itting Bull Recuperating in Britis WASHINGTON, 14.-Major Walsh of the Canadian mounted police has visited Sitting Bull, near the head waters of Frenchman's Creek. Sitting Bull said he desired to remain with the Canadians during the summer; that he would do nothing against the law. He came there because he was tired of fighting, and if he could not make a living in Canada he would return to the United States. Spotted Eagle, Rain-in-the-face, Medicine Sear, and a number of other chiefs of the bostile Sloux were present, Eagle, Rain-in-the-face, Medicine Bear, and a number of other chiefs of the hostile Sioux were present, together with about 200 lodges of Indians. They were told that they would be allowed ammunition for hunting purposes, and should any hunting purposes, and should any hunting purposes, to the American Marauders, does not exceed 1,200 men. It is the intention of the naval authorities to arm bunting purposes, and should any of their people cross to the American side and commit any depredations the chiefs would be held responsible and punished.
