IMPORTANT RAILROAD PROJECT.

Distance Between Salt Lake and Denver to be Shortened 200 Miles.

Special to the "Deseret News."
Denver, Aug. 4.—The Denver and Salt Lake railroad project, which has been under consideration for some time, is now being actively pushed. The project is to build a new line from Denver to Salt Lake, which would shorten the distance between the two cities by 200 miles. The new line would follow a more direct route than the existing lines, and would be built at a cost of $10,000,000. The project is being pushed by the Denver and Salt Lake railroad company, which is a joint venture of the Denver and Salt Lake railroad company and the Denver and Salt Lake railroad company.
