

AMONG THE CHOCOTAS.

From Hazard to Grand Ma Di-Hi-Lo's - A Wagon Ride Across the Indian Territory.

On the 11th of December, 1893, we started on our trip to Grand Ma Di-Hi-Lo's, a distance of about 100 miles...

Our first dinner was a simple affair, consisting of a few pieces of bread and some coffee...

We have now crossed the plateau and are descending into the valley. The view is magnificent...

We did not stop at Grandfield, Tex. as we had no provisions there...

A general meeting, including a hill, was held at Grandfield, Tex. on the 11th of December...

More like spring than the 23rd of December, the air was in general clear...

The first of the mountains is a range of low hills, which are covered with brush...

The first of the mountains is a range of low hills, which are covered with brush...

Opening their eyes to the hills, the people assembled and those kind feelings...

Under these young men, being being young men, by the first of the mountains...

As the day advanced, the hills became more and more prominent...
