

Portland, where she has been spending some weeks with her parents.

Russell Lowry returns today from a 20 days' visit in the Pacific Northwest.

W. J. Halloran and children and Miss Halloran have returned from a delightful outing in the Yellowstone.

Miss Baldwin of Burlington, Ia., and Miss Strabell of St. Louis, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baldwin for the past few days left Wednesday for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sawyer, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Parham Dickert for the past few days, left yesterday for Nevada, where they will make their home for a time.

Miss Hollister Hancock left this week for Washington, D. C., to resume her studies at National Park seminary.

Walter C. Shoup returned last evening from a pleasant outing at Salmon City, Ida.

Mrs. R. E. Benedict and Miss Friese have returned from a six weeks' visit at Pacific Grove, Cal.

Miss Maydella Hobbs is home from Portland, where she has been visiting friends for the past two weeks.

Spencer Clawson, Jr. returned this week from a four years' stay in Europe. He will probably return shortly to Germany to complete his musical education.

Mrs. Jennie Crismon and daughter, Miss Crismon, leave soon for San Francisco, where Miss Crismon goes to study music.

Miss Winifred Snow is at Nephi, visiting Miss Dorothy Marioneaux.

Mrs. L. Rumble of Green River, Wyo., is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Helen Rosenfeld left Tuesday for Chicago, after a delightful two months' visit with Mrs. B. B. Hanak.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Reinhardt are now at home to their friends at the new Wilson hotel.

John J. Daly, Mrs. Roy Brown, Miss Daly, Miss Evelyn Daly and Master Albert Daly, are home from an extended two months' visit in the Pacific Northwest and British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Evans left today for Ontario, Or., where they are to make their home.

Mrs. E. A. Wall and daughters have returned from a pleasant visit along the California coast.

Mrs. Fred Simon and children return this week from California, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Catherine Culmer is home from a pleasant month's visit with Beaver friends.

Mrs. Emanuel Kahn and daughter, Miss Rita, have returned from the coast for a brief stay.

Mrs. Dora Middlestate of Colorado Springs is visiting the James E. Hayward of 125 Seventh Street.

William Pischel has returned from a month's visit with his parents at Chicago.

Mrs. Dowd of Sunnyside, Utah, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. John Sharp.

Mrs. Emma Ellerbeck and family have returned from Brighton and are at their home, No. 764 First St.

Miss Genevieve Ellerbeck and Miss Lucy Van Cott, who have been spending the summer at Seattle, will return tomorrow.

Miss Maud Patterson will return tomorrow from a month's stay on the coast.

CLUB CHAT.

The regular meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution was held this week at the office of Mrs. E. B. Wells in Templeton block, an interesting afternoon being spent.

The Round Table club is to be congratulated upon having completed case No. 30 for the Free Traveling Library. The annual meeting of the library committee will take place next month.

The Round Table club met with Mrs. Rachel Miller on Monday, and was delightfully entertained, Mrs. Hemphill being chairman, Mrs. Stanley Clawson organist and William Morris, poet and designer being the subject for the day. The table was decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums, and the place cards were Morris designs with the initial of the noted artist.

Sydney Beattie and Mrs. Thomas Ellerbeck were the guests of the club next month with Miss Jean Preston, who is also chairman and the subject will be Sir William Morris.

The coming meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs is attracting the chief attention of local club women, and this week the initial meeting was held to arrange for the entertainment of visitors, and other matters. Mrs. Charles S. Dennison president of the Federation will be present, and there will be a reception held in her honor, probably at the Ladies Literary club house. The committee appointed to arrange plans is Mrs. Hal Brown, chairman; Mrs. John Reed, secretary; Mrs. H. L. Culmer for the Cleodan, Mrs. E. W. Whitney for the Ladies Literary, Mrs. A. G. Andrews for the P. E. O., Miss Estella Neff for the Press club, Mrs. David Evans for the Poets' Round Table, Mrs. A. T. Sanford for the Woman's club, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff for the Reviewers, and Mrs. Stella Hooper for the Council of Jewish Women.

Among the marriages of the week was that of Miss Alice V. Driggs and John Z. Brown both of Pleasant Grove; and Miss Lottie B. Foulger of Ogden and Mr. Burdette Smith of Pleasant Grove. They are a quartette of popular young Utah people to whom will extend the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

On Wednesday night Miss Daisy Harvey and Mr. Arthur Huntsman were married, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harvey with Rev. Eddie Peterson officiating. The ceremony was attractive in their decorations of vines and flowers and a large number were present to enjoy the event. Mr. and Mrs. Huntsman will reside in Pocatello.

The employees of the Boyle Furniture company and the Ogden Furniture company had a delightful outing Thursday.

OGDEN SOCIAL.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 5.—Wednesday afternoon Miss Marie E. Ames, a popular young lady of this city, became the wife of Harry Wright, a well known young railroad man. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Ensign, at the home of the bride's parents, the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make Ogden their home.

The employees of the Boyle Furniture company and the Ogden Furniture company had a delightful outing Thursday.

OGDEN SOCIAL.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 5.—Wednesday afternoon Miss Marie E. Ames, a popular young lady of this city, became the wife of Harry Wright, a well known young railroad man. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Ensign, at the home of the bride's parents, the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make Ogden their home.

The employees of the Boyle Furniture company and the Ogden Furniture company had a delightful outing Thursday.

OGDEN SOCIAL.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 5.—Wednesday afternoon Miss Marie E. Ames, a popular young lady of this city, became the wife of Harry Wright, a well known young railroad man. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Ensign, at the home of the bride's parents, the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties, Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make Ogden their home.

The employees of the Boyle Furniture company and the Ogden Furniture company had a delightful outing Thursday.

day afternoon and evening at the Harmitage in Ogden canyon. They partook of a delicious feast and then enjoyed dancing to music for several hours. These companies give their employees an outing each year.

The A. C. U. W. and, Degree of Honor gave an enjoyable ball at the Harmitage Wednesday evening which was participated in by a large crowd.

Next Saturday night the popular play, "The Burgomaster," will be presented at the Grand Opera House by a good company. This will be the opening of the theatrical season in Ogden for this year. Mr. Clark says he has some very fine bookings for the next few months.

In the Salt Lake Temple Wednesday Miss Lottie B. Foulger and Mr. Burdette Smith were married. They were given a family reception Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, on Twenty-fourth street. A bounteous spread was served in the dining room. Both the bride and groom are graduates of the University of Utah. Miss Foulger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frew Foulger and one of Ogden's most highly esteemed young ladies. The groom is the son of Dr. M. Smith of Pleasant Grove, Utah, and a young man of talent. They will reside in Ogden, Mr. Smith having accepted a position with the public schools.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rhine celebrated the crystal anniversary of their wedding at their pretty home on Fowler avenue. The home was very artistically decorated with carnations, roses, potted plants, and similar, each guest being furnished with a button hole bouquet. The evening was delightfully spent at cards, music, etc. A sumptuous spread was served in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Rhine are among Ogden's most prominent people. Mr. Rhine is one of the oldest and most popular conductors in the employ of the Union Pacific railroad. There were present at the reception over 30 of their friends. They received some very handsome cut glass presents.

Miss Annie L. Gibson and Henry Pennman, two popular young people of West Weber, were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. They returned home and were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents, which was participated in by about 150 friends. A bounteous repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Pennman have a pretty little home at West Weber, where they will reside.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the week took place Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cassin when their charming daughter, Miss Virginia, was wedded to Mr. Junius Clark, only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends being present. The home was artistically decorated with roses, carnations and evergreens. The bride is an accomplished young lady and the groom is the well known pharmacist employed at Gidding's drug store.

One of the leading social events of the week was the wedding of Miss Mary A. Littlefield and Wm. B. Isaacs, Jr., which took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. Alfred Brown of the Church of the Good Shepherd performing the ceremony. There were present only the contracting parties, and a few close friends. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. The bride is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Littlefield and a popular school teacher of the city. The groom is a prominent young man in the employ of the Southern Pacific, as assistant civil engineer on the Ogden-Lake out-off. Both are very popular in society circles. After a trip to the coast they will make their home in Ogden.

Miss Brown entertained a large circle of her lady friends Wednesday evening at her home on Lincoln avenue. Games, music and feasting were the pleasures of the evening.

Mrs. R. E. Hoag and daughter were Salt Lake visitors this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Eccles and family have returned home from their pleasant summer outing in Oregon.

Paul Shaffer and wife have gone to the coast on a month's pleasure trip.

Judge Thomas Maloney returned home this week from a pleasant trip through Montana.

Mrs. Lily Pye Bradford returned home from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting with her parents.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Provo, Sept. 5.—Mrs. F. J. Tilton and the Misses Schouder gave a most delightful lawn party at the residence of Mrs. Tilton on Tuesday evening. A canvas was spread on the lawn and the Mozart orchestra was stationed in the large bay window and furnished music. The lawn was dotted with rugs, easy chairs and tables, and card playing was also enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Lena Blackett of Nephi.

Mrs. Frank Thomas of Salt Lake is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Julia Jones.

Mrs. D. W. Roberts, Jr., was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. Thos. Barrett and Miss Mary Cristol of American Fork are the guests of Mrs. Angus Beebe.

Miss Ada Paxman returned this week from a visit to her sister and friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Thetie Hardy returned from Salt Lake, where she has been visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson have been entertaining their friend, Mrs. Ruth Wantland of Salt Lake, this week.

Mrs. Diana Smoot has removed from the old historic Smoot mansion and will spend most of her time at the home of her children. She is at present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beebe.

Miss Lydia Jones leaves for Logan this coming week to enter the A. C. college, where she will remain one year.

Miss Lettie Young of Kanosh is visiting with Mrs. Celestia Strong.

Mrs. Hyrum Jensen entertained a number of her friends informally at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Martha J. Pemberton and Mrs. Dr. D. Westhook entertained at a 6 o'clock luncheon on Monday afternoon. The event was in honor of Mrs. James E. Ayton of Washington, D. C., and earlier was beautifully decorated with potted plants and palms, and the elegant luncheon was charitably served. The guests were Mesdames J. E. Ayton, T. J. Bear, Elmer E. Corbin, R. Beck, R. B. Thurman, J. J. Nuan, S. H. Thurman, Emily G. Cliff, M. M. Keel, Edith B. Martin, A. A. Noel, Hoagland, Shephard, Hattie, Buckler, Chas. McLeod, Edith, Miles, Bell, Hoagland and Josephine Kellogg.

Mrs. J. Beck is spending a week in Salt Lake, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson.

Miss May Denland of Kansas City will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Nunn.

Mr. O. C. Beebe of Salt Lake was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beebe this week.

The many friends of Miss Vera Hardy will be pleased to learn that she will start from New York on Wednesday and will be warmly welcomed home this coming week.

LOGAN SOCIAL NEWS.

Logan, Sept. 4.—On Wednesday in the Logan temple occurred the ceremony which united in matrimony Mr. Charles D. Friday and Miss Winnifred Kimball. The groom is the enterprising son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Friday, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Kimball. The couple begin life together most auspiciously and we join with their friends in wishing them every happiness. A most enjoyable reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents Wednesday evening, at which a tempting repast was served, and various pastimes enjoyed. The couple will occupy the home on north Main street, recently vacated by Mr. Joseph Odell.

Misses Ida and Mabel Halladay left for Nephi during the week, where they will teach school.

Mrs. L. M. Mearty, mother of Supreme Court Justice McCarthy, is visiting with her brother, Mr. T. C. Cragan of Smithfield. The couple have not visited together before for 28 years.

Mrs. H. G. Hayball visited in Salt Lake during the week.

Miss Annie Nibley has been visiting with her grandparents, Presiding and Mrs. William Budge, in Paris, Idaho, during the past week or two.

Bishop E. B. Owen of Wellsville was in Logan Tuesday.

Messrs. Bert Robinson, Frank Shelton and others left for Red Banks in Logan canyon Wednesday for a week's outing.

Mrs. Shanefelt of Salt Lake is visiting with Mrs. H. G. Hayball.

A social party was given at the Hercules power plant one evening this week, which proved a very pleasant affair. The lawn at the power house was brightly illuminated, and tables were set under the trees. Various pastimes were enjoyed, in addition to a dainty feast. The guests were Misses, Norah and Jennie Elison, M. A. Torgeson, Josephine Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Croxall, Mr. and Mrs. Madison.

The Reading club was entertained very pleasantly by Mrs. Champ, Wednesday.

It will be pleasant news to the many old time friends of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bayntin to know that they are again established in Smithfield and expect to remain here permanently. They have resided at Los Banos, Cal., during the past year or two, but state that they feel much more contented in Utah than elsewhere. They were given an elaborate wedding repast. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers and evergreens. The bride is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Littlefield and a popular school teacher of the city. The groom is a prominent young man in the employ of the Southern Pacific, as assistant civil engineer on the Ogden-Lake out-off. Both are very popular in society circles. After a trip to the coast they will make their home in Ogden.

Judge Hart has returned from Provo and Brigham City, where he held court.

Mrs. Jesse Earl is visiting relatives in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bullen, Jr., have returned from a pleasant visit in Gentle valley.

Capt. H. D. Syder and family are rusticating in Bear Lake.

Miss Vivian Hatch is visiting with relatives in Heber City.

Mrs. Elias S. Kimball returned Wednesday from Yellowstone park.

Mrs. James H. Brown and Mrs. James Smith of Montpelier are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Croxall left for California Tuesday, where they will spend several weeks. Dr. F. H. Cutler takes charge of Dr. Croxall's office.

Mrs. E. T. Hyde entertained pleasantly Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thatcher.

A large number of distinguished visitors are in Logan to attend the Presbyterian celebration, among them being Mrs. Susan V. Parks, Mrs. M. A. Shorten, Rev. McNiece, Rev. G. W. Martin, Rev. Wishard and Supt. McAfee.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Brigham City, Sept. 4.—Wednesday Miss Dora House of Promontory and Lawrence L. Mortensen of this city, were united in marriage. Bishop L. N. Stohl performing the ceremony and Mrs. Mortensen are both popular young people and will make their home in this city.

Mrs. Emil Maeser of Salt Lake has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Loveland in this city the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomson of Kayaville, returned home Wednesday evening after spending a few days visiting Mr. Thomson's sister.

The Misses Von Wight and Cleo Forsgren were visitors to Salt Lake City during the week.

Mrs. Stewart of Provo is spending a week or two visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Jørgensen and sister of Millville were visiting in this city during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson and children have returned home from a month's visit with relatives over in Bear Lake.

Mrs. Clarence Wixon returned the fore part of the week from her visit with relatives in Salt Lake.

EUREKA SOCIAL NEWS.

John Rowe, a former resident of Eureka, but now in the employ of the Telluride Power company at Provo, was visiting friends here this week.

Miss D. Woods of Salt Lake was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Spelman this week.

Miss Annie Cronin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cronin is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Drew, at Park City.

The ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic church will serve ice cream, cake and lemonade to the citizens on Labor day.

The ladies of Mammoth Hive No. 7, L. O. T. M., will give a grand ball at Haswell's hall on the evening of Sept. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson McChrystal are spending the week at Salt Lake City, the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hanson returned Sunday from a two weeks outing spent in Ogden canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Schofield and son Clarence, visited Provo friends this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Beaver returned Monday night after a two weeks' vacation spent with relatives at Payson.

Edwin Lambson of this city and Marguerite Elmer of Provo, Utah, were granted a license to wed last week.

The Congregational church at Robinson was well filled last Monday night by the citizens of the twin camps, to witness the nuptials of George Rodney Chettle of Robinson and Miss Agnes Marsh of Manchester, England. Promptly at 8 o'clock the young couple, preceded by Miss Moore, best man, and Miss Katie Kerkendall bridesmaid, entered the church to the soft music of the wedding march and proceeded to the altar, where Rev. Thomas P. Oake pronounced the words that made them man and wife, thus ending a three years' courtship. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of chepe de chins with Brussels lace and chiffon trimmings. The bridesmaid, Miss Katie Kerkendall wore a beautiful dress of grey silk mull. The groom and his best man were attired in full evening dress. After the ceremony the newly married couple and their friends repaired to their residence, which they have recently furnished and there all partook of an elegant wedding supper that had been prepared. After several hours spent socially the guests departed for their homes wishing the young people a safe and successful journey through life. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kerkendall, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Cornish, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knaus, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. Townsend, Miss Katie Kerkendall and Mr. Bliss Moore.

Hon. W. H. Frazee and wife of Laramie, Wyo., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Love left for their home this week after a very pleasant visit.

UPPER FALLS RESORT.

Provo Canyon, Utah, Sept. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Donnan, St. Louis are visiting the Resort on their return home from a trip to California.

Mrs. C. H. Hahn, of Kansas City, Miss Eleanor Hahn and Mrs. Amanda Mullock of Salt Lake, spent Tuesday in the canyon.

E. H. Sparks Jr., wife and child spent a week here.

A jolly party chaperoned by Mrs. Doman, climbed to the Upper Falls and enjoyed a fine campfire dinner on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Cleaver of Salt Lake, have been spending a few days camping here.

W. H. Chapman and family returned to the city after a month's outing on Monday.

Mrs. G. L. Savage, Miss A. Scoville, Dr. Garrison spent two days' visiting the Hot Pots.

Mrs. Virginia Snow Stephen is proving her ability at rowing on the pond, having taken three excursion parties out the past week.

Robert J. Deighton of Salt Lake is enjoying a week's visit at the Resort.

A. W. Raybould, wife and two sons, spent several days fishing and climbing the Falls.

Camp fire, roast potato and baked apple parties are pleasing attractions at the resort these cool evenings.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

OPENING

Autumn Attractions

GET IN LINE. EVERYBODY! The people who know, are crowding here. It's the Store of Big Values and Little Prices. No need to wait for the money; a dollar or two will do. BUY WHAT YOU WANT. PAY WHEN YOU CAN.

Extension Tables.

18 sample extension tables, a gathering of splendid tables made of seasoned oak, strongly constructed and you can choose from either round or square styles, none worth less than $9.50 and many worth up to $11.00. Sample sale price—

$7.75

10 sample extension Tables, furniture of high degree, made of finest selected oak, with polished square tops and richly carved massive legs. They're $17, $18 and $19, qualities that this week's sale offers you at the special price—

$14.50

Sample Dressers

At Special Sale Prices.

12 sample dressers made in both oak and mahogany, with artistic fronts and splendid pattern mirrors, a great sale of $15 and $20 dressers at the special sample sale price of—

$13.75

10 sample Dressers made in artistic designs and in the newest ideas for the coming season, $28, $29 and $35 qualities, sample sale price—

$22.50

60 sample rockers in select oak or mahogany finish, cane, saddle or cobler leather seat, none worth less than $5.00 and many worth up to $6.50. Sample sale price—

$3.50

12 sample sideboards, high class and artistic conceptions, and exquisitely finished and thorough workmanship, regular $35 and $40 values, sample sale price—

$27.50

40 sample rockers in select oak or mahogany finish, cane, saddle or cobler leather seat, none worth less than $5.00 and many worth up to $6.50. Sample sale price—

$3.50

P. W. Madsen's

Furniture & Carpet Store

Cash or Credit. 51 to 57 East First South. Cash or Credit.

Cash or Credit.

Cash or Credit.

Cash or Credit.

A GOLD BOND

That pays 4 per cent interest is considered a gilt-edge investment. A savings deposit with the

Utah Commercial & Savings Bank

Pays 4 per cent and is as good as

A GOLD BOND.

GREEN, FANCY, IMPORTED AND STAPLE GROCERIES, FISH, CURED MEATS, POULTRY, ETC.

TELEPHONES: No. 344 No. 965 No. 966

Wholesale Trade Especially Solicited.

W. S. Henderson,

267-269-271 So. Main St., Salt Lake City, Utah.

WHOLESALE. RETAIL.

Guaranteed Sale

Boys' and Girls' Shoes.

AFTER years of experiment in the making of Children's Footwear, we have arranged with a competent manufacturer to make, according to our own ideas, Shoes for Boys' and Girls', any pair of which will Positive-ly Outwear Any Two Pair of Shoes Heretofore Offered. We will not go into the details of this new epoch in the making of Children's Shoes, suffice to say,

A NEW PAIR WILL BE GIVEN FOR UNSATISFACTORY WEAR OF ANY OF THESE SHOES.

They are made on special lasts, of our own design, and built on true foot-form principles. We have them in all leathers, light, medium and heavy weight soles, and you'll always find here competent salespeople to fit the foot correctly.

The first shipment of these shoes are here, and in order to more thoroughly introduce them, we have made price concessions that will save you