DIXON COMING HOME.

Former Ring Champion Taken Care of

By Congressman Suffixan. George Dixon, for many years the greatest little fighter for his inches in the world, is soon to return to America, the scene of his former ring triumphs. The colored boy will come back to the United States when Congressman Tim-othy D. Suffixen returns from abroad. He will be one of the Suffixen party, in fact, and will travel just the same as he used to do when he was beating every-body of his weight in the country and winning a fortune for himself and his backers.

By Congressman Sullivan.

The battles of interest scheduled in this vicinity this week are Willie Fitzgorald and Jack O'Keefs at Grand Rapids, and Mike Schreek and John Willie arranged to take place on an excursion boat on the Mississippi. The winner of the last named contest, like the winner of the Ruhlin-McCornick fight, will keep the wires hot trying to inveigle Marvin Hart into a match. The Grand Rapids affair will bring together two of the eleverosit lightweights in the business, and their bout should be gingery and snappy from the first to the last tap of the bell.

Winning a fortune for himself and his backers. Big-hearted Tim Sullivan found the lit-tle fighter broke in London, where for some time he has been making a pre-carious living fighting in preliminary bouts before the sporting clubs. His im-mediate wants were attended to, and he was told that he could come back home with the Sullivan party. When Dixon went to London the first time he was the pet of the sporting fra-ternity. They couldn't do enough for him. Is was stated then that he had make $100,000 in the ring for himself and his manager. He was placed as being all right if he never fought another fight. He could, in those days, command $100 a great deal easier than he was made a shilling.

i great deal easier than he can now con-nand a shilling. Dixon was born in Nova Scotia in 1810. He is still in first class physical con-dition, despite his age, but the tricks of his trade have all descried him. Dixon fought more ring battles than any man on earth. He tips the scales today at the same weight that he made years ago-120 pounds.
