PERILOUS FALL OF A MINER.

Patsy Fitzgerald Thrown 75 Feet Down Mountain Side Breaking Both Arms.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL ROMANCE.

Funeral of Peter A. Stone—Death of Mrs. J. O. Webster—School Board Affairs.

Ogden, Utah, April 22.—Patsy Fitzgerald, a resident of Cripple Creek, Colorado, met with serious injuries yesterday afternoon in Ogden canyon, as the result of which he will be laid up at the Ogden General hospital for a considerable time.

Mr. Fitzgerald was engaged at work in the canyon drilling a hole in a rock a considerable distance up the side of the mountain, and a short distance from the mouth of the canyon. He was going to put in a blast of powder and was using a heavy iron bar to make an opening in the rocks. The bar in some way slipped, striking Fitzgerald a heavy blow on the body, knocking him down the mountain side nearly 75 feet over the rough boulders. He was not knocked unconscious, but was badly stunned, and when picked up by two men, it was found that both of his arms were broken. The injured man was brought to the hospital, where Drs. Powers and Forbes attended him. They found that his injuries consisted of a fracture of the right arm at the shoulder, and his left arm is broken at the elbow. His left hand is badly broken in places, but the physicians do not know if he received any internal injuries. Mr. Fitzgerald is about 38 years of age and a miner by profession, and was doing some prospecting when the accident occurred.

WEDDED AND ARRESTED.

Wedded and arrested in 10 minutes was the happy and unhappy experience of Harry Simmons, a former inmate of the state Industrial school yesterday. After being married in the school on the school grounds he was arrested by police officers.

ported on the school population and apportionment of funds in the city and county. In the entire county there are 9,325 school children between the ages of six and 18 years, and the apportionment is $8,952.96 cents per capita. Ogden City has a school population of 6,950, and the apportionment of funds to the city is $5,988. Weber county outside of the city has 3,275 school population, and its apportionment is $3,144.

The board was notified that it must appoint, this month, the associate examiners to act on the examining board under the new law.

COUNTY SCHOOL GRADUATES.

The county schools of Weber county will this season graduate about ninety pupils from their eighth grades. Owing to the fact that the schools do not all close on the same day, the time of the time of commencement is a problem.

This will be determined at a meeting of the trustees of all the school districts with the county superintendent, W. N. Peterson.

The exercises will probably be held in the tabernacle some time in the latter part of May.

RAILROAD CONTROVERSY ENDED.

The spur of the Rio Grande Western connecting with the Oregon Short Line railroad, which connects with the hardware company's warehouse, was built yesterday noon in less than a hour's time, and the long hard fought controversy as to right of way has been ended at last. A gang of over 100 men were put to work by E. E. Stevens, manager of the hardware company, and the work rushed through and in a short time several car loads of stone for the new warehouse was delivered by the R. G. W.

longing to the partnership amounts to two or three hundred thousand dollars. With this amount of money involved it is needless to say that the case is being contested with great strenuousness on both sides.

The plaintiffs rested their case this morning, but if the non-suit which is now being argued is overruled, the case will consume the greater part of next week in its trial.

Judge Booth of Provo will be here on Monday next to try the murder case of Edward C. Woods, who is charged with killing Alvin, Alma, White and Lester at Fish Springs. This and some other cases in which Judge Greenwood is disengaged to try will be heard by Judge Booth.

COALVILLE.

NEW JAIL FOR SUMMIT.

Co op's Spring opening Lindsay Drama Co. Rain and Show.

Special Correspondence.

Coalville, Summit Co., April 20.—The meetings of the Priesthood and auxiliary organizations were held at Oakley on the 15th.

A ward conference was held in Oakley, Sunday, April 16, 1905. All the affairs of the ward are in good condition. No change.

The Coalville Co-op had its spring opening today of new goods. Its show windows were beautiful to look upon, and displayed as fine goods as can be seen in any city.

It has been raining and snowing at times all week, and there are no signs of its clearing up yet.

John S. Lindsey is here with his drama troupe. He played "Desire" last night and to-night "East Lynn."

The county commissioners held a special session last Monday, they decided to erect a new jail this summer for which plans and specifications are being drawn up by Thomas L. Allen.

TORREY.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

William R. Heath Caught by a Falling Roof and Crushed to Death.

Special Correspondence.

Torrey, Wayne Co., April 18.—The remains of William R. Heath of Natomis will be here this afternoon, and will be laid to rest in the Torrey cemetery tomorrow.

The deceased was 47 years of age, and was the son of the late James H. Heath. He met his death in an accident, which occurred at Natomis yesterday. He and his son Adelbert were taking down a house, when the roof fell, inflicting injuries on the deceased which resulted in death an hour later. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint and a kind father.

He leaves a wife and a ten-year-old daughter, and a brother and a sister.

The fruit crop in Torrey is very promising at the present time.

Geo. Burr of Burville, has moved to Torrey. Several more families are expected to move here in the near future, and when the canal is completed and water obtained for the farming land, Torrey will be one of the prosperous towns of southeastern Utah.

Sheep shearing will begin in this part on April 24.

RHEUMATIC PAINS QUICKLY RELIEVED.

The rheumatic and sciatic are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Reliever. The great saving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.

ROBIN, IDAHO.

A STANCH VETERAN DEAD.

Wm. Capell Lays Down Life's Burdens—Respected by All Who Knew Him.

Special Correspondence.

Robbin, Bannock Co., Ida., April 18.—William Capell died here last Sunday from a paralytic stroke. He had been treated for the disease at Brightwood.

The funeral services were held in the ward meeting house on Tuesday. The speakers were James Henderson, Soren J. Lauritsen, Geo. A. Smith, John H. Stinger, John Marcey and Wm. Jenkins. All eulogized the sterling qualities of the deceased and his integrity to the truth. The house was crowded with people from all the neighborhood and the surrounding country, as Elder Capell was highly esteemed as a life, a father, a grandfather, a host of friends.

He was born Nov. 27, 1828, at Woodford, Northamptonshire, England, was baptized in 1849, and came to Farmington, Utah, in Nov. 1873, where he remained about two years. In 1876 he removed to Marsh valley, Idaho, where he resided ever since.

He was Presiding Elder here till the organization of this (Garden Creek) ward, when his son, Joseph E. Capell was born. Brightwood, the first ward steps in the foundation of the ward, was ever ready and willing in the performance of his duties, and he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all people.

He was a loving husband, a kind father, a generous neighbor, a patriotic citizen and a faithful Latter-day Saint. He died without enmity toward any one, with a blessing upon his lips for all humanity.
