arm Themselves—Calls America Cowardly Nation.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 16.—With the arrival here today of the Second and Seventh infantry regiments, I. N. G., and two squadrons of the First cavalry, all from Chicago, the entire national guard of Illinois, with the exception of the Sixth infantry and the Eighth infantry, colored, was on duty in the riot-ridden districts tonight. In all 4,200 guardsmen are in the city. Two deaths due to the violence of Friday and Saturday occurred at St. John's hospital. William Donigan, the aged colored man, whose throat was cut last night, expired at 11 a. m. Frank Delmore, who was shot through the lungs on Friday night, passed away an hour later. This brings the list of violent deaths during the race troubles up to five.

A council of war was held at the capitol at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Gov. Deneen, Maj. Gen. Young, Adj. Gen. Scott, Gen. F. P. Wells and Col. J. B. Sanborn. At the meeting a plan was adopted which it is believed will render further demonstration improbable. Col. Sanborn was given command of a provisional brigade consisting of the First and Second infantry regiments with instructions to preserve the peace in the territory west of Seventh street.

The two regiments established headquarters on the capitol grounds in either tents bordering the state house on three sides. Gen. F. P. Wells was placed in command of a second provisional brigade, consisting of nine companies of the Fourth infantry, three companies of the Third infantry and 12 companies of the Fifth infantry. Gen. Wells, with headquarters at the capitol, immediately posted guards to cover the city east of Seventh street. Troops B and G, of the First cavalry, were detailed under Maj. Frank Bush at division headquarters, under command of Maj. Gen. Young.

At the conference in the governor's office this afternoon steps were taken to notify the negro residents of the suburban districts to come into the state arsenal for the night. The scattered settlements around the outskirts of the city present too great a field for even the big body of troops here now. It was the idea of the military authorities that the most effective work could be done with the danger spots restricted as much as possible.

Another factor in this connection was the large number of warnings of impending trouble. At all the principal stations word was received that attacks were being organized by the lawless elements who with a complete day rest were expected to make tonight a time of supreme test between the mob and the troops. Several complaints were received from nearby villages and hamlets of the district of threatening conditions.

A court of inquiry was summoned tonight to investigate the Kanakake affair. Its finding was that the soldier who stabbed Earl Nelson did so in self-defense and without violating military law. The authorities, however, did not announce the details of the investigation nor did they reveal the identity of the militiaman. The report the court was given to Col. Sanborn of the First regiment, and then transmitted to Gen. F. C. Young. Tonight Gen. Young is on the sick list and his aides declined to disturb him. The matter will ultimately reach the office of Adj. Gen. Scott. Alarms were more numerous this evening than on former nights.

In no single case, however, up to a late hour, was there any circumstance which compelled the use of force. A fire early in the evening at East Mason and Fourth streets, brought out the largest crowd, but it was composed of the curious and seekers and was handled easily. Three barrels were destroyed by fire which is supposed to have been started by mischievous boys. A special grand jury is to investigate the place to reinforce the troops tomorrow, according to announcement made tonight by State's Atty. Frank Hatch of Sangamon county. The scope of the inquiry will be wide and an effort will be made to fasten the responsibility for the disturbance upon certain individuals who are under suspicion.

The coroner's inquest over the bodies of Delmore and Donigan has been set for Tuesday. A genuine scare was caused at the headquarters in the arsenal tonight after a squad had been sent to disperse a crowd at Allen and Spring streets. Five minutes later in a report reached Lieut.-Col. Fiddy that shots had been fired in the threatened districts. He immediately sent a full platoon to the place to reinforce the troops. When the additional soldiers appeared, the crowd broke and ran. The soldiers pursued them for several blocks and the district, which is near the scene of last night's lynching, was in an uproar for a few minutes. The arsenal was crowded tonight with negro refugees from Springfield and surrounding towns. About 200 men, women and children sought shelter in this building and slept on the floor or in chairs.

NEGROES ADVISED TO ARM.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Five hundred members of the congregation of Quinn chapel, one of the leading negro churches in this city, were told by their pastor, Rev. D. P. Roberts, today, to arm themselves and be prepared to defend their homes in the event of an outbreak here similar to that at Springfield.

"Arm yourselves and be men," he said. "If a raging mob surrounds your home protect your household and when the man who would ruin your family and destroy your family steps across the threshold let him step across the body of a brave man."

He declared that America is a cowardly nation which, with power to defy the world, refused to grant protection to innocent and defenseless people 40 years from slavery, because of their color.

Talks with the congregation indicated that the negroes fear an outbreak in Chicago and are preparing for it. The chief of police, however, declares that the chance of a race war here is remote.

J. W. VAN CLEAVE MAKES REPLY TO W. J. BRYAN

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—James W. Van Cleave, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, today issued an answer to a recent reply by William J. Bryan to an article by Mr. Van Cleave a few weeks ago, which pointed out certain special reasons why, according to Mr. Van Cleave, business men should vote against Mr. Bryan. Speaking today, he says that the injunction, tariff and banking planks of the Denver platform assail the interests of every man in the country who is engaged in any sort of trade.

"The falsity of the insinuation in the Denver platform that labor unions are outlawed," Mr. Van Cleave says, "is shown by the fact that their members continue in their regular employment on every working day in the year in every town in the United States. Every member of the Lincoln Typographical union, at whose banquet he was a guest on the evening before his formal notification of nomination, could have told Mr. Bryan that there is not a vestige of truth in the pretense that any act of Congress ever forbade any labor union to organize, to ask such wages from employers as the union saw fit to ask, or to make any terms of employment which would be agreeable to both parties."

He then asks: "Does not Mr. Bryan, as a lawyer and a public man, know that his platform charges are false?" He tells Mr. Bryan that the National Association of Manufacturers, like the courts, has always recognized the right of the unions to get any terms from employers in which amicable agreement could be gained, but that the association always opposed the intimidation and violence which, he says, have sometimes been practiced by some of the unions. "Does he personally favor the legalization of the boycott?" Mr. Van Cleave asks, and he adds that the country is interested in getting a plain, direct answer from Mr. Bryan on this point, and in getting it just as quickly as he can give it.

Speaking of the guaranty fund which the Denver platform urges for the payment of depositors of insolvent national state banks, Mr. Van Cleave asks: "Does not Mr. Bryan know that this vicious provision would penalize the honest and careful banker for the benefit of the banker who is dishonest and reckless? Can he not see that this scheme would remove all the safeguards which our present laws have raised up against such plungers and grafters as have worked their way into the control of many of our banks; that it would immediately and immensely increase the number of such banks; and that it would precipitate an era of extravagance, wild speculation and corruption which would wreck our whole financial system? Is not Mr. Bryan aware that the wildcat banking scheme of 1903 would bring chaos and ruin to the country even quicker and in larger measure than his silver debasement of the currency of 1893 and 1900 would have brought it?"

DANIEL BOONE.

Body Disinterred and Reburied Not His Says Great Grandson.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—That the body of Daniel Boone was removed from Bryan cemetery near Martinsville, Mo., and re-interred at Frankfort, Ky., is denied by George N. Boone of Webster Groves, Mo., a great-grandson of the famous trapper, who discredits a statement made recently by Rev. R. E. McGuire of Montgomery, Mo., to the effect that the body disinterred was not Boone's.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES WILL FIGHT LEGISLATION

St. Paul, Aug. 16.—Three hundred railroad employees met in this city today to organize an association to fight legislation hostile to the railroad interests. The men are of the opinion that by standing by the railroads in their fight they will be benefiting themselves. It is the intention to support only those candidates in the coming elections who are favorable to the railroads and their employees.

AGUINALDO SEEKING MUNICIPAL OFFICE

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—Arrivals on the transport Buford, which docked today, state that the natives of the Philippine group are more content with conditions at present than they have ever shown themselves since the American occupation took place. This, too, in spite of hard times as a result of the failure of the rice crop.

The declaration that Aguinaldo, former insurgent leader, is seeking office in the city council of Manila, is believed by many Americans to be a good sign, as it indicates an interest on the part of the higher classes of the Filipinos in the present government that has never before been manifested.

Among the Buford's passengers were Capt. William Kelly, Ninth cavalry, and wife. Mrs. Kelly is a daughter of former Gov. Odell, of New York.

CRUISER COLORADO.

Will Take Several Weeks to Repair The Damage.

Bremerton, Wash., Aug. 17.—The cruiser Colorado will be detained at the navy-yard for several weeks, undergoing repairs for the damage suffered when she ran her nose on the shore at Lip-Lip Point Saturday morning. This fact was gathered from the examination of her hull made by divers yesterday.

It was found that the vessel had suffered little damage on the port side. The plates on the starboard side, however, for about 100 feet from the bow are badly dented. The rivets so sprung that some of the plates hang by the rivets and can be moved by pressure of the hand. Eight plates at least will have to be removed. The docking keel on the starboard side also is badly damaged and it is estimated that several weeks' work will be necessary to put the cruiser again in service.

UTES RETURNING TO THEIR RESERVATION

Washington, Aug. 16.—The officials of the Indian bureau are expecting soon to hear of the arrival at their old reservation in Utah of 400 renegade Ute Indians, who have spent the greater part of the last two years on the Sioux lands in South Dakota. The Utes started on the long march overland on July 20, and when last heard from had passed Fort Robinson, half way between starting and stopping points. At Robinson some of the Indians dropped out, and the bureau is now puzzled as to what to do with the stragglers.

They are going slowly over the journey of 600 miles, disturbing no one and attracting little attention. The Indians have manifested no disposition toward improper conduct. When they went away they said they were confident they could do better in the north, where game was more plentiful and supervision less rigid. On arrival they professed to be satisfied with their new homes and haughtily spurned overtures to return.

When, however, they found that game laws were as rigid in one state as in another, and especially when they discovered that they must work or starve, they seemed to experience a gradual change, and they have recently been insistent upon returning to their Utah lands.

The bureau is pleased with this turn of affairs and the only apprehension is regarding the reception the Indians will receive.

AUTO KILLS DEAF MUTE.

Cincinnati, Aug. 16.—Ignatz Wandrich, 41 years old, deaf mute, was instantly killed by an automobile driven by John Ryan, the well known turkman, at St. Mary's cemetery, in Lewisburg, on the outskirts of Covington, Ka., tonight.

COAL MINERS ON STRIKE.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 16.—Reports from the bituminous coal fields today indicate that the number of striking miners is now about 8,000 out of the 10,000 of the district. It is feared the strike will be a long one.

CRIME IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Aug. 16.—Boston and eastern Massachusetts is undergoing a "crime wave." Half a dozen murder mysteries are still unsolved by the police. The undeniable wave of crime is credited to the fact that many foreigners are out of work and are attempting to adopt the methods of European banditti.

RETIREMENT OF ADMIRAL EVANS

Tomorrow Night "Fighting Bob" Will Have Completed 48 Years Of Naval Service.

WAS APPOINTED FROM UTAH

Navy Will Lose One of Most Picturesque Figures That Ever Trod A Quarter-Deck.

Mohonk Lake, N. P., Aug. 16.—On Tuesday evening Rear Admiral Robley Evans, "Fighting Bob," will have completed 48 years of service in the United States navy, and being then at the age of 62 he will go on the retired list. The admiral, unable to use one foot because of the illness which compelled him to leave the fleet in San Francisco harbor—a reminder of the wound received at Fort Fisher, 43 years ago—has been mentally alert and vigorous, is at his family, spending the summer at the Lake Mohonk house, where he has been for the last several years.

The guests of the hotel are planning a celebration befitting the official close of a remarkable career. Elaborate exercises have been planned. J. Edward Simmons, president of the New York chamber of commerce, will preside and deliver an address, and Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education of the state of New York, on behalf of the guests, will present to Admiral Evans a magnificent loving cup, provided by popular subscriptions. Letters from the president of the United States, many admirals of the navy and other distinguished men will be read.

In the harbor, where the exercises will be held, will be the flag, one the flag that floated over the Iowa when that vessel under the command of Admiral Evans, took part in the battle of Manila; the other, the flag of the Connecticut, under which the admiral made the voyage from Hampton Roads to San Francisco.

Among those expected to do honor to the host of the occasion are: Gov. Hughes, distinguished naval and army officers, and many other prominent men.

HIS CAREER.

Washington, Aug. 16.—With the retirement from active service next Tuesday of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans—"Fighting Bob,"—the United States navy loses one of the most picturesque figures that ever trod a quarter-deck. Forty-five years ago, Evans, as a young ensign, received his baptism of fire at Fort Fisher during the Civil war.

It has been his fortune to command the greatest fleet of fighting ships ever assembled under the American flag, and many of his countrymen still are hopeful that Congress will honor him by creating him a vice admiral, a rank second only to that of the Manila bay hero, Admiral Dewey.

"Fighting Bob," was born in Floyd county, Virginia, Aug. 13, 1846. 62 years ago; he came to Washington at the age of 11 to live with his uncle, a newspaper man, upon the death of his father, Dr. Samuel Andrew Jackson Evans.

Securing an appointment to the naval academy from the territory of Utah, he entered that institution Sept. 15, 1860. When war broke out between the states, his mother, assuming that he would take arms for his state against his country, sent in his resignation to Washington, and it was promptly accepted. Young Evans was determined, however, to stand by the Union, even against his own family, and had him-task of dressing the injured member. She remarked at the time that the sight made her feel faint and queer. She rushed up stairs to her room and in a few seconds the members of the family heard the sound of a fall. They found Mrs. Howie unconscious on the floor. Physicians were summoned but they failed to revive her. It is thought that concussion of the brain was the cause of her death.

A STORMY VOYAGE.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Capt. G. A. Neilson, a sturdy, Danish skipper, yesterday brought to an anchorage off Chicago, Staten Island, his bark, the Emile, scuttled from her encounter with the recent West Indian hurricane and nearer a wreck than any vessel that has come through the narrows in the last 10 years. A stump of a foremast, from which a single yard arm seemed barely hanging jury-rigged mizzenmast and the bowsprit and jibboom were all that was left of the towering masts and spars with their maze of rigging that were swept from the bark in an hour's time on the afternoon of Aug. 15. Capt. Neilson came on shore to bargain for spars that would enable the Emile to go on to Havre, France, with her cargo of mahogany logs. Below decks the bark is as tight as the day she was built.

TURKISH WAR MINISTER DIES.

Constantinople, Aug. 16.—The cabinet suffered a great loss today in the sudden death of the war minister, Redif Pasha, from heart disease.

The governmental program, which occupies more than two columns of the newspapers, is published today. Its content, and includes a declaration that all laws and regulations not compatible with the new regime will be annulled, that the army and navy and all government directors will be reorganized, that non-Muslims will be eligible for military service. The program promises that commercial treaties will be renewed and the best relations cultivated with all the powers.

The ports are requested through the American ambassador, John G. Leishman, the approval by the United States government of the appointment of Hussein Klazin Bey, the present Turkish minister at Bucharest, as ambassador at Washington.

The situation on the Turko-Persian frontier is again alarming, owing to forward movement of the imperial troops, provoked by the chaotic conditions prevailing in the Persian districts.
