

PRICE OF GOLD.

San Francisco, Sept. 14, 1871.
SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 14, 1871.
SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 14, 1871.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 75.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SOCIAL PARTY.—There will be a Social party in the 8th Ward Assembly Rooms, on Tuesday evening next, to assist Bro. Wm. Spring on his mission to England.

THEIR MANNER.—The Montanians say that the Montanians have a way of treating public lectures to howls, fire-crackers, whistles, torpedoes, rockets, loose gunpowder, eggs, wet water, and such like misdeeds, and the Montanians evidently think a little affair a jolly good thing, all which indicates the whirling up of the inhabitants of the Stinking Water country.

WHERE WAS THE MARSHAL.—An exchange says: "Near Calvert, Texas, Aug. 28, an attempt was made by a negro to violate the person of a lady. She defended herself with a pocket-knife, and killed the negro almost instantly." Lucky for her, the marshal or deputy marshal was around, or else a deputy and half a dozen soldiers would have been after her with an adjutant as soon as midnight had arrived.

NO.—The Chicago Times says, "Four married men, all church deacons, were found in a house of ill-fame in Fort Dodge, (Iowa) 'yesterday night.' What of that, as things go, certain judicial and executive deacons are near away. Tonight several deacons at your peril. If you do, look out for a midnight posse."

BOOTH'S OYSTERS.—By the kindness of Messrs. Brewer and Lapham, in the basement of Goddard's new store, on East Temple St., the inmates of the sanctum were regaled to-day with a can of Booth's oysters. They were large and fresh, and as good as any as if picked from the bed in their previous. Messrs. Brewer and Lapham are wholesale agents for Booth's oysters.

MONTANA AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The second annual Fair of the Montana Agricultural, Mineral, and Mechanical Association is to commence Sept. 25, at Helena, and continue a week. "Races every day." Races take the big premiums—rising to $400. It is intended to make the Fair "the finest exhibition of the kind that has ever been held west of the Mississippi."

RAILROAD MASS MEETING AT OGDEN.—The Junction of yesterday afternoon that a mass meeting of the citizens of Weber county will be held at the Territorial Hotel, on Saturday, at 1 p.m., for the purpose of taking necessary steps to aid in the construction of the Utah Northern Railroad. It is expected that books will then be opened for subscription in the railroad arrangements made to let contracts for work. The Junction says:

As to the benefits of this road to us, there is no need to argue. Everybody can see that easy and swift communication with the Northern counties—destined to be the great granaries of this Territory—will be of incalculable value both to them and us. It is bound to be the great distributing centre for Northern Utah; this road settles the question and makes this more than ever the Junction city. There are a few times ahead, and those who want to hasten their aid in the construction of the road by aiding in the construction of the Utah Northern Railroad.

THE "LADY OF THE LAKE."—This beautiful, little river steamer, owned by John W. Young, Esq., is now plying on the Jordan, and is making several pleasure trips daily, as far as Eitan's Point, when the steamer is repaired to prevent the water running into the Hot Spring Lake, the steamer will be able to proceed as far as Salt Lake. For small parties the "Lady of the Lake" is just the thing. Excursions by steamer are a novelty in Utah, and as by means of this splendid little steamer parties can now avail themselves of the pleasure they afford, they will soon no doubt become very popular.

VERY NEAR IT.—An interviewer called upon the abolitionist Rosenzweig and one answer is thus recorded: "I know nothing about it. You make what adulatory you like. A reborder he always makes his own way." The old German is a man of an old racial, but he has the "reborders" there. The "adherents" of "reborders" and "correspondents" are too often manufactured to order, or something very like it, as is well known in this region.

MR. J. A. PERKINS.—There are messages at the Deseret Telegraph office for you.

BETTER THAN UTAH.—"Chunky" Johnson writes from the Cottonwood mines, Utah: "If I had the 'Pacific' in Utah you could get hundreds of thousands for it. I think it is far better ledge than any I have examined in Utah."

FUNERAL OBITUARY.—The funeral obituary of Alice Jane, daughter of Edward and Ann Callister, took place, at the 7th and school house, this morning at 10 a.m., when a number of friends and relatives of the family assembled and remarks appropriate to the occasion, were made by Elders Angus M. Cannon, Charles Lamberton and Moses Thornton.

NOT A HOWARD.—The impression was made regarding the peculiar individual who calls himself the "Great Unknown," when he made his advent here, was that him, wife and his hair restorer were complete humbugs, and seeing him pass along the streets with his great bush of hair and a small stove-pipe hat stuck on the summit of it, like a beehive on a small haystack did not at all tend to remove the impression. We were convinced the other day, however, by Mr. Charles W. Stayer, that there is virtue in the Hair Restorer.

This gentleman showed us the top of his head, which a month ago was smoothly bald, but upon which there now appears, upon the forehead (so far as capillary substance is concerned) a new growth of hair, and notwithstanding the testaceous barren nature of the summit of Charles W's cranium, there is a fair prospect of his attaining at least an average crop within a few months. The rest of the few weeks' application of the "Great Unknown Hair Restorer" for which Mr. Stayer is agent. This is doubtless a promising new hair restorer, for it is claimed for this Restorative that where the roots of the hair are not destroyed, it will start to them new vigor and send out fresh shoots.

GOING TO UTAH.—The Montanians say: "Almost weekly men leave Montana and go west to invest their money in the Territory and develop its resources. Within a year men of means have gone from Madison County to Utah, because the land is so cheap, and have invested the money made here in that Territory."

The editor, however, believes in Montana, so he sticks there. He says: "Now we do not question the right of any man to do what in his judgment is best for himself. We certainly should go elsewhere if we did not believe Montana—if it is not now will be the best region on the Continent for business and a home."

Utah may or may not be the best place in the world for a home, but it does very well for us for the present.

There is a message for Henry Avery at the Western Union Telegraph Office.
