Some Past History in Political Life of Idaho Storm Starter.

The following open letter to Senator Fred T. Dubois, who is now directing the destinies of the Democratic party in Idaho and who has succeeded in shaping the Democratic platform and ticket to suit his own ends, appears in the Pocatello Tribuhe of Wednesday last. It says:

assure them that those older men who were living in the polygamous relation, who had growing families which they Hon, Fred T. Dubeis, United States Senator of Idaho;

Dear Sir:--You are the son of that celebrated Doctor Jesse K. Dubols of Springfield, Illinois, the bosom friend of the immortal Abraham Lincoln and one of the founders of the Republican party. You were nurtured in an at-mosphere of Republicanism and of party loyalty.

You came to Idaho, then a young territory, and received your first office, that of United States marshal, at the hands of a Republican president, and through the influence of Republicans. A little later on you organized the old anti-"Mormon" party, which was effective in the southeast, and you were elected as delegate to Congress-a Republican in the North and an anti-"Mormon" in the South. This office you were twice honored with,

Still later on when statehood was acquired, you were honored by a Repub-lican legislature with the election to the United States senate, winning the six year term from George L. Shoup and W. J. McConnell.

Toward the end of your term you be-came a so-called Silver Republican, leading the holting delegation from the St. Louis National convention and car-rying two-thirds of the Republican

The present Senator Hey-burn was the only mun in that whole convention who had the courage to rise and plead that the Republicans of Ida-ho remain loyal to the national party. and he was supported by a mere dozen. He was jeered at and Senator Shoup, our mational committeeman, was refused the empty honor of an election as delegate from Idaho. After the bolt at St. Louis you immediately began negotiations with William J. Beyan, presidential candidate on the
