LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Women's Republican club is discussing today, "The Labor Problem in Chicago."

Sheriff Mair of Park City is in the city today on official business. He came down to testify in a case in the district court.

There will be a rehearsal tomorrow evening, in the Calvary Baptist church, in preparation for the entertainment of the 17th inst.

The Home Protective league is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. G. F. Goodwin, where the topic for discussion is "Religious Influence of the Home."

J. H. White has been over to Antelope island, and says that there must be 16 square miles of dry lake bottom between the island and the mainland to the southeast.

Mrs. E. D. Jenks of 13 Seneca street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes to the editor of this city inquiring as to the whereabouts of one Charles Simmons. But up to date he has not been located.

The lecture on the Book of Mormon will be given on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, in Barratt hall. The subject is: "The Rise and Progress of the Book of Mormon." The public is invited.

W. A. Needham, manager of the retail dry goods department of Z. C. M. I., has returned from a six weeks' visit in New York and other large eastern cities in the interest of his firm. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Needham.

James C. Lynch, the miner who was hurt by falling down the Daisy shaft at Mercur, died yesterday, at the Keown-Wright hospital from his injuries. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. from St. Mary's cathedral.

Madame Rohman, manager of Z. C. M. I. millinery department has returned from a business visit to the large eastern trade centers. While in New York she engaged the services of Miss Louise Allison, as trimmer, for her department.

The secretary of the state board of health reports 47 cases of smallpox at Moroni, and 40 cases at Fairview during January and part of February last. Dr. Beatty says that of the 47 cases at Moroni not one had previously been vaccinated.

The State Bank of Utah has received a letter from Germany asking the whereabouts of Franz Schmidt, who left Grosschedlitz, Lennburg, about 10 years ago and located in Salt Lake. Information addressed to the bank will be thankfully received.

William Wilson of Park City, brother of Mrs. Thomas Kearns, died yesterday, from nervous collapse, at the age of 38. High mass will be held in the Catholic church at Park City, tomorrow morning, and the remains will be brought to this city by special train at 10.30 a. m., and interred at Mt. Olivet.

Writing from Logan to the "News," Elder Mariner W. Merrill evinces interest in the investigation now going on at Washington, and adds: "I have three sons there and would have been there myself had I been able to go." Elder Merrill says he has been in bed most of the past week and feels very poorly.

Elder A. Milton Musser delivered his very interesting lecture "Around the World Without Pass or Scrip," in the Fifth ward meetinghouse last night. The lecture was much enjoyed and was well punctuated with humorous references to experiences in and about Karachi, India. Next month Elder Philip S. Maycock will be the speaker.

The new Holmes apartment building is being lathed and plastered, a very complete heating apparatus is being put in, and the debris of the masons cleaned out. Mr. Bradford has contracted with the Westinghouse people to install in the great building, three large boilers, and three Westinghouse engines with complete electric power plant for the running of the elevator and the fire.

ishing of the lights, and such other purposes as may be desired. This apparatus is of the very latest and best, and money is not being spared to make a success of it.

Contractor Campbell of the Federal building has secured 2,000 feet of Kynite stone from Ashton, Whyte & Skillcorn, with which he will be able to supply the lack of supply from the Oliver quarry, so that work will not be delayed as was feared. Mr. Campbell resumes active operations next Monday morning, when the big derricks that were whipped early in the winter, will be reset. Mr. Campbell says the great difficulty in operating Utah quarries is the amount of stripping that has to be done, and the almost certainty of finding that volcanic action has broken up the stone when the quarry has been well opened up.

A special constitution and lesson topic card have been adopted by the national committee of Prison Christian Endeavor, and the society in the Utah state prison was supplied yesterday, with a copy of the new constitution for their special guidance. It was found some time ago that the instrument prepared for societies in civic life did not fit the prison field, and not a few of the lesson topics were inappropriate. So the last biennial convention of the United society appointed a national prison committee to attend to this matter, with Col. J. E. Wood of Santa Fe, N. M., as chairman. It is now proposed to make this committee a permanent organization.

LAST TRIBUTES TO A GOOD WOMAN.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of Mrs. Teenie Smoot Taylor—Many Friends Mourn With Bereaved Family.

MRS. TEENIE SMOOT TAYLOR.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, March 7.—Very impressive funeral services were held Saturday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Teenie Smoot Taylor in the stake tabernacle, attended by a very large congregation of relatives and friends of the departed. Members of the Brigham Young university faculty, members of the city council and the former city council, of which Mr. Taylor was a member, gathered at the residence and accompanied the remains to the tabernacle. The speakers' stand had been tastefully draped in white and decorated with cut and potted plants and flowers by the Fifth Ward Young Ladies' M. I. association and students of the university, and the casket, which was placed in front of the speakers' stand, was covered with a profusion of beautiful floral offerings.

On the stand were seated the presidency of the stake, members of the university faculty, members of the High Council, and prominent visitors, among them Hon. George Sutherland, Judge W. H. King, and President Joseph E. Taylor, of Salt Lake stake.

THE SERVICES.

Bishop Moroni Snow of the Fifth ward presided over the services. The following members of the university faculty officiated as pallbearers: E. D. Partridge, B. S. Hinckley, J. E. Hickman, N. L. Nelson, J. L. Brown and J. C. Swenson.

Beautiful vocal selections were rendered by the university choir under the direction of Prof. A. C. Lund.

The services opened by the choir singing: "Come Unto Me."

Prayer was offered by Elder H. H. Clark and trio consisted of Miss Florence Jensen, Messrs. Andelin and McAllister sang "Some Time, Somewhere."

DR. BRIMHALL.

Dr. George H. Brimhall was the first speaker. He referred to the address that naturally followed the assembling together to pay the last respects to one who has labored in the cause of the kingdom of God.

He spoke of the great work done by the pioneers, and admonished their children to follow their example, and to be of the noble character of the departed.

A quartet composed of Messrs. Reid, McAllister, Andelin and Acord sang, "Farewell, all earthly honors."

Elder E. S. Hinckley spoke of the great efforts of Sister Taylor in working for the advancement of education, and intellectual life in the community, of her noble motherhood and wifehood, which was a priceless legacy left to the family; a monument to her memory should be erected to her memory and example of Sister Taylor might ever be present to guide and guard her children and keep them from yielding to temptations, and that in the reunion of the family might be happy, glorious and complete.

JOSEPH B. KEELER.

President Joseph B. Keeler spoke of the energy and ability of Sister Taylor, who not only was a model mother and homemaker, but found time to let her influence spread abroad and benefit the community. That her work was appreciated was shown by the large congregation attending these services.

S. L. CHIPMAN.

President S. L. Chipman spoke of the noble virtues and integrity of the deceased, her faith in the Gospel, her desire to do right. He prayed the Lord to bless Brother Taylor and the family and that all might so live that it becomes time to pass from this stage of existence we may be welcomed as "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Bishop Snow paid a strong tribute to Sister Taylor and her work, among the young people in the ward, and expressed high appreciation of the assistance she had been to him since he became Bishop of the ward.

"Rest" was rendered by the choir, and President Lafayette Holbrook offered the benediction.

A large cortege followed the remains to the cemetery, where the grave was dedicated by President Joseph B. Keeler.

NOW IS THE TIME TO LET YOUR CONTRACTS BEFORE THE SPRING RUSH.

Let us make you a price; we are not building the best houses in town, but good as any and better than many, we are always glad to show you our work, and let you be the judge; and as there are several buildings in town of our design that we have not built, we will ask you to be sure that we are building the house that you see before you either give us the credit, or condemn our work; we have been fortunate enough through all this bad weather not to have any buildings to crack or fall down; but as last summer was not our first experience, let that be that would account for it. If you think of building give us a call before letting your work; we build on small down payments.

We are not overlooking any business in the Real Estate line; and have men and rigs ready to show you a large list of good bargains, some of which are cheaper than any one can build for, so don't forget the number.
