

not flattering was not discouraging, and the rise in antimony has made it possible to ship it with profit.

Recently Mr. Fred. W. Day, well known to Utah mining men, has become associated with Mr. Loomis, and they are pushing this work of development ahead. One carload of ten tons will be at Juab this week.

Coyote Cañon is wide with precipitous sides, which are cut into chasms, gulches, towers, pyramids, etc., which possess nearly every color, dark red, yellow and grey predominating. There is an abundance of water for machinery, wood and saw timber, and the writer is willing to risk his reputation as a good guesser that "Antimony City" will yet be one of the liveliest places in Utah, for if antimony is worth anything the "city" has a big foundation.

Will leave this Marysvale camp for a future communication, with this remark that we calculate to have our "boom" if printers ink will bring it, and we can stand a tremendous one if it will bring plenty of cash. As it is now "tangle-leg" can't be procured on "jaw-bone" (no matter how big) and the "boys" take naturally to Sevier water as the next worst beverage.

Respectfully,

RAMBLER.

Catarrhal POISON

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.
2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea, and Consumption.
5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony.
