J.D. CARRVLL SHOT AT ELKO, NEVADA

Details of the Killing of an Ogden Traveling Man by a Woman.

OGDEN, Nov. 2.-The Elko, Nev. Star gives the following details of the shooting in that city last Tuesday of J. D. Carroll, who represents an Ogden house in Nevada:

J. D. Carroll, well known in Winnemucca and Golconds, was shot and killed by a woman of the balf world known as Birdle DeRacy in Elko Tuesday night. After being shot Car-roll staggered into the Elk saloon, blood gushing from his mouth, fell to the floor and died. Considerable mys-

the floor and died. Considerable mystery surrounds the murder.

About twenty-five minutes before the shot was fired a woman entered the Elk wineroom and rang the bell. The burtender answered the bell and took the woman's order. She also told him that she wished to see Mr. Carroll. The bartender delivered the message and Mr. Carroll went back to the wineroom. This was the last seen of him until he staggered into the barroom.

The shot was fired from the outside near the corner of the winercom and the alley running back of the Engler company's store. Carroll had evidently turned to leave the woman as the bullet entered his back, just below the left shoulder blade and passed through the body, lodging under the skin nearly over the heart. After he was shot. Carroll walked about 55 or 69 feet, opened an outside screen door and the inner door of the barroom before he fell. The bullet evidently pierced his lungs as he bled copiously from the mouth.

After the shooting the woman en-tered the saloon, surrendered her pistol, and gave herself up to an officer. She purchased the pistol the afternoon of the shooting. The only statement the woman would make was that the shoot-ing was accidental.

At the coroner's inquest, held the next day, there was no evidence to connect the woman with the killing and the jury returned a verdict that Carroll had been shot by some per-

Carroll had been shot by some person unknown.

The deceased was a native of Utah, 42 years of age and leaves a mother, Mrs. Dusang of Battle Mountain, a write and daughter. He was for many years a resident of Battle Mountain, but of recent years has lived in Elko. He was in Winnenusca about a week age on a business trip.

A complaint has been sworn out

A complaint has been sworn out charging Birdie DeRacy with the killing. She is said to have been born in Lovelock and to be a daughter of Eva Hay, a woman who has been sent to the insane asylum a number of times from

MAPLETON QUARANTINED AGAINST SMALLPOX

(Special Correspondence) MAPLETON, Utah Co., Oct. 31.—On account of the close proximity of this town to Springville and the fact that several local people have been exposed to the smallpox, a general mass incet-ing was called Thursday evening, when the people voted to close all public gatherings, schools, socials, etc., for a period of two weeks. This was thought by some to be unnecessary, as no eases had developed here, but the wisdom of it was seen today when Miss Sadie Mendenhall, a clerk in the store, came down with the dread disease. It is redown with the dread disease. It is re-grettable that the band members as-sembled and held practise last evening after the quarantine had been declared. Miss Mendenhall's brother being pres-

Spectacular Chase After Fleeing Crimtual by Officer in Automobile.

(Special Correspondence.)

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 31.-James Lanham, a prisoner at the county jail, made a spectacular attempt to escape last evening, but was captured after an exciting chase by deputies in at automobile. While working in the jail yard under Beputy Sheriff School Lankam auddenly vaulted the rear fence and made a dush down the alloy through West Cheyenne. School fired several shots at the fleeing man to make him stop, but Lanham only watved his hat at the officer and continued his speed. Deputy Carroll appeared in the yard and took charge of the officer while school. of the other prisoners while School who is an athlete, started in pursuit. Lanham had secured a good start, how-ever, and was well out of the city before Schoel again came close. In the meantime Deputy Carroll had locked the prisoners in their cells and procuring an automobile started after School and the escaping prisoner. School overhauled Lanham near Camp Cariln, and after a fierce hand to hand struggie, during which Schoel broke one of his hands and badly injured the one of his hands and badly injured the other in knocking Lanham down, the prisoner was overcome. As Deputy Carroll drove up in the automobile. Schoel sank to the ground exhausted from his run and fight. Lanham was returned to jail. A few weeks ago he was arrested on a charge of forgery, but before submitting to arrest he fixed several shots at the officers.
