

LYNCH LAW MUST BE ABOLISHED.

Pres. Declares it is His Duty and
That of Everyone in Authority
To Drive Out the Reproach.

SENTIMENT LOUDLY CHEERED.

People of Arkansas Gave Him a Great
Welcome—Escort Consisted of Ex-
Northern and Southern Soldiers.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt spent seven crowded hours in and around Little Rock today, and his journey from Fort Logan H. Root, in the Rock, on the north side of the Arkansas river, to the city park in Little Rock, was marked by enthusiastic demonstrations of welcome on the part of thousands of people appearing on the streets for the occasion. While in Little Rock the president delivered two speeches, in one of which he denounced lynching, and in doing so elicited hearty applause.

After inspecting Fort Logan H. Root, where the party was escorted from the special train, the president and his traveling companions were taken in a motorcade through the city of Arkansas, where he was liberally cheered along the route. Crossing the river, the party proceeded through the heart of Little Rock on Main street. The president, standing in his carriage, was kept busy acknowledging the cordial greetings from the great throng of people.

At the city park the crowd that gathered to participate in the formal welcome was conservatively estimated at 10,000.

After the exercises and the president's address the party was taken to the Albert Scott Pike Scottish Rite cemetery, where a luncheon was given to the president. This function was concluded at 3:30 p. m. and the visitors then repaired to the special train in waiting at the Rock Island station to convey Jefferson Davis was the first to greet the president when the latter left the train at the foot of Big Rock. A reception committee, which included United States Senators James H. Berry and James P. Clarke, Mayor W. E. Smith and 20 other prominent citizens, joined with the governor in welcoming the chief executive and his party.

Carriages were then taken and within 15 minutes Fort Logan H. Root, on the summit of the Big Rock, overlooking the city of Little Rock, was reached. Here a salute of 21 guns was fired, and the president, after inspecting the buildings and grounds and the mission, companies A and F, Thirtieth United States Infantry, spent half an hour in the officers' quarters as the guest of Lieut.-Col. A. C. Sharpe, commandant, and the other officers of the post.

An impressive incident followed the president's exit from the officers' quarters. The guard of honor, composed of 12 Union army veterans, headed by Col. A. S. Fowler, and 12 former Confederate soldiers, headed by former Gov. Dan W. Jones, had met the presidential party and accompanied it to the army post. They rode in pairs, each former Confederate by the side of a federal army veteran.

As the president was being escorted to his carriage for the journey from Fort Logan H. Root to the city, he left these accompanying him and walked to where the guard of honor stood. Each of the soldiers was given a handshake and a verbal greeting by the president, who had remarked on approaching the group, "Gentlemen, it does me good to see the blue and the gray riding together." He called each veteran "Comrade."

As the presidential party reached the river bridge the foot of the mile whistles was the signal for cheering on the Little Rock side. The city's principal thoroughfare, Main street, was picture-book with its decorations of flags and bunting, and the great outpouring of people was evidence that the cloudiness and cool weather could not interfere with the warm popular welcome. From all parts of Arkansas people had come to greet the president. As the party entered the city park under an arch bearing the inscription, "Little Rock Greets You," 12 white doves were liberated in the apex of the arch, directly over the president's carriage. The doves caused great cheering and the president smiled his approval.

The exercises at the city park opened promptly at 11:30 a. m. Gov. Davis delivered an address of welcome in which he drew a word picture of the resources of Arkansas, touched lightly upon the race question and assured the president the people of Arkansas were glad to have him among them. The governor's tribute to the president was applauded by the president. When reference was made by Gov. Davis to the famous "rebel yell," the proceedings were interrupted by a manifest desire on the part of many in the crowd to give a semblance of this yell. The president seemed pleased with the effort.

The president's opening words, "Fel-

Head and Body.

CURED IN WEEK BY CUTICURA

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of sores, and my body was covered with sores. I cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week. low Americans," produced a renewal of the demonstration of welcome occurring as he was presented. His utterances were followed closely by the large audience, and at intervals he had to descend from the train to shake hands with their approbation of his remarks. When he declared that the menace and reproach of lynch law should be driven out of the United States there was much cheering.

A large portion of the president's audience was composed of negroes, and the chief executive's words pertaining to lynching were apparently deeply impressive upon them. The president's declaration that "if a president is worth his salt he's the president of the whole country," was given so earnestly that it speedily drew forth plaudits from the assembled thousands. The president said in part:

"The worst enemy of the negro race is the negro criminal and above all the criminal of the hideous type so often heinously avenged. Every reputable colored man owes the duty to himself and to his race to hunt down that criminal. Now, as to the white man's side:

"Now, to anyone, one hideous crime by which it is to reduce the negroer to the bestial level. Another thing which makes this lynch law so abhorrent is that three-fourths of the crimes for which it is invoked are for others than that against the person of the country. Governor, you and I and all others in authority, owe it to our people to drive out the reproach and the menace of lynch law in the United States."

The exercises at the city park were brought to a close at 12:30 p. m. and the presidential party was then escorted through streets densely packed with cheering men, women and children to the Albert Scott Pike cemetery, where the luncheon was given, beginning at 2 p. m. One hundred representative men of the state sat at the tables and several hundred others occupied balconies overlooking the scene. At President Roosevelt's right sat Lieut.-Gov. John P. Lee, United States Senator Berry and Clarke and Gen. Powell Clayton, former United States ambassador to Mexico, were among those occupying seats of honor.

Judge U. M. Rose of this city, former president of the American Bar association, was presented by the toastmaster, President Rogers of the board of trade, to deliver the opening address. "The President of the United States," in his address Judge Rose said that President Roosevelt had proved himself the president of every loyal party, his administration was the protection of the American flag. The president himself led in the applause which greeted the remarks.

The president sat down to a great ovation as he rose to respond. He spoke briefly.

As the president sat down the curtain back of where he was stationed ascended and a tableau was presented. Twenty-five boys, ranging in age from 8 to 12, each attired in a sailor suit, formed a group at once attractive and impressive. The spectacle won the president's heart, and he gave an unmistakable sign of his pleasure. He arose and said that he grieved all his auditors knew how he felt about the navy of the United States.

"The navy of our country," he said, "was the United States' 'big stick,' which would never be used against the weak unless the weak put themselves in a position, when, like a bad child, chastisement was necessary. He added that the president should be kept in such attention that the necessity for its use against the strong would never arise.

At 3:30 the presidential party began the trip to the Rock Island railroad station along a route which was lined with people. The special train left for Memphis promptly at 4 o'clock.

STOPS AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt and his party arrived here tonight at 8:30. The president's itinerary did not include a stop here longer than was necessary to switch his cars to the Illinois Central. The original program was that he would proceed at once to New Orleans. These plans were somewhat modified when a large crowd of citizens appeared at the Calhoun street depot and loudly cheered the president and called upon him for a speech.

The president acknowledged these greetings and proceeded to a hastily improvised stand, from which he made a short address, dwelling upon what constituted good citizenship.

police were getting decidedly the worst of the battle, the bluecoats drew their revolvers and fired several shots. This brought the students to their senses and they ran in all directions, but the police succeeded in making 15 captures.

All the students here signs of the riot in their new garments, and a number of them suffered severe cuts about their heads and faces from the punishment administered by the police.

An investigation has been begun by the faculty and the ringleaders of the disturbance will be punished.

W. C. T. U. MEMBERS ARE AFTER THE POST EXCHANGES

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 25.—Two subjects of consequence are slated for discussion and probably radical action by the national convention of the W. C. T. U., which convenes in this city Friday next. These are the questions of the sale of patent medicines containing a high percentage of alcohol, and the matter of the alleged misuse of the "post exchanges," the name of army post substitutes for the canton.

In the opinion of several leading women among the delegates the post exchange has not proved the success that was hoped for or intended. It is charged that at many army posts the officers have appropriated the post exchanges as a sort of officers' club to the exclusion of the common soldier, causing dissatisfaction among the rank and file and producing wholly unsatisfactory conditions.

The post exchange was originally urged by the W. C. T. U. as a substitute for the canton, and a place where the common soldier might secure recreation and amusement without the objectionable features of the canton.

Mrs. Ella M. Thatcher, national superintendent of the W. C. T. U., among others, is here to bring the matter before the convention and present resolutions calling for some radical action.

Mrs. Martha M. Allen, superintendent of the non-narcotic department, will lead the fight against the alcoholic patent medicines.

The delegates are spending the time preliminary to the opening of the convention in visiting the various points of interest in and about Los Angeles.

YOUNG COURT-MARSHAL.

It is Closed and That of Ensign Wade is Soon to Begin.

Marine Island, Cal., Oct. 25.—For an hour and a half this morning Capt. E. West addressed the naval court trying Commander Lucien Young, his argument for the prosecution bringing the trial to a close shortly before noon. He pointed out the numerous errors of law and fact, where the defendant, Young, knew the boilers were in poor condition, and Ensign Wade had not had previous experience in the engineering department, there was a lax state of discipline. The captain should have had papers to show that he had made frequent inspections.

The court will meet in closed session later and when a finding shall have been reached the case of Ensign G. Wade will be taken up, probably on Friday morning.

NORWEGIAN CROWN.

Government Wants Full Power To Negotiate With Charles.

Christiania, Norway, Oct. 25.—The government at a secret session of the storting today asked to be endowed with full power to negotiate with Prince Charles of Denmark for his acceptance of the crown of Norway on the understanding that the people of Norway endorse the decision of the storting and the government by a referendum similar to that taken Aug. 13 on the question of the dissolution of the union. The debate was postponed until Friday.

LAND OFFICE RECEIVERS.

Secy. of Interior Hitchcock Says That They Are Useless.

Washington, Oct. 25.—In speaking today of his determination to recommend to congress the abolition of the land office receivers now held by land office receivers whose salaries aggregate an annual expenditure of $250,000 to the government, Secy. Hitchcock said:

"Under the law no application for settlement on the public lands can be heard unless both receiver and recorder are present and sitting as a court. If one happens to be sick or indisposed or absent, the application for hearing must await his return. Furthermore, both registrar and receiver must agree in their findings in order to constitute a court. Sometimes they disagree and refer the case to the general land office."

"Such in brief is the public land system that has been in vogue in the United States for years. It is cumbersome, unwieldy and expensive. The registrar can perform his own work and that of the receiver with very little trouble while the saving in time, paper and ink effected by doing away with a court consisting of two persons, by reducing it to one person will not only be great benefit to intending settlers, but what is more, it will save money and time to the government."

Indicted in Federal Court.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 25.—The federal grand jury today returned indictments in the cases of the following, who were charged with perjury in connection with the naturalization frauds:

Hans Mortensen, Christian Johansen, Julius Svensen and Andrew Thomsen. David Houk and J. W. Dugan were each held in $1,000 bail for six and eight months, and held in $1,000 bail. William Green, alias William Brown, was held in $1,000 for having in his possession and attempting to pass $1 silver certificates raised to $20.

AN INSANE MOB.

Misunderstood an Automobile's Kindness and Wanted to Lynch.

Los Angeles (Cal.), Oct. 25.—Mrs. Thompson, of this city, was severely injured in hitting from a street car last night that death resulted, and William R. Russ, a policeman, for an automobile being concerned in the matter, was charged with the crime of manslaughter in the death of the woman. At 10 o'clock last night Mrs. Thompson, who was driving a car, was in motion, was thrown violently to the pavement and seriously hurt.

Immediately following the accident Russ, driving an automobile, rounded the corner and comprehending the situation, he stopped the car and got out. He lifted the woman into his machine and started for a physician's office. At that time a mob of about 200 persons who misinterpreted the motive of the latter's kindness in removing the crippled woman to her home.

THE ENTERPRISE BANK.

Gov. Pennypacker Wants Federal Investigation.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—Gov. Pennypacker this evening made public the following copy of a letter which he sent today to President Roosevelt asking for a general investigation into the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank of Allegheny.

"The Enterprise National Bank, doing business in Allegheny, has recently failed, having as the time during its deposits $1,000,000 of the money of this commonwealth. This money was deposited upon the faith of the soundness of the institution arising through its organization as a national bank, and because of these deposits the commonwealth is much interested in the ascertaining of the condition of its financial affairs. Our commissioner of banking has no control over it and no power to make any such investigation.

"Since it was organized under federal laws and subject to our supervision, I write to ask that a full, complete and careful investigation may be made so that everything connected with the condition of affairs and the causes which have led to such condition may be fully disclosed. I am ready to render all assistance in my power to secure a thorough ascertainment of the facts."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERIES

MADE IN ROMAN FORUM

Rome, Oct. 24.—Prof. Giacomo Boni, who is directing the excavations of the Roman Forum, made important discoveries today after a most careful strategical exploration. The professor went through 29 archaeological strata and reached a muddy plain, where he found evidences that the plain was at one time inhabited. These evidences were a vegetable coal, pieces of pottery and several human skeletons lying in such position as to indicate violent deaths.

FIERCE BATTLE BETWEEN

POLICE AND STUDENTS.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Twenty-five policemen and 200 students of the Chicago College of Dental Surgery engaged in a fierce fight this afternoon, and before order was restored 15 of the students had been arrested. At one point during the fight the police were forced to fire shots over the heads of the students to scatter them back.

The freshmen and junior classes of the institution met in their annual class rush today and the battle became so desperate that a riot call was sent in to the two police stations in the vicinity. When the police arrived on the scene, the battle between the students had been in progress for half an hour and had blocked all the street car and wagon traffic in that vicinity.
