

SENATOR BAILEY ON THE WARPATH

Denounces Washington Correspondent of Chicago Tribune as a Malicious Liar.

MAN WHO INSPIRED HIM SAME

Cause Was Statement That Senator Tillman Had Been Suspicious Of Him.

Washington, May 16.—The calm of the senate's discussion of the railroad rate bill was disturbed today by a personal interruption by Senator Bailey who rose to a question of personal privilege to make reply to a charge made in the Chicago Tribune yesterday by a Washington correspondent to the effect that Mr. Bailey had been responsible for the failure of the agreement between the president and Senator Tillman.

SENATOR BAILEY EXPLAINS.

"I have taken no part in the question of veracity between the president and Mr. Chandler and I had not even given any public expression on the question of good faith, because I knew nothing about either question. I had never conferred with the president directly nor with Mr. Chandler. It was therefore a matter of great surprise to me to extract what I have had read. This correspondence, it was understood, was sent by a correspondent who is very close to the White House and is presumed to speak with some degree of authority concerning transactions there. I do not know as to the truth of that and I do not charge that his statement was made with authority. But I denounce the publication as an unqualified, deliberate and malicious lie. I denounce that correspondent as an unqualified, deliberate and malicious liar. I denounce the man who inspired the statement as an unqualified, deliberate and malicious liar, whoever he may be and however high the office he holds."

SPOKE DELIBERATELY.

The statement was made in a deliberate, measured, but it was none the less impressive on that account. It was received with absolute silence and the silence continued for a few moments until, indeed, Senator Tillman had taken the floor also on a question of personal privilege, because the article quoted had stated that he had been suspicious of Mr. Bailey. He had read the parts of the correspondent's letter which Mr. Bailey had omitted and then proceeded with his statement, saying:

CORRESPONDENT A MUCK RAKE.

"This correspondence is undoubtedly a muck rake. Into whose hands the hands goes or what bond holds it I will not attempt to say."

He said he counted eight distinct falsehoods in the article, but he desired to address himself first to a denial of the charge that he had been suspicious of Senator Bailey. He declared his great esteem and admiration for the Texas senator and that their cordial relations had always existed.

BAILEY UP AGAIN.

When Senator Tillman concluded Senator Bailey again took the floor and said that his attention had been called to another article printed in the New York Tribune of today. He said it was of the same character as that printed by the Chicago Tribune and that evidently they had been timed to bring them both to Washington at the same time. Pointing to the press gallery he said:

SOURCE OF SLANDER.

"And therefore it seems to me conclusive that this slander proceeded from the White House. It is the honor of my country, that it does not proceed from the president himself."

RAYMOND'S STATEMENT.

Chicago, May 16.—The Tribune in the morning will publish the following from "Raymond": "The Washington correspondent, in answer to the attack made upon his veracity by Senator Bailey of Texas:

Washington, May 16.—When the Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, senator from Texas, struck at the president of the United States over my humble shoulders, for that is all he did on the floor of the

BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE

Hair All Came Out and He Suffered Very Much—Under Doctor Three Months and No Better—Permanently Cured at Expense of $2.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczema:

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since."

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says: "I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me."

"We use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment in our family now for general use, and it keeps our skin soft and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies for all cases of eczema. (Signed) A. C. Barnett, Avard, Oklahoma, Mar. 30, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every form of Eczema, Itch, Skin Disease, etc., by the use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent. See full particulars in the pamphlet "Cuticura Remedies," sent free on request. Address: Cuticura Remedies, P. O. Box 100, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

Senator Bailey, he apparently was unaware that there was documentary evidence in existence, both in the official Congressional Record and in the form of written memoranda by former Senator William E. Chandler, absolutely proving that he was an object of suspicion to the real friends of the president's railroad policy.

ACTS WERE SUSPICIOUS.

This is not to say that Mr. Bailey deserved the suspicion, but that his motives and his acts in the Democratic conferences, in the Democratic caucus, on the floor of the senate and in conference with Mr. Tillman and Mr. Moody and through Mr. Chandler with the president, gave rise to the suspicion that he was not true to the principles of railroad rate legislation as clear from the record itself and cannot be successfully denied.

BAILEY IS UNFORTUNATE.

Mr. Bailey may be as innocent as a babe unborn, and he says he is, but the suspicions do exist; they have existed for weeks; they have been talked of in the cloak rooms of the senate, on the streets, at the White House and elsewhere. They have been mentioned in many newspapers, and if they have not been justified, Mr. Bailey is unfortunate and his character should be relieved from suspicion.

CHANDLER QUOTED.

First of all, let me quote William E. Chandler, formerly a senator from New Hampshire, now the president of the Spanish claims commission. He is the personal friend of Senator Tillman, he was the intermediary between Tillman and the president. Whichever of the two originated the negotiations, Chandler certainly conducted them. It was his evidence which has twice been cited by Mr. Tillman on the floor of the senate, and it is Chandler who in effect has given the lie direct to the president.

ACCUSED CHANDLER.

In a dispatch sent by me on Monday to The Tribune, which aroused such a tempest in the senate this afternoon, and which provoked Senator Bailey to declare it to be a malicious lie and to instruct it was directly inspired by the president himself. I stated facts on the authority of Chandler himself. It was he who conveyed to the White House the intimation that Bailey was a traitor, and if the Texas senator has any one to blame, it must be Tillman's friend, William E. Chandler.

CHANDLER'S MEMORANDUM.

In the very outset of the negotiations he was conducting, Chandler prepared and left at the White House a written memorandum for the benefit of the president. I have not the text of that memorandum before me, but, quoting from memory, it says: "The railroad senators want the Bailey amendment, at the White House and president's court review amendment and will block their game."

DISPATCH WAS RAYMOND'S.

The dispatch I sent to The Tribune was telegraphed on my own authority and without the knowledge or consent of the president, against whom Bailey trained his batteries today, and not against me. I have not seen the president since the dispatch was written and I have not asked him for the text of this memorandum of William E. Chandler, because the text could at best add only a few words to the quotation I have given.

KNOWS HE IS CORRECT.

I know I am correct in the statement that, during the course of the negotiations, William E. Chandler, who since has accused the president of falsehood, made an oral report either to the president himself or to some one representing him, which was much more specific than the Chandler report, in explaining the difficulties in securing united action by the Democrats stated in so many words that he and Tillman were suspicious of Bailey, believing he was in an alliance with Aldrich and associating with the Standard Oil and railroad crowd in the senate, but that Tillman was watching his maneuvers and expected to be able to prevent any evil effects.

THE SUSPICIONS.

These were the suspicions to which I alluded in the previous dispatch as having constantly existed and as having influenced the administration beyond all doubt in dropping the negotiations with Tillman through Chandler, and renewing the efforts to unite the Republicans on a reasonable basis of compromise.

DENVER CITY ELECTION.

On Face of Returns the Franchises Were Carried.

Denver, May 16.—On the face of the returns the 20-year franchises sought by the Denver City Tramway and the Denver Gas & Electric companies were carried at the election yesterday by small majorities. The vote on these propositions was as follows:

Tramway franchise—For, $941; against, 7,788; majority for, 274.
Gas and Electric—For, 7,912; against, 7,233; majority for, 679.

The Municipal Ownership league is preparing evidence on which the franchises will be contested, it being alleged that hundreds of votes were cast for them by non-taxpayers, and that bogus tax receipts were furnished to voters by agents of the corporations.

The Northwestern terminal (Stoff road) franchise was granted by a vote of 8,403 to 6,230. All other franchise propositions were defeated. The initiative ordinance reducing water and light rates submitted by the Municipal league, was carried. Mayor Speer's charter amendment to extend the limit on public improvement bonds 50 years in order to carry out the Mulford Robinson plan for beautifying the city was defeated.

William H. Bryant, president of the Honest Elections league, was elected a member of the board of election commissioners. The other two members elected are Republicans. The three supervisors elected are Republicans, giving the Republican party a majority of two in the board. The board of aldermen will consist of eight Democrats, six Republicans and two Municipal Ownership members.

A special committee presented resolutions urging the speedy expulsion of Senator Reed Smoot from the senate.

MEDICAL STUDENT PUMMELS.

PROF. DAVID C. ECCLES

Chicago, May 17.—After he had been ousted from the Northwestern university medical school, William E. Wallace, a student in the chemistry department, yesterday attacked Prof. David C. Eccles, a member of the faculty, who he charged, was responsible for his dismissal. Wallace was arrested, but released on bond later.

According to Wallace his dismissal resulted after he appropriated Prof. Eccles' burette, a small glass instrument used in measuring liquids in chemical tests. Wallace admitted taking the instrument, but denied he had stolen it.

"While I was at work in the laboratory Tuesday my burette fell to the floor and was broken," he said. "I then appropriated Dr. Eccles' instrument. I did not intend keeping the burette, but left it in my desk when I appeared at the school I learned Prof. Eccles intended taking the matter before the faculty, and was told that I had been charged with theft and asked to report to the faculty the afternoon."

"Despite the fact that I had spent $200 while studying at the school, and was to have been given a chance to speak, and was dismissed. I intend taking out an injunction in the hope that I will be reinstated."

Prof. Eccles is assistant instructor in advanced chemistry. Wallace is 22 years old and is married. His father, a wealthy farmer, lives at Mayville, Ky. Prof. Eccles last night said: "I accused Wallace of theft and the faculty decided to expel him. He met me in the rotunda of the Northwestern university building later, and followed me to Clark street where he attacked me."

AMERICAN BOOK SELLERS' ASSOCIATION.

New York, May 17.—The American Book Sellers' association closed a two days' convention last night with a dinner in the rooms of the Aldine association. There were more than 300 members present. Clarence Walcott of Syracuse presided in the absence of the president, W. Millard Palmer of Grand Rapids, Mich.

F. Hopkinson Smith, one of the formal speakers, told his hearers that they were the same class of book distributors. He said that the plain titles of long ago would not sell books now. The people these days wanted to read "The Mystery of the Tower," "The Tower," "The Tower of Three Links," or "The Tower of the Seven." He pleaded for clean literature and the kind of sentiment that made "Tribune" and "David" popular.

Rex E. Beach told of his experience in Alaska, where he published the Aurora and sold with the aid of a typewriter and $2,000. Mr. Beach said that he had been in the gold business in Alaska and the brick business in Chicago, and now he was combining the two in New York.

Dillon Wallace and John W. Sargent also spoke.

SENATOR BULKELEY ON INSURANCE.

In Few Years These Great Corporations Will Own Bulk Of Securities.

POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

Custodian of Funds Justified in Using Them to Protect People's Rights.

Washington, May 16.—Senator Bulkeley continued his discussion of the insurance questions confronting the country at the afternoon session of the committee, and some of his remarks and conclusions created some degree of sensation to the roomful of committee-men and insurance representatives.

Discussing the Armstrong investigation and the irregularities brought out in that connection, he said that they did not arise from the internal mismanagement of the companies or from the personal or official dishonesty of the officers of the companies, but wholly from the jealousy of financiers to get control of the vast funds of these institutions.

"Investigation and the legislation which has grown out of it instead of bettering conditions, he said, would produce a contrary effect as pronounced as jumping from the frying pan into the fire. Instead of having several great institutions as before, controlled by a divided responsibility, they had put the entire business into the hands of one man."

IF YOU DON'T.

It is a sure cure for constipation and malaria fever, which is substantiated by what it has done for my family." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street.

"Who is that man?" asked Representative De Armond. Senator Bulkeley did not reply. There was silence in the room, then a general suppressed laugh. In the official record there was no answer to this question will appear.

"Twenty years from now," went on Senator Bulkeley, after the tension of this incident had passed, "these great insurance corporations existing today will own the major portion of the investment securities of the country. They will control absolutely the finances of the United States and of the world."

Senator Bulkeley, who is president of the Aetna Fire Insurance company, frankly admitted, in answer to a question by Representative De Armond, that he had contributed $5,000 of the funds of this company to the McKinley campaign of 1896. He added that it might as well have been $20,000; that he would have been justified in giving this amount which was not "a flea bite" to what he gave personally.

"Do you think that action upon your part in contributing the trust funds of your company to a campaign committee either justifiable, honest or decent?" queried Mr. De Armond. "I contend that every custodian of funds of this character," replied the Connecticut senator, "is his self and within his rights when he takes that money and applies it to the protection of the rights of the people. I contend that the election of Mr. Bryan would have been a calamity."

"This is a new philosophy of insurance of which I am glad to hear," commented Mr. De Armond, after several further questions along this line. "There are some people who get so powerful in the financial world that they do not fear to go in boldly where others would not dare to go." "If you gentlemen of the house of representatives," replied Mr. Bulkeley, "who distribute millions of the people's money, disburse it as honestly as money is handled by the insurance companies of the country, you need have no fear of going before your constituents."

"SKEERED O' NOTHING."

Washington, May 16.—In the house today Messrs. Tawney and Burton opened their first case in the case of the "Skeered O' Nothing."

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Salt Lake City.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many heartburn, pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Urine poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pains.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills. The remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Salt Lake City woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. John M. Child, wife of John M. Child, retired, of 25 North Fifth West street, says: "My husband and I could not sit still without placing my arm across my loins and leaning against it for the slight relief of this makeshift or position afforded. If I attempted to turn agony followed. I had little confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills when they first came to my notice, for I had tried plasters and kidney remedies unobtainably without receiving any satisfaction, so when a box of the preparation procured at the P. J. Hill Drug Company's store brought relief and a continuation of the treatment was followed by the greatest improvement in my condition, it is little wonder that I very emphatically endorse the remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SCROFULA AN INHERITED MISFORTUNE

Every one has a hereditary right to a pure blood supply, which insures a strong, healthy body; but how many do we see who have inherited that greatest of all misfortunes, Scrofula, and are struggling under a legacy of disease and suffering? Scrofula is a constitutional trouble handed down from parent to child, a curse from generation to generation as long as the scrofulous matter is allowed to remain in the family blood. As the very foundation of the blood is diseased we see this awful affliction manifested in many ways, such as enlarged glands or tumors about the neck, which often burst and become discharging ulcers, weak eyes, chronic Catarrh of the head, skin diseases, etc. This blighting disease being so firmly entrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in White Swelling, or hip disease, while a pallid, waxy appearance of the skin, loss of strength, and often lung affections show that the disease is entirely destroying the rich, nutritive qualities of the blood. There is but one way to cure Scrofula and that is to purify the blood and rid it of the germs of disease, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. Its purifying and building-up properties make it the ideal remedy for Scrofula. S. S. S. searches out and destroys all poisons and germs, gives strength, richness and vigor to the weak, polluted blood and cures Scrofula permanently. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine, made from roots, herbs and barks and may be taken with absolute safety by young or old. It so thoroughly removes the poison from the blood that no signs of it are ever seen again and posterity is blessed with a pure blood supply. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.
