REMISSION OF FINES AND COSTS

IMPOSED ON U. S. CONVICTS—ALSO REWARDS OF PRISONERS FOR GOOD CONDUCT—LAWS RELATING TO THE SUBJECT.

IN RELATION TO REMISSION OF FINES AND COSTS.

SEC. 1042. Revised Statutes of the United States.

When a poor convict, sentenced by any court of the United States to pay a fine, or fine and cost, whether with or without imprisonment, has been confined in prison thirty days, solely for the non-payment of such fine, or fine and cost, he may make application in writing to any commissioner of the United States court in the district where he is imprisoned, setting forth his inability to pay such fine, or fine and cost, and after notice to the district attorney of the United States, who may appear, offer evidence, and be heard, the commissioner shall proceed to hear and determine the matter; and if on examination it shall appear to him that such convict is unable to pay such fine, or fine and cost, and that he has not any property exceeding $20 in value, except such as is by law exempt from being taken on execution for debt, the commissioner shall administer to him the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I have not any property, real or personal, to the amount of $20, except such as is by law exempt from being taken on civil precept for debt by the laws of (State where oath is administered); and that I have no property in any way conveyed or concealed, or in any way disposed of for my future use or benefit. So help me God." And thereupon such convict shall be discharged, the commissioner giving to the jailor or keeper of the jail a certificate setting forth the facts.

THE TERRITORIAL STATUTE ON EXEMPTIONS.

SEC. 570. (Laws of 1884) The following property is exempt from execution, except as herein otherwise specially provided:

1. Chairs, tables, desks and books, to the value of two hundred dollars, belonging to the judgment debtor.

2. Necessary household, table and kitchen furniture, belonging to the judgment debtor, to the value of three hundred dollars; also one sewing machine, hanging pictures, oil paintings and drawings, drawn or painted by any member of the family, and portraits and their necessary frames, provisions, actually provided for individual or family use, sufficient for three months; two cows with their sucking calves, and two hogs and all suckling pigs;

3. The farming utensils or implements of husbandry of a farmer not exceeding in value the sum of three hundred dollars; also two oxen, or two horses, or two mules, and their harness, one cart or wagon, and food for such oxen, horses, cows or mules for sixty days; also, all seed, grain, or vegetables actually provided, reserved or on hand for the purpose of planting or sowing at any time within the ensuing six months, not exceeding in value the sum of two hundred dollars;

4. The tools, tool chest and implements of a mechanic or artisan, necessary to carry on his trade, not exceeding in value the sum of five hundred dollars; the notarial seal and records of a notary public; the instruments and chests of a surgeon, physician, surveyor, and dentist, necessary to the exercise of their professions, with their scientific and professional libraries, and the law professional libraries and office furniture of attorneys, counselors and judges, and the libraries of ministers of the gospel;

5. The cabin or dwelling of a miner not exceeding in value the sum of five hundred dollars; also his sluices, pipes, hose, windlass, derrick, cars, pumps, and tools, not exceeding in value two hundred dollars;

6. Two oxen, two horses or two mules, and their harness; and a cart or wagon, one dray or truck, by the use of which a cartman, drayman, truckman, huckster, peddler, hackman, teamster or other laborer habitually earns his living; and one horse with vehicle and harness, or other equipments, used by a physician, surgeon or minister of the gospel, in making his professional visits, with hay and grain for said horse, sufficient for three months;

7. One-half of the earnings of the judgment debtor for his personal services, rendered at any time within sixty days next preceding the levy of execution or levy of attachment, when it appears by the debtor's affidavit or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of his family, residing in this Territory, supported wholly or in part by his labors;

8. All moneys, benefits, privileges, or immunities accruing, or in any manner growing out of any life insurance on the life of the debtor, if the annual premiums paid do not exceed five hundred dollars.

9. All arms, ammunition, uniforms and accoutrements, required by law to be kept by any person;

10. All court houses, jails, public offices and buildings, school houses, houses of public worship, lots, grounds and personal property appertaining thereto, the fixtures, furniture, books, papers and appurtenances belonging and pertaining to the court house, jail and public offices belonging to any county in this Territory, or for the use of schools or houses of public worship, and all cemeteries, public squares, parks and places, public buildings, town halls, public markets, buildings for the use of fire departments and military organizations, and the lots and grounds thereto belonging and appertaining, owned or held by any town or incorporated city, or dedicated by such town or city to health, ornament, or public use, or for the use of any fire or military company, now existing, or which may be under the laws of this Territory hereafter organized.

11. If the debtor be the head of a family, there shall be a further exemption of a homestead, to be selected by the debtor, consisting of lands, together with the appurtenances and improvements thereon, not exceeding in value the sum of one thousand dollars, for the judgment debtor, and the further sum of five hundred dollars for his wife and two hundred and fifty dollars for each other member of the family. If the homestead selected by the debtor is of a greater value than is exempted under this section, it shall be optional with the judgment debtor to permit the same to be partitioned or to be sold; and to receive in money the value of the homestead as provided in this section. If the debtor so elect, the homestead may be sold as other lands are sold on execution, and, after paying the debtor the value of the homestead, the balance of the money shall be applied upon the judgment; Provided, That the homestead shall not be sold if the officer do not receive a bid for a greater amount than the value of the homestead exempted in this section. If sold on the judgment, the money paid the debtor for the homestead shall be exempt from that or any other execution. If the officer having the execution, and the judgment debtor, cannot agree as to the value of the homestead, or the partition thereof, or as to the quantity and value of any of the articles of personal property in this section exempted, the officer shall select one person and the debtor another person, both being householders of the vicinity, to whom the officer shall administer an oath, to fairly and justly appraise and set apart the exempt property of the judgment debtor, concerning which there is a disagreement between him and the officer. If the disagreement relates to the value of the homestead, or to the partition thereof, the appraisers shall report to the officer their appraisal of the property selected for the homestead. If the debtor elect to have the property partitioned, it shall be the duty of the appraisers to set apart such a homestead as the judgment debtor shall elect and be entitled to, under the provisions of this section. In case of the disagreement of the appraisers, they shall chose a third person, who shall also be sworn, and the decision of any two of said appraisers, when made, shall be final. The property not set apart as a homestead shall be subject to sale, under execution, the proceeds to be applied on the judgment. No article, however, or species of property mentioned in this section is exempt from execution issued upon a judgment recovered for its purchase price, or any portion thereof, or upon a judgment for foreclosure of a mortgage or a mechanics' or laborers' lien thereon, or exempt from sale for taxes.

AN ACT TO LESSEN THE TERMS OF SENTENCE OF CONVICTS FOR GOOD CONDUCT.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah: That it shall be the duty of the Warden of the Utah Penitentiary to keep a record in which he shall enter a statement of every infraction of the prison rules committed by any of the convicts. At the end of each month, he shall certify upon said record to the good conduct of each convict who has not been guilty of an infringement of any of the rules.

SEC. 2. Each convict sentenced for any period less than life, who has not been guilty of a breach of the rules of discipline of the prison, shall be entitled to a reduction of the period of sentence, as hereinafter provided; and when the full term of imprisonment for which any convict has been sentenced by the Court shall be diminished by his good conduct under the provisions of this Act, so that the term of imprisonment has thereby expired, the Warden of the penitentiary shall immediately furnish the Secretary of the Territory a certificate stating the length of time his term of imprisonment has been so diminished, and no objections appearing to the Governor, the convict shall be released.

SEC. 3. The following deductions shall be allowed to convicts for good conduct: From the term of sentence of three months, fifteen days; from a term of six months, thirty days; from a term of one year, two calendar months; thus a one year convict shall be entitled to a discharge at the expiration of ten months. If the term be for any time greater than one year, the service for the second year, or portion thereof, shall begin at the expiration of ten months, which shall stand for a service of one year. On a second year the convict shall be entitled to a reduction of three calendar months; thus a service of one year and seven months shall be sufficient for a term of two years. The service of a third year, or fraction thereof, shall begin at the expiration of one year and seven months; four calendar months shall be allowed on said third year; thus a service of two years and three months shall be sufficient for a term of three years. For a term of four years, the service of the fourth, or portion thereof, shall begin at the expiration of two years and three months, and on the fourth year five months shall be allowed, thus a service of two years and ten months shall be sufficient for a term of four years. In a term of five years the service of the fifth year, or portion thereof, shall begin at the expiration of two years and ten months, and from the fifth year there shall be a deduction of six calendar months; thus a service of three years and four months shall be sufficient for a term of five years. For all time in excess of five years there shall be a deduction of one-half for such time.

SEC. 4. In all terms of sentence terminating intermediately between those terms hereinbefore specified, the deduction shall be proportionate to those named in the foregoing section.

SEC. 5. For a violation of the rules the convict shall be liable to forfeit all his reduction time for the month in which the infraction occurs. If the offense or offenses be aggravated or frequent, the Warden or other officer in charge shall have power to punish the offender by depriving him of all or any portion of his reduction time earned previous to the commission of said offense or offenses. Provided, That any convict who may feel himself aggrieved by the action of the Warden or other officer in charge in such cases, shall have the right to appeal, in writing, to the Governor of the Territory, which writing shall include a statement of facts, and the evidence and reasons of the appellant for considering himself unjustly dealt with. Should the Governor, upon investigation, deem the complaint of the convict well grounded, he shall have power to credit back to said convict the earned reduction time of which he has been deprived.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect forthwith after its passage and approval, and all unexpired terms of sentence then pending shall be created in accordance with the foregoing provision.

SEC. 7. That Chapter XI of the Laws of Utah, 1880, entitled "An Act allowing reward to convicts and commuting their term of sentence for Meritorious Conduct," be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved March 11, 1886.
