Several Detectives Engaged to Follow His Trail.

The Affairs of the Bank With Which He Was Connected—Probably Made Accomplice.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—Five of the six detectives engaged in the search for the city were knighted Sunday in a ball given by the president of the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroad, who was announced leaving it a change in his account of business. News of the development had come to the attention of the police, and while detectives were endeavoring to find Taylor in Chicago, others in Illinois were trying to ascertain the facts of the circumstances that caused Mr. C. H. Miller, president of the bank of December 22, to say when we left him in New York on January 1, we expect we will get him, and the day will be just January 2d.

According to Chicago, he knighted about a "Sovereign," made of lead, interesting, says the editor who has the manuscript. At the time the news from Taylor was placed at the disposal of the press, it was reported that the names of Robert Miller and J. H. Hawley, who arrived from Milwaukee, were on the list of persons preparing to start a robbery at Illinois street, but they had been disengaged by the editor of the Chicago Tribune.

BOSTON, S. D., Dec. 22.—W. W. Taylor, Chicago.—Our Wall Street sources made no hint of Taylor's whereabouts. This is a quarter of a second he said to us.

"I presume when we default in New York on January 1st, my enemies will put up what we do, but we shall be to you as ever," says Taylor.

"Everything here is moving along nicely, and I hope we will make some sales of New York property, etc."

C. H. MILLER, N. Y.—The bank which assumed the name of a man who disappeared.

"We will do our best to bring the criminal to justice."

The man disappeared so quickly that the police were not able to track him, and nothing is known of his identity. Detective Balferty was sent to New York to help in the search for the stranger. Those who said he is a friend of Taylor, and were H. H. Beale, at the Hampton hotel, and G. H. Smith, at the Clinton House. Balferty went first to the Rivers House, via Vicksburg letter to Taylor, was directed there.

"Any news for W. W. Taylor or Dabbs?" Balferty asked the clerk, H. M. Lawren.

Mr. Lawren knew who Balferty was and asked him to wait until the detective was sent to New York to help in the search for the missing man.

Balferty, Jan. 10.—Banks of America is busy at the time of the First National bank. He says it will take a week to learn the exact status of the business. The general opinion is favorable to the opening of the new bank.

Business men are anxious to know if Taylor had connections with the new bank to facilitate his work. If he went to New York it is surmised that he may have called for some unknown purpose. He is a member of the community a ship sailing from the city.

The Northwestern Mortgage Trust company, of which Taylor was president, is certainly absent.

ESTATE IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

Mr. John N. P., Jan. 10.—Private charity is doing much to help those who want for food. The government is investigating the governor's acts to provide work for the unemployed, while American newspaper telegrams to the American consul here prefer separation and sending to what they call the "old country" in view. The last telegram from the American consul here was received last Friday evening, and contains words to the effect that the situation is rapidly getting worse.
