CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

A motion to adjourn over to Saturday prevailed by 33 to 20, and at 1.30 p.m. Trumbull's bill looking to civil service reform came up as unfinished business.

HOUSE.

In the House on the 27th, Sargent asked leave to offer a resolution requesting the President to inform the House whether the Governor of California has, since the fourth of July, 1868, asked for military aid for the purpose of keeping peace at the elections in that State, and to transmit copies of the correspondence, Brooks of New York, said the resolution should include New York and Delaware, and Pennsylvania.

Brooks, of Georgia, said: "We want the information as to all of them."

Sargent said: "I am willing that the resolution be so modified."

Allison: "I object to the resolution being offered." The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Senate joint resolution, extending the time to construct the railroad from the St. Croix River or Lake to the west end of Lake Superior and to Bayfield.

The judiciary committee agreed to recommend the several amendments to the bankrupt act, one of which is to exempt widows' dowers from its operations, and another provides for the appointment of registers in bankruptcy by United States circuit judges, instead of justices of the United States supreme court holding circuit courts.

WASHINGTON.

Awaiting census returns.

WASHINGTON.—A joint resolution was introduced in the Senate, appointing General Wm. T. Sherman, a regent of the Smithsonian Institute vice General De La Field, resigned, and was passed.

The House bill prescribing the form of enacting and resolving the clauses of acts and resolutions of Congress, and rules for the construction thereof, proposing to abbreviate the phraseology of legislative formulas, was discussed. Messrs. Howard, Casserly and others favoring a retention of the time-honored forms of legislation. Passed.

The House judiciary committee is waiting for the complete official returns of the population summary of the States and Territories, before reporting the apportionment bill, the main features of which have been agreed upon, it being one prepared by Judge Mercer of the Census Bureau. It is greatly delayed by the failure to receive returns from South Carolina and Texas, caused by the disturbed political condition of those States and the defects in the law. The Bureau having no power over the assistant marshals, either to appoint them or to punish them for incomplete or fraudulent returns, has had much to do with the delay. There have been complaints against the Bureau for alleged incompleteness of returns in various localities. These complaints all appear to be founded on partial statements furnished by marshals to newspapers and accepted by the public as official; but, when examined by the census officials here, they have often been found to be very far from accurate, so that in some cases it has been necessary to make the enumeration a second time, causing much delay and trouble in the South.

MISSOURI.

Divorce laws discussed.

ST. LOUIS, 27th.—Governor Brown sent a special message to the Legislature yesterday, in which he discussed the divorce laws. He recommends the establishment of a State House for juvenile criminals; a thorough geological survey of the State, and a complete revenue and insurance law. The Governor seems to think adultery only the sufficient cause for absolute divorce, and suggests that this act be made penal, and when the evidence of adultery is sufficient to justify a legal separation, the guilty party shall be punished by the same judgment that grants divorce.

NEW YORK.

More Fenian exiles arrived—Snow storm stopped—Election law deficient.

NEW YORK, 27.—The snow-storm ceased this morning. Nearly two feet of snow have fallen. Travel is greatly impeded in all directions, and in some cases is entirely suspended. All the railroad trains are greatly delayed. No advices have been received from more distant points, but railroad men believe all the routes between this city and the Mississippi river are blockaded and travel temporarily suspended, the storm having apparently extended over a great portion of the country east of the Rocky mountains.

Some of the Republicans of this city are of the opinion that the United States election law is deficient in many important particulars, and Commissioner Davenport, acting on their behalf, has proceeded to Washington to urge the passage of a more stringent bill, one which will prohibit repeating at elections for State as well as Federal officers.

It is said a bill to repeal the registry law is to be introduced in the State Legislature. If so, the features of the State registry law are to be incorporated in the proposed new law of Congress.

The Russia, with more Fenian exiles, has arrived. Much enthusiasm has been created in Fenian circles by the news. At Sweeney's hotel the announcement created intense excitement. Rossa, McLane, Devoy, Mullada and O'Connell, were not at the hotel when the news was received there.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A fine of 10,000,000 f.—Garibaldi surrounded—Will insist on unconditional surrender—Report on the fisheries question, etc.

LONDON, 26.—Guizot writes to Gladstone, lengthily, arguing the questions and conditions between France and Prussia, and urging England at least to protect Favre.

Garibaldi is surrounded near Dijon.

A fine of ten million francs has been imposed upon Nancy and the surrounding districts, on account of the destruction of the bridge near Toul. If unpaid, the military will adopt stringent measures.

Advices from Lille state that the Prussians are retreating in the direction of Somme. They have abandoned the siege of Cambrai and other fortresses in the east. The department of the north, on Monday, moved their headquarters to Crevecoeur.

It is said that the Emperor of Germany has written to his wife that the capitulation of Paris is imminent, and he expects speedily to return to Berlin. Cherbourg is crowded with captured German ships.

LONDON, 25, p. m.—The following is unofficial, but is believed to be trustworthy: "The Germans will insist on the unconditional surrender of Paris with all the forts and defenses. The Times' story of a collision between Bismarck, and Napoleon and Eugenie is unfounded."

Paris official advices say the French strength, engaged in the sorties of the 19th, was one hundred thousand. The Prussians have destroyed the railroad bridge on the Chereon near Tours.

LONDON, 27.—An Anglo-American committee, composed of eminent political, legal and literary men, will shortly publish an exhaustive report of the fisheries' questions and other points of difference between the United States and Canada, somewhat unfavorable to America, but taking a view of the Canadian pretensions.

Unfounded advices from Havre state that the Prussians are in strong force between Brienore and Creuville.

PRUSSIA.

Joyful gathering in Berlin.

BERLIN, 25.—The report of the arrival of Favre at Versailles, and that he was received to-day created great excitement, although at present it is not officially confirmed. As soon as the news of the supposed intended capitulation spread abroad, the streets were speedily filled with joyful crowds. Great numbers of people repaired at once to the palace, in hopes to see the Queen, and hear from her lips the glad intelligence, promising a speedy return of peace. They were disappointed in their expectations, as no telegram had reached her Majesty. All the public offices and business generally were suspended, the employes being anxious to gather the news. Rumors are rife looking towards capitulation, and are true from the fact that Favre's presence at Versailles is undoubted; but some believe he may have gone there in the hope of obtaining a military pass to the London Conference. The fact is officially known here that only five days' full rations are left in Paris from to-day. At the war office great preparations are making for the conveyance and reception of a large number of prisoners, and different localities are designated for their reception.

FRANCE.

Official report of Lemoe at St. Quentin—Army movements.

BORDEAUX, 26.—Gambetta arrived here to-day.

The French have reoccupied Alencon.

The Germans threaten Angers.

The Prussians have entirely withdrawn from the neighborhood of Dijon.

Considerable German forces have been hurrying eastward since the recent engagement.

Bourbaki has manœuvred so as to effectually protect the French left and rear against the advancing enemy.

VERSAILLES.—The official report of the losses of the first army, at St. Quentin, is as follows: Ninety-four officers and three thousand men.

AUSTRIA.

Officially denied.

VIENNA.—An official denial has been given to the newspaper version of the instructions of the Austrian Plenipotentiary to the Conference, relative to guaranteeing the free navigation of the Danube.
