DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1901.

Mis

OC

URI

es. ed

-

ve

S

to take place in June: Governor Wells, Miss Emily Katz; Miss Mary Burke, Mr. Channing: Miss Esther Freed, Mr. Filer; Miss Mary Louise Nelden, Mr. J. O. Cross, Miss Florence Howat, Mr. Schoppe; Miss Mabel Saville, Mr. Richard Wright; Miss Bertha Meyer, Mr. Milton D. Joseph; Miss Effle Mangum of Nephi, Mr. Z. Henry Jacobs; Miss Vilate Lewis, Mr. Albert J. Elgren; Miss Mamle Lindsay, Mr. George Meeks, . . .

Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Frankle Sharp, to Dr. Alexander Dowd of Sunnyside, Utah, the marriage to take place June 12th,

The engagement of Miss Ida Moyle and Mr. Roy Van Cott is announced,

Ed. Ferry. The rooms were decorated with potted plants, and the table had with potted plants, and the tables a a beautiful centerpiece of white snow-balls shrouded in white and green tulle extending its entire length. The guests were: Mrs. Younger, Mrs. Daker, Mrs. Witcher Jones, Mrs. Mont Ferry, Mrs. Ed. Ferry, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Judge Powers, Mrs, W. G. Sharp, Mrs. Burns-

McDonald. . . .

Miss Hattle Jennings entertained on Thursday in honor of Miss Florence her guests being the Misses Howat, Howat, her guests being the Misses Howat, Mrs. A. W. McCune, Mrs. Mc-Callough, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. 'Vivian McCune, Mrs. Dana Smith, Miss Flor-ence Groesbeck, Miss Catherine Cuimer, Miss Bird, Miss Hampton, Miss Aille Miller, Miss Pauline Groo, Miss Weston.

A pleasant social will be held next Tuesday by the class which has been under Dr. Margaret Roberts instruction during the past year. There will be a program of music and recitations, and pleasant time in general will be en-The event takes place in the oved. Templeton building.

The

On Wednesday afternon the marriage of Miss Maud Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hicks, and Le Roy C. Lyman took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Mr. Stringfellow of St. Paul's chhapel officiating The ceremony was was insed only by the relatives and the intimate friends of the couple, but in the evening a re-ception was held and a large number of guests were present to extend congratulations. 1. 1. 1. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Carrie L. Cochrane and Fred L. Presbrey, chief clerk at the Kenyon hotel, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Josiah McLain of the Third Presbyterian church, at the Pieasanton, No. 7 Kendall Terrace. Only a half dozen of the intimate friends of the couple were present, the bride's sister. Mrs. Joseph Hall, of Portland, being among them, On Wednesday afternoon the Woman's Republican club met at the home of Mrs. Ezra Thompson-about "Sixty-three seventy being present. was the amusement and the prize was won by Mrs. Widdison. Mrs. Rachel Miller assisted the hostess in receiving. Mrs. James Dinwoodey entertained at lancheen on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Alice E. Dwight. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and honeysuckle and covers were laid for for seven. Present were Mrs. Dwight, Mrs. Eugene Hanna, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey, Mrs. Timmony, Mrs. Arthur Brown entertained at an informal luncheon party on Thursday in honor of Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin. The table decorations were roses and covers were laid for five. Present were Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Daly, Mrs. Fifield, Miss Sprague.

Judge and Mrs. Le Grande Young and Miss Jasmine Young réturned from their eastern trip on Thursday night. Miss Afton Young will remain in Chicago for some time. Miss Hannah Chamberlain and George McPherson of Murray were united in marriage on Wednesday, On Tuesday the marriage of Miss Effe D. Rowe and Walter E. Maddison took place, the ceremony being per-Judge David T. Smith performing the ceremony.

The Misses Perry entertained at tea served afterward at the home of the bride's parents on First street. The on Tuesday, their guests being Misses Eva Price, Josie Price, Maud Snow, Fannie Coulam, Zella Robbins, Melvina Perry, Pearl Perry, and green, snowballs and bridal wreath blossoms being used. Only the

The Utopia club was entertained at relatives and intimate friends of the bride were present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowe, the residence of Miss Pauline Groo on Wednesday, the occasion being in the nature of a bag shower party in honor of Miss Florence Howat.

ifornia on the 1st of June to visit with relatives. She will be absent three months.

The Utopia club meets next week with Miss Bird.

Robert Leonard returned Thursday from California where he has been attending college.

2

京陸市

部語

*

Photo by Johnson.

Miss Leckie of Washington D. C., is the guest of Miss Bartch.

Miss Ireland left recently for Baltimore. . . .

Mrs. Lon Levy and children have re-turned from California,

Miss Edna Shearman has returned from California.

Mrs. George Tuttle of St. Louis, Mo., will spend the summer in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Y. Wallace. . . .

The Parliamentary club met Thursday morning and the subject. "Shall We Have a Bicycle Track?" was discussed.

. . . Mirs Mary A. Barker and Oscar Anderson of Spanish Fork were married in the Temple on Wednesday.

The Whist club met with Miss Hackett on Tuesday.

Miss Charlotte Holmes is expected to return from California in a short time.

Mrs. Sol Slegel has returned from her eastern trip.

Mrs. H. G. Heffron leaves early in June to spend the summer in the East.

Miss Mary C. May will leave shortly 「など本語 for Chicago, where she will spend the summer. Miss May expects to take a special course at the University of Chi-4. 9. 8

「日本」を言いていていていたい Mrs. John Eckers left during the week to visit her old home in Iowa.

Miss Binnie Paul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Paul, who has been in San Francisco for some time past, is in the city.

Mrs. J. R. Walker and children have gone to California,

Miss Kate Brockbank has returned from her western trip.

Mrs. Abial Leonard left Thursday to 計算が計算 join her daughter, Miss Cameron Leonard in San Francisco.

Miss Florence Scholes entertained at dinner on Thursday in honor of Miss Mabelle Snow.

Mrs. E. F. Holmes left yesterday for the East. She will be absent three months.

Miss Beatrice Sells returns next week from California where she has been attending Mills College.

Mrs. S. E. Bransford leaves early in June for the East where she will remain for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Ellerbeck will arrive shortly from Philadelphia and will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs J, E, Clinton.

scene of a very delightful social last evening. A very pleasing musical and Mrs. C. E. Wantland of Denver will literary program was rendered by some be the guest of Mrs. Will Shelton for the next few weeks, of the best talent of the city, after which refreshments were served. Al present spent a pleasurable evening.

Banner Hive No. 11 Ladies of the Maccabees gave an enjoyable literary and musical entertainment at Odd Fellows hall last night.

Tuesday evening Superintendent Metcalf and wife were the guests of honor of a very delightful party given in the chapel of the State School for the Deaf The party Blind, month's business trip.

Sidney Stevens returned home spread her flounces over so much terri- thority upon female propriety in the Wednesday evening from an extended tory is something; the waste of money is more. If a woman is a good financier business and pleasure trip to New York. she will avoid the pouring of fees into organizations whose meetings she never Frank Dooley and wife of Portland can hope to attend. The day for con-cantation in this direction has arrived. The sensible woman finds that it is better to do one thing and do it well, than to wear out her soul trying to compass the impossible. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guthrie of this city. H. H. Spencer of the Eccles Lumber Co., left Thursday for California for a growing everywhere in town and sub-urb, woman who have never joined clubs are going to find a field for work outside their homes. They are work The Central Park Presbyterian church on the corner of Thirty-first street and Washington avenue was the clubs are going to ind a field for work outside their homes. They are going to enter with vim into making their surroundings sanitary and wholesome. No longer is the dustman who never dusts going to have things his own All Since women in all quarters have graduated from Oberlin College, it. way. grasped brooms and small boys, and decided to use both to the best advantage, something is bound to happen. The broom isn't likely to do anything but wear out, and the small eighteenth century, in his work en-titled "Legacy to My Daughters" says "Should you be so unfortunate as to possess a robust constitution by nature, similate such sickly delicacy as is

As late as 1847, when Lucy Stone

INTERIOR GLIMPSES OF SALT LAKE HOMES.

······

DINING ROOM IN RESIDENCE OF MAJOR DOWNEY.

The above cut shows the dining room in the home of Major George M. Downey, on the corner of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hackett announce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Mabel, to C. E. Traver, the marrlage to take place early in June.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of John W. Young, son of Mr. Jos. O. Young of Young Brothers of the city and Miss Gertrude M. Watkins of Provo. The reception will be given June 5th, at the bridegroom's residence in Forest Dale.

The engagement of Miss Josie Price and Junius Snow is announced,

The engagement is announced of Miss Sabina Smith and Mr. Ernest Smith, the wedding to take place June 12th.

The engagement of Miss Lucy Bar-ton of this city and W. J. Seely of Castle Dale is announced, the marriage to take place in June.

The engagement of Miss Nora Hanter and Mr. Horace W. Barton is onnounced, the marriage to take place on the 12th of June.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Flem-ing and Mr. George Krueger will take place on June 5th.

The engagement of Miss Annie Reed and Josiah Thomas is announced.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Annie Brown and Mr. Hyrum Duckworth, the wedding to take place June 19th.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the hucheon and Kensington given by Miss Any Pike on Tuesday. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of yellow roses and bridal wreath branches the table in the dining branches the table in the dining room being especially tasteful with a centerplece of yellow roses and real lace. A distinct fea-ture of the occasion were the place cards which were hand painted pic-ume back on any hourd marking rings. ture heads on cardboard napkin rings tied with yellow baby ribbon; and also tied with yellow baby ribbon: and also the elever sketches used in a song guessing contest all of which were the work of the hostess. These latter were sketches representing the idea of some popular song and from these the tilles of the songs were guessed. The score cards were decorated with coon heads, etc., and the entire scheme with its cleved handlwork was most artistic. The first prize in the guessing con-test was taken by Mrs. Twomey and test was taken by Mrs. Twomey and the second by Miss Florence Steventhe second by Miss Florence Steven-son. The guests were Mis. C. S. Wil-liamson, Mis. M. K. Parsons, Mis. F. Scarff, Mis. J. N. Sharp, Mis. Harry Twomey, Mis. Edu Daynes Cannon, Mis. Jack Alford, Mis. John Alford, Mis. Beck, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Winnie Welby, Miss Sadle McChrystal, Miss Sathe Leoward, Miss Bud, Hall, Sath Miss Salle Leonard, Miss Belle Hai-stead, Miss Jean Alford, Miss Luclie Sears, Miss Maud Parker, Miss Edith Parker, Miss Bertha Cherry, Mias Florence Stevenson.

On Thursday night the wedding of Miss Edna Brundette of Providence, R. I., and Rev. Arthur J. Fielder of H. I. and Rev. Arthur J. Fielder of Topele was solemnized, the event taking place at the Waterloo alethodist church, with Revs. Mr. Jayne and Mr. Lapham officiating. The church was handsomely decorated in write and green, the bridal marty standing un-der the wedding bell of white carna-tions. Misses Elsie and Elfa Rich were bridesmaids and E. E. Rich Jr. and H. W. Smith acted as grooms-men. The ushers were Harry Jayne and Walter Price. After the ceremony a delibertul reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Lapham, a large number being present.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. David Murray, Mrs. Wilbur W. Flagg (1) Miss Murray, were hostesses at an elaborate reception at the residence of the former. The rooms were beautitu with a profusion of paims and flowers snowballs and red peoples being used in the pario, and pink hawthorn and snowballs in the library with artistic effect. The dining room was in pink and green, the table having a pretty of this city, and the groom is a repre-sentative of the National LifeInsurance company, Mr. and Mrs. Maddison will be at home to their friends after June 10th at 57 Third street.

ford, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. F. West-eatt, Mrs. Gilbert Pfoutz, Mrs. D. C.

McLaughlin, Mrs. H. Pembroke, Mrs. O. H. Hardy, Mrs. S. M. Barlow, Mrs. R. Widdison, Mrs. W. J. Hayward, formed at noon in the Salt Lake Temple and a wedding luncheon being bride's parents on First street. The rooms were prettily decorated in white

Mrs. A. Beesley.

Tuesday was the 12th birthday anniver ary of little Louise Spencer, daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Spencer, and the occasion was celebrated in a pretty birthday party at her home on Second street. The afternoon was spent in playing "Old Mald,"and a pleasant time enjoyed by all. The first prize was won by Miss Vera Bernheisel, and the consolation by Nora Murdock, Present were Gwendolen Tripp, Nan Clawson, Vera Bernheisel, Rehan Spencer, Nan Clawson, Nora Murdock, Ruby Lam-bourne, Emily Richards, Katje Adams, Mary Belle Craft, Lynn Knowlton, Venice Farnsworth, Monday was the 70th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Elizabeth Daynes, and the occasion was celebrated in a pleas-ant gathering of relatives and friends at her residence, ²⁴ F street. Among the many pleasant features of the even-ing was a musical program, and all present spent a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Charles Walker was hostess at an informal juncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Younger, of San Fran-cisco, sister-in-law of Mrs. Burns-Mc-Donald, and Mrs. Baker, sister of Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Gunter and child left yesterday for a trip to Colorado and Arkansas. Mrs. Gunter will spend the summer in Colorado with relati and Mr. Gunter will return in a month's time, The piano recital given Monday night by the pupils of Miss Gratia Flanders, assisted by Miss Edna Cohn, was one of the enjoyable events of the week. On Monday afternoon Mrs. John Reed gave an informal reception at the home of Mrs. Andrews in honor of Mrs. Chas. S. Mark of Idaho.

Mrs. Helyar Lockyer, formerly Mrs Isaac Trumbo, has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. White, for a short time, She left to rejoin Mr, Lock-yer in San Francisco on Wednesday.

Mrs. McLaughlin entertain+a at dinher Tuesday evening at the Knutsford, her guests being Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Rachel Miller and Miss Alice Miller,

Mr. and Brs. Bradley Clawson leave shortly to make their home in the Te-ton Basin. Miss Laura Horrocks leaves for Cal-

THE NEW TURBAN.

The turban is the most successful model of the season. This one, of black chiffon with spangled rim is the summer girl's own conception of becom-ingness and chic. The upper brim has a wired mousseline and lace plume ef-fect, while the underbrim has a cluster of soft pink roses with their green leaves.

George A. Kellogg and bride of Mis-souri Valley, Ia., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Airis, of this city. 111

Mr. C. E. Traver, of De Lamar, is in the city. . . .

Mr. Claud Price left for Denver on Wednesday.

Harry B. Tooker is in the city. OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

May 25 .- The grand ball and banquet given by the A. O. U. W. on Wednesday evening, May 22, was the greatest social success of the season and was largely attended by the home members and a number of visiting members from Salt Lake and surrounding cities in Utah, Wyoming and Idaho, The party gathered at Christensen's hall which was beautifully decorated for the occasion about 9 p. m. and passed a couple of hours in tripping the light fantastic to some delightful music rendered by Christensen's full orchestra. At 11:30 p.m., at the sug-gestion of Master of Ceremonies W. Ritchie, all repaired to the Broom hotel dining room and partook of an ele-gant repast. During the festivities some beautiful musical selections were rendered by Ford's orchestra, after which all spent a happy hour tening to the following toasts and responses Grand Overseer Henry H. Rolapp, toastmaster.

Welcome to Our Guests.....Bro. W. L. Maginnis "His worth is warrant for his welcome.'

The Supreme Lodge...... Supreme Master Workman W.

A. Walker. "I went into the temple, there to hear the teachers of our laws, and to hear what might improve my knowledge."

The Grand Lodge Grand Master Workman S. W. Darke "Onward, onward we do press, Through the path of duty."

Local Lodge Past Grand Maste! Workman N.

M. Rulek. "Each night we'll feast together,

In our most welcome home." The Individual Workman Past Grand Master Workman F.

C. Hamm. "We are each but links, yet nec'essary links in the great chain of human fraternity." The affair was pronounced by all who participated in it, as being one of the most pleasurable the lodge has ever given. . . .

Ralph Peterson, was given a very pleasant surprise party last Monday evening. May 20. at his home on Twenty-fifth street. All kinds of games and amusements were enjoyed until a late hour when all present were ushered into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served. Those pres-ent were Misses Bertha Eccles, Maggie Lockheld, Mattle Poulter, Ethel Malan, Birdle McEwan, Eva Eldredge, Grace Shirlls, Irma Douglass, Floy Williams Williams and Messrs. Clyde Lindsay, Arthur Bur-dett, Ralph Peterson, Sigmond Kohn, Joseph Severn, John Watson and Orson Douglass.

A 4 4 Last evening the ladles of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant handkerchief social at the church hall. Strawberries, ice cream, and cake was served. A very interesting and pleas-ing program, consisting of music, both vocal and instrumental, and literary numbers were rendered. The affair was a thorough success, both pleasurably and financially.

The Ladles' Epworth league, of the Methodist church, gave a very enjoy-able social in the lecture hall of the church this evening which was largely attended. . . .

The State School for the Deaf and Blind had their field day at Glenwood Park yesterday. Many amusing and interesting pastimes were participated in and the students had a most enjoy-able time.

by the employes of the institution, who had invited about twenty-five couples to join them in an evening of merri-ment, in honor of the retiring officers. The happy hours of the evening were most delightfully spent in listening to a program consisting of literary and musical numbers, after which a sumptuous lunch was served. During the evening Prof. and Mrs. Metcalf were presented with beautiful tokens of the love and esteem which they have won while at the head of the State school. Mr. Metcalf was the recipient of a beautifully engraved gold headed ebony of a cane, and Mrs. Metcalf received a handsome silver cake basket.

Capt. A. T. Biley and wife of Salt Lake were in Ogden this week, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Gash.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Helfrich, of Mountain Home, Idaho, spent several days in Ogden this week visiting with friends. They have now gone on a pleasure trip.

Hon. Fred J. Klesel returned this week from a business trip to Oregon.

Mrs. Thomas D. Dee and daughter were in Provo this week visiting with friends. . . .

The Thatcher Opera company of Logan, presented the opera "Pinafore." Monday evening at the Grand Opera House to a small house.

at Derge's book store, beginning Tues-day, at noon, and lasting three days. Edward J. Hansen and Miss Con-Flower pictures make appropriate wedstance J. Mortensen were married this ding presents. week. They are both residents of Ogden. . . . Misses Nellie Hanks and Millie How-Black and White in Summer Hats. ell, both popular young ladies of Logan, were Ogden visitors this week.

William Harcombe returned from San Francisco, Monday.

Mrs. Rampton of Pocatello was visiting with friends in Ogden this week.

Miss Smith of Morgan City, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Reeder of this city, has gone to Pocatello to spend a short vacation, Rev. L. O. Spencer and wife of Henderson, Ky., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Spencer of Ogden this week. same on the hair.

Miss Evelyn Ahlson and Henry G. Friese, popular young people of Ogden, were married Tuesday.

CLUB CHAT.

The Reviewers will meet with Mrs. W. A. Nelden on next Tuesday instead of Monday. The business meeting for the election of officers will be called at Review. two o'clock, and the program for the afternoon will begin promptly at three.

The Poet's Round Table will meet with Miss Preston on Monday. Mrs. Hemphill will act as chairman and Will Carlton is the poet to be discussed.

tcenth century she had no legal rights that man was bound to respect. She be-The new board of directors of the Ladies' Literary club met this morning and appointed the general committees. longed body and soul to some man. She did not own the clothes she wore, even if she had earned the money with which to purchase them. She had no legal control over her own person, earnings It has remained for a small town in the West to develop what might well be called a utility club. The name of the organization is "The Darning Club." and colleges, trades and professions and all offices under the government; paid the most meager wages in the few oc-The society is made up of young ma-The society is made up of young ma-trons, who meet twice a month with darning needles and crippled stockings in their hands. While discussing ques-tions of art, literature, music, history women had no proper appreciation of themselves as factors in civilization, and the few noble souls who were posand philanthropy the needles keep pace with the tongues. Prizes are given not for the best essays on the topics under sessed of a prophetic vision of what the future held in store for women were discussion, but for proficiency in the art of mending, not only stockings, but linen of all kinds. The prizes are unique too, for they invariably consist of official positions. The best darner met on all sides with ridicule and contempt. Believing self denial a higher virtue than self development women ignorantly made ladders of themselves, by which fathers, brothers and sons gets the presidency, the next the vicepresidency. One thing there never did seem to be reached their highest ambitions, cre-ating an impassable gulf between them.

the slightest reason in was the universal club tinker. By this I mean the woman who belongs to seventeen clubs and boasts of her folly. The waste of energy and time for a woman who tries to read in public. Nearly forty years after, boy to get out when the energetic memwhen Oberlin celebrated her semi-con-tennial, Lucy Stone was invited to be of the Improvement Society bers threatens to become unbearably energetic

The big College Endowment Associa-

Mass., is still another seceder. The preference for state over national affilthere is also a protest against the col-or stand of the general board.

Mrs. J. L. Minor will have a lovely collection of water colors on exhibition

FEMININE FLOTSAM.

Combinations of black and white are present date that it is not probable they will continue to be fashionable

The Progress of Women.

One hundred years ago woman was or children. She was shut out of schools cupations open to her and denied every-

Nothing was more common than to see the sons of a family educated while the daughters remained ignorant.

Worse still.

where the necessary opoprtunities for best development.

drawn from the federation.

one of the speakers at that great gath-Speaking of getting out reminds us ering. At one time, when a minister was asked to give notice that a woman that the Boston Daughters of New Hampshire are the latest to withdraw from the general federation. This dewould speak in the town, he announced that a woman would attempt to crow cision they do say was reached through like a cock. Today two-thirds of the colleges and an overwhelming majority. This action was not unexpected, as over a year ago the club discused the matter of withuniversities of the United States, in-cluding every state university west of drawal. The expenses of membership following the per capita tax law was one point which influenced the club in

The doubl-

The

SeX.

Ohio, are open allke to mea and women. Thousands of women are college graduates; hundreds are regularly ordained its step, and the action of the general board at Milwaukee on the color quesministers; scores are practicing law. yers. Women are engaged in a great tion was a second factor in the decision. variety of trades and professions which require skill and intelligence. They have secured the right of public speech. The club rolls show a membership of They are potent factors in literature They are writers for the press, editors and reporters for the newspapers. tion of Milwaukee has also declared its rebellion against the tax and with-This progress has come because women of a larger mold, loftier ambi-tions and nobler self-respect than the ing of the assessment proved too much for even this rich organization. The average have been willing to face the opposition of the world for the sake of Evanston Club has also gone out, and the Middlesex Woman's Club of Lowell, liberty. More than one such as these deserves the rank of martyr. The sulfering, the doubt, the obloquy which has been endured by the ploneers in the ation is expressed in this action and woman movement will never be fully known or understood. For sixty years and more a vigorous agliation has been waged in the United Streestabilish equal rights for women with men. Under its influence and guided by the leadership of brave men and women, the evolution) of woman has moved on without a break. The twentieth cen-tury will belong alike to man and by the woman, and by its close all the vexed questions will have passed beyond dis-pute and in its place will be the demand for human rights without regard to

How to Make Cold Creams.

in such favor with Parisians at the In preparing creams or lotions, it must be remembered that the formula should be followed exactly if certain once the spring actually sets in. Al-ready arother combination is taking results are expected. Fats or oils should be melted over a the place of this-namely, black and small pink roses. Large toques, made entirely of black tuile, or sprigged net closely gathered, and with rolled brims. slow fire by the least possible heat, and in a double boiler preferably. The method as given of adding the other ingredients should be closely adhered have a round wright of small pink roses placed on the top of the brim, or else a circlet of these flowers around to. Tinctures and extracts are in-variably added at the last, when the mixture has slightly cooled and drop the crown and a semi-coronet of the by drop, or at least very slowly. Glycerine, properly used, is an invalu. The chape turned down in the neck behind does not suit every taste, so many of the new models of hats with able cosmetic. It whitens, softens and dissolves coloring matter when careful-It whitens, softens and ly combined with other agents, such as wide or medium brims have the back of the brim bent backward in the rose, elder-flower or orange water. It is very injurious used in concentrated middle. Shapes treated in this way sometimes have a "cache peigne" of roses underneath, while others trimform, as it burns, parches and yellows the skin. Fats are the basis of all cold creams. med with ribbon have this carried back and knotted in a bow with ends un-derneath the brim,--Millinery Trade Fais are the basis of all cold creatis. Wax and spermaceti are often added to give requisite firmness, but possesses no intrinsic value. They are inclined to clog the pores. Perfumes, aside to clog the pores. Perfumes, aside from being agreeable additions, posses antisceptic qualities and prevent the oils from becoming rancid.-Stella Stuart in May Ledger Monthly. not a factor in religious, industrial, commercial or political life to be con-sidered. At the beginning of the nine-

Honey Balsam.

An excellent preparation for prevent-ing and removing freckles and tan. and which will whiten and refine the skin, is prepared thus:

Pure honey i ounces

Mix the first two by gentle heat, Dissolve the acid in the spirits and add the essence. When the first mixture the essence. When the first mixture is cold, put the two together and ag-tate till mingled. This is also excel-tate to render the hands soft and white.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga. P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga. suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg: but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Z. C. M. L. Drug Dept.

C. M. I. Drug Dept. Dr. Gregory, who was standard au-

