OGDEN'S NEW THEATER OPENS TONIGHT

Judge A. R. Heywood Will Officiate at Dedication of Amusement House.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Judge A. R. Heywood, president of the Weber club, will formally dedicate the new Ogden theater to the amusement loving public tonight at the end of the first act of John Cort's production, "Commencement Days." The judge is well known as a speaker for rare occasions and will, no doubt, do full justice to the situation. Great interest is being taken in the opening of the new playhouse as this is the first time for many years that a new theater has been formally opened in Ogden.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Funeral services over the remains of Henry Kow were held Sunday afternoon at the Larkin funeral chapel, Bishop C. E. Peterson presiding. The speakers were G. B. Denkers, Henry Denkers, Elder Forgesen, and Bishop Peterson. Appropriate music was rendered. Interment was made in the city cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Cornelia Raat were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fourth ward meetinghouse, Elder Charles E. Peterson, presiding. Orson Griffin and Miss Maggie Saunders rendered some appropriate duets and solos. The speakers were Everett Neutomb, Henry Denkers, G. B. Denkers and W. Deleborne. Interment was made in the city cemetery.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Clara Richardson, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, died at the family residence 238 Adams avenue Saturday night at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be held at Larkin's funeral chapel on Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Rev. Noble E. Elderkin officiating.

DAMAGE CLAIM SETTLED.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—The claim of $18,000 of W. N. Wolf against the Union Pacific Railroad company has been settled. Mr. Wolf, who is county treasurer at Evanston, Wyo., met with an accident at Ogden, Utah, about three years ago and had both feet cut off. At the first trial the jury awarded him the sum of $20,000, the amount asked for in the complaint. The railroad company was granted a new trial and the jury returned a verdict for half the amount of the verdict of the first jury. Rather than risk another trial the claim was settled for $9,000.

THRILLING RUNAWAY ON TWENTY-FIFTH STREET

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Quite a commotion was caused Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock when two drunken Greeks became engaged in a fight on lower Twenty-fifth street and one of them, falling under the hoofs of a spirited team hitched to a light cutter, frightened the horses and caused a runaway. The team plunged madly up Twenty-fifth street to Lincoln avenue where it collided with a cutter driven by John Hortense, who was thrown into the snow, but was not hurt. Continuing to Grant avenue, one of the frightened horses slipped and fell on the edge of the sidewalk. A crowd soon gathered and the animals were brought to a stop. The horses were badly cut and bruised and the cutter was completely demolished.

WILL BE SENT TO BROTHER.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—A brother of William R. Day, the demented young railroad man who recently tried to enter the private apartments of Mrs. E. C. Manson at the Union depot, has telegraphed the sheriff and arrangements will probably be made to have the unfortunate man sent to him at Knoxville, Tenn.

OGDEN POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Jalman Anderson was given five days straight for drunkenness in police court Saturday morning. The court decided that Anderson would need about that length of time in which to sober up. Frank Wilson, arraigned on a similar charge, was sentenced to five days or an equal number of dollars.

Frank Hannon was dismissed, there not being sufficient evidence to convict him on the charge of disturbing the peace.

The bail of Harold Blake, amounting to $10, was forfeited as he failed to appear in court. He was charged with leaving a horse standing on the street for several hours without food or shelter.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—George Parker, engineer in charge of the construction work of the Utah Light & Railway company in Weber canyon, who accidentally shot himself in the right leg about two weeks ago, is improving rapidly. Mr. Parker was returning to his camp after dark and slipped on the ice, causing a revolver which he was carrying to discharge. The shot entered the fleshy part of his right leg just below the hip and came out about 12 inches lower down. No serious results will follow.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

OGDEN, Dec. 13.—Marriage licenses were issued to the following parties by county clerk S. G. Dye on Saturday afternoon:

Joseph Sidney of Salt Lake and Annie Louise Aberg of Minneapolis, Minn.; Lewis B. Stewart and Flossie M. Craig, both of Ogden.

OGDEN BRIEFS.

William Van Allen has severed his connections with the Wasatch Orchard company to take effect Jan. 1. Mr. Van Allen has held the position of manager of this company for the past eight years and is thoroughly acquainted with the fruit and canning business. He will devote his time to the Banner Canning company of which he is president and general manager. No successor has been appointed to manage the Wasatch company.

Charged with a statutory offense against Elizabeth Allen, a 14-year-old school girl, W. S. Hall was arraigned at Garland Saturday before Justice of the Peace Burdette Smith. The matter was taken under advisement.

While driving across the Union Pacific railroad tracks at Utah on Saturday, John A. Findley, a farmer from Layton, was struck by a freight engine, killing the horses. Findley was thrown into a snow drift and escaped injury.

A special train bearing the body of George Crocker, accompanied by his brother, William Crocker, passed through Ogden Saturday afternoon, en route for San Francisco, where the funeral will be held. Mr. Crocker died recently in New York.

RECORD BREAKING SNOWSTORM IN SANPETE

(Special Correspondence.)

SPRING CITY, Utah, Dec. 9.—The snow storm of the past week is a record breaker for Sanpete. It is a long time since so much snow has fallen this early in the season. The farmers, stock raisers, and sheep owners are pleased with the outlook brought about by the storm.

Architect R. C. Watkins is preparing plans for the interior finishing of the meetinghouse. Work is being done to complete the building during the coming year.

NEW QUORUM OF SEVENTY AT PROVO

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, Dec. 13.—Elder B. H. Roberts was here yesterday for the purpose of dividing the Thirty-fourth quorum of seventy. A new quorum was organized, numbered the One Hundred and Fifty-sixth. This quorum will cover the Sixth and Second wards, and the Thirty-fourth quorum will cover the First ward. Elder William D. Roberts, who has labored faithfully as the first president of the Thirty-fourth quorum for many years, was honorably released with a vote of thanks for the reason that enfeebled health prevents him from giving the necessary attention to the duties of the quorum.

The following officers were appointed: Thirty-fourth quorum, Joseph F. Giles, D. H. Thomas, J. C. Andersen, J. G. Duffin, Albert Jones, R. Leo Bird, John Foote, presidents; David O. Jensen, secretary. One Hundred and Fifty-sixth quorum, E. C. Henriksen, A. F. Ahlander, William J. Startup, Ole E. Olsen, Jr., Joseph Nelson, Milton W. Knudsen and David Johnson, presidents; O. W. Hyde, secretary.

BURGLARY FRUSTRATED.

PROVO, Dec. 13.—Three men tried to burglarize the safe of the Central Lumber company Friday night. They were discovered by Frank Ward who called the police, and at the same time, went after a shotgun. Officers Snow and Martin responded promptly, but were unable to capture the burglars. The doors of the safe were badly damaged, but the intruders were surprised in time to prevent any valuables being taken.

JUVENILE COURT REPORT.

PROVO, Dec. 13.—A. A. Noon, judge, and B. F. Roper, clerk of the county juvenile court, have made their annual report which shows 698 boys and 28 girls delinquents, examined in 1909, against 544 boys and 26 girls in 1908. Fifty-eight complaints were filed and $117.35 assessed in fines last year against $76.35 this year.

The officers strongly urge the necessity for a detention home, and the county commissioners are endeavoring to fix such a place up temporarily in the county infirmary. Delinquents whom it is considered best to temporarily deprive of their liberty and at the same time give some good advice, will be taken there in preference to taking them to the industrial school.

DUVANEY ET AL SENTENCED.

PROVO, Dec. 13.—Sam Duvaney and J. W. Bradshaw, who were arrested here for vagrancy last week and who were taken to Salt Lake, where the officers believed they were wanted for burglary, have been brought back to Provo, as it was found that the Salt Lake officers could make no case against them. Here they were given five days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. The principal thing that caused the Salt Lake officers to believe the men were wanted there was the possession of a watch by Bradshaw, which was engraved with the inscription "Blanche Hoagland, from Papa, 12-12," but the officers were unable to prove that the strangers did not have a right to the watch. The two men, however, well supplied with weapons of various kinds, and on that charge they were held by City Marshal Williams.

PROVO NEWS NOTES.

Bryant Thomas, who was serving a six months' sentence in the county jail for obtaining money under false pretenses and took French leave in October, has been brought back from Thistle. He has been in California since he left Provo, and was on his way to Denver when he was arrested.

Samuel W. Gadd, who has been working at the Exchange lunch counter, is under arrest on the charge of taking $3 from the establishment. He was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

A transcript of judgment from the Seventh district court has been filed in the district court in the case of O. B. Berglund vs. Jos. S. Beck. Plaintiff has been given judgment for $391.49.

NEW POOL AND BILLIARD ORDINANCE FOR KAYSVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)

KAYSVILLE, Utah, Dec. 10.—A pool and billiard ordinance has just been adopted by the Kaysville city council, raising the license to $40 per person for one year, restricting those under 18 from entering pool or billiard halls and making the closing hour 10 o'clock p. m. The selling of soft drinks, candies, etc., is prohibited in the hall, and allowing no other game than that of billiards to be played in the hall.

KAYSVILLE BRIEFS.

A gymnasium is being agitated here and it is expected that an association will be organized soon.

Pearl Flint and Melvin Hill were united in marriage by Bishop H. H. Blood last evening.

A carload of cement has been received preparatory to the construction of the headhouse for the Kaysville waterworks system.

Mrs. John W. Galley went under an operation at the Kaysville hospital yesterday afternoon.

Mr. C. E. Jensen was arrested for selling liquor after closing hours. He pleaded guilty before Justice Galley and was fined $50.

CONDUCTOR WALTER WOOD KILLED AT BINGHAM

(Special Correspondence.)

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 12.—Walter Ward, a resident of this place for eight years, and a conductor in charge of a switching crew of the Denver & Rio Grande railway, was caught between the couplers of two box cars here today and instantly killed. He was 29 years of age, and leaves a widow and one child, a daughter 4 years of age. His widow is the daughter of Judge George E. Lee, one of the pioneers of the camp. Ward was born in Tennessee. He has a brother living in Bingham.

SERIOUS STABBING AFFRAY.

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 12.—During a drunken brawl early Saturday morning William Newton, Frank Mills and James Driscoll, were seriously stabbed by two Austrians, Stetney Solakoz and Dan Stetlice, who are now in the Salt Lake county jail awaiting the outcome of the affair, as one of the injured men Mills, may not recover. The three Americans, so it is claimed, had been making the rounds of saloons, when they met Solakoz and Stetlice on the road and commenced quarreling. The Austrians say the Americans called them bad names, which started a free-for-all fight, in which clubs, knives and fists were used with the result stated.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MARY HAMMOND AT GRANTSVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)

GRANTSVILLE, Dec. 10.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Brown Hammond was held in the world meetinghouse last Thursday afternoon. The principal speakers were J. L. Wrathall, S. E. Volley, Henry Haynes, A. K. Anderson, central, eulogizing the over-act character of the departed. The deceased was born in Grantsville June 21, 1880, and died Dec. 7, 1909, of tuberculosis, being 29 years old.

ROBBED IN SALT LAKE.

MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 12.—F. C. Jensen of Mt. Pleasant, reports that while in Salt Lake City last week he was robbed of an expensive watch. He had just laid it over a chair in the lobby of the Cullen hotel, while using the telephone, when he returned it was gone. He was crowded and no one noticed the robbery.

DEATH OF C. G. BJELKE.

MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 12.—C. G. Bjelke, an aged resident of Mt. Pleasant, passed from this life, Thursday, Dec. 9, of old age and general debility. He had lived till Monday next he would have been 86 years of age.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 12.—The funeral of Carl G. Bjelke was held Saturday at 1 p. m. from family residence. Deceased was born in Sweden, Dec. 13, 1822. He emigrated to Utah in 1861, crossed the plains with an ox team in Capt. Murdoch's company. After residing in Salt Lake City one year he came to Mt. Pleasant where he lived until his death, which occurred Dec. 9, of old age and general debility. He leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. G. W. Bran, Axel Bjelke and Oscar Bjelke.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Thompson was held in the Fountain Green meetinghouse, Tuesday, Dec. 7, 1909.

Deceased was native of Denmark, having come to Utah about 20 years ago. She first settled in Salt Lake City, later going to Fountain Green.

MT. PLEASANT BRIEFS.

Already winter fed lambs are leaving Mt. Pleasant for California. Seven hundred head, weighing, each, from 50 to 82, and bringing 6 cents a pound, left here last week for Los Angeles.

This week's snowstorm has been one of the heaviest for this time of the year in a long time. Old settlers say it is a regular winter of the '60s order.

It is still snowing, there being now several feet now of the beautiful and sleigh bells are merrily tinkling amid the clattering voices of the young people, and it appears that winter has come in dead earnest and to stay.

OPENING OF NEW THEATER AND ARMORY AT MANTI

(Special Correspondence.)

MANTI, Dec. 10.—Wednesday evening was the opening of the Manti Theater which has just been completed at a cost of $35,000. One hundred stockholders, all local capitalists, interested in the welfare of this new enterprise, it is one of the finest buildings of the kind in the state. The building proper is 215x52 feet and part of it will be the home of Company E. N. G. U. The state has contracted with the theater company to rent a portion of the house at $100 per month for a period of 10 years. The drill hall, which will also be used for dancing purposes, has a coil spring floor 60x30 feet. The armory will have most handsome rooms for all officers and enlisted men, locker and store rooms, shower and steam-baths, and state militia officers say that it will be one of the best equipped.

FATAL RUNAWAY ACCIDENT AT RICHMOND

(Special Correspondence.)

RICHMOND, Utah, Dec. 9.—A very disastrous accident occurred here on Friday, Dec. 3, when Raymond J. Thompson, son of William and Mary Thompson, was so seriously injured in a runaway that he died on Saturday, Dec. 4, at 4 p. m. He was engaged in hauling poles for the High Creek Electric Light company. He was trotting along a State street near the company's office when the team became frightened at a large reel being used by employees of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company and ran away, colliding with a pole. Young Thompson was thrown to the front of the bob-sleigh, where he received internal injuries, which resulted in his death. He was born in Richmond, June 21, 1881. He has attended the district school, graduated from the eighth grade and high school, and B. V. college last year. His life has been an ideal one being a lovable and dutiful son. He had a very promising future for a career of usefulness. The funeral was held in the meetinghouse on Tuesday, Dec. 7. Elders Andrew Morrison, Leo Shepard, C. Z. Harris, Wm. L. Skidmore, Bishop T. H. Merrill and Hyrum Richards were the speakers. Beautiful music was rendered by the choir and others.
