FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 16.—Wells (?) moved a resolution requesting the President to give the Senate the correspondence and documents between the United States and Mexico during 1859 and 1861, relative to the treaty between the governments, was adopted.

A motion to adjourn was lost—35 to 28—Mahone not voting. He voted for executive session, but the motion was lost—34 to 32. After more desultory motions, Platt said as republicans had the President and House, they might as well have the Senate, and take all the responsibility for the bad, and credit for the good things. He did not wish to hold on to a few privileges, and moved to adjourn. Agreed to.

AMERICAN.

WASHINGTON.

The "Jeannette" Relief.

WASHINGTON, 16—The detail of officers and men for the Jeannette search expedition will not be made for several days. It is generally believed that Lieut. G. A. Perry, United States navy, will command the expedition.

A New York special says: Among the stories that are current here is that James Gordon Bennett is seriously contemplating an Arctic expedition. Larry Jerome, who is in Europe with him, has recently written to a friend that while Bennett is enjoying himself greatly as master of a hunt somewhere in England, yet he is very much depressed and anxious over the Arctic expedition which he equipped and sent out in the name of the Herald. He considers it to be his duty to fit out another expediton in search of the lost one, and take the command of it himself. He has already telegraphed to stop work on the yacht he contemplated building in this country, and thinks the money he proposed to expend in that way shall be devoted to the building of a vessel constructed with a view to encountering the ice of the northern seas. Already he has had some interviews with ship builders on the subject; therefore, the news that Bennett has seriously entered upon this new project may be expected at any time, as it is a characteristic of Bennett that execution follows closely upon the heels of conception.

General Capital Notes.

The Secretary at War has dismissed the charges preferred by the Paymaster-General against Col. C. M. Tenell.

Among the nominations sent to the Senate to-day, were those of J. S. Watson to be naval officer at San Francisco; and George A. Steel to be postmaster at Portland, Oregon.

The President nominated S. Daniel Horton, of Ohio, as secretary to the commission to attend the international monetary conference at Paris.

The democratic caucus committee have changed the democratic membership of the Senate committees from the majority to the minority by dropping, as a general rule, the fifth name from each committee, as held by Pendleton. They drop Grover from the finance committee and retain McPherson, however; so the committee stands—Bayard, Voorhees, Beck and McPherson for democrats. Republicans are believed to be caucussing over new Senate officers.

The democratic caucus committee has re-arranged the minority representation on committees, but finds some trouble in deciding who shall be the chairmen of the three committees allowed to the minority. The minority of the committees will not be published until after the republicans determine the organization in their favor. Democrats will, to-morrow, move to go on with the organization on the ground that their policy is to exhibit a desire to go ahead with public business, but they will not press anything.

The republican caucus, in session this afternoon, took up the question of the election of officers for the Senate. The report is that Mahone will be allowed to name either the secretary or sergeant-at-arms, whichever he chooses. Gorham appears to have a certainty of the secretaryship and French, former republican sergeant-at-arms, is a candidate for that place. The indications are that Mahone will name some Virginia readjuster for sergeant-at-arms.

On Monday night Senator Mahone was kept up until 2 o'clock receiving congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the country.

It is understood that the President will reappoint Fred. Douglas marshal of the district to-morrow.

Senator Edgarton, of Minnesota, takes his seat to-morrow.

Governor Plaisted telegraphed Senator Frye, the announcement of his election, and his credentials were forwarded. The official announcement will be offered in the Senate to-morrow, and unless objection is made Frye will take his seat.

Move of Gen. Upton.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—An inquest was held on the remains of General Upton to-day. The testimony of Captain Hasbrouck, Fourth Artillery, and the letters written by the deceased to his sister, and to the adjutant-general of the United States army, confirm the previous impression that his suicide is due to depression of mind consequent upon his inability to adopt his system of tactics to the movements of companies of 200 or more well.

New York, 16.—The Times says: Many army officers here are of the opinion that General Upton has been the victim of a cowardly assassination. General Hancock said to a Times reporter, he had been greatly startled at the news. The suicide of any officer in the service could not amaze him more. He and General Upton were close friends. He came out of the rebellion with a most enviable record, and at the time of his death had the lineal rank as lieutenant-colonel of artillery. He was the youngest officer in age, as well as in service, in the United States army, holding that rank, and said General Hancock, judging from his acknowledged abilities, his energy, worthy ambition and known good will and the appreciation of his superior officers, great honors for his future were certain." A suggestion that General Upton may have been prompted to suicide by the mortification of failing in the recently authorized version of his tactics, Gen. Hancock declared unreasonable.

The fear of failure was not one of the characteristics of General Upton in any regard, much less should it be so in a revision of his tactics. To these tactics General Upton had given many years of close study; he was thoroughly their master, and he had reduced their elements to such simplicity that the matter of failure in their presentation was simply absurd. The tactics had been endorsed by the war department and by the same authority had been promulgated for use in the United States army. There was no opposition to the tactics in any quarter, and the theory of a depression of spirits in such a condition is not to be presumed.

Dr. Hanford, of Brooklyn, whose wife is Gen. Upton's sister, said to a Sun reporter that the General's suicide could be traced to his suffering from malignant and incurable catarrh.

The World's Fair.

NEW YORK, 16.—The executive committee of the World's Fair commission, to-day, adopted the following resolution: That members of the commission and the executive and finance committees agree to complete the first $1,000,000, either by personal subscription or by subscriptions which they may obtain from others, by the 15th of April, on condition that transportation companies subscribe to the capital stock $100,000, and that the citizens of New York, not represented by the companies, and not with the commission other than as subscribers now on the books, will subscribe $1,000,000. If the amount specified is not raised by April 15th, it is likely the project will be abandoned. The total sum now subscribed is $956,500.

A Different Version.

A Paris dispatch says: "Rochefort and Oliver Paine left for Geneva, yesterday, to obtain authentic details of the assassination from the Nihilist correspondent. A fresh communication from this person is published to-day in the Intransigient, which warns the public against attaching too much credence to telegrams from St. Petersburg, and declares positively that the young man Rousakoff cannot have thrown the first bomb. The real criminals, according to the correspondence, were inside one of the mansions bordering on the Rue Millione, but the Russian officials found it convenient to let it be supposed the shells were thrown by persons in the crowd. None of the assassins have been arrested. The inference drawn from this statement is that the Emperor was murdered by members of the Nihilist fraternity holding high official positions. The correspondent further affirms that the bombs were not enclosed in glass as stated, and that only five seconds elapsed between the two explosions. The last statement is interpreted to upset the picturesque stories of the Czar's getting out of his carriage to attend to the wounded."

Birds and Balls.

A London dispatch says: In the third stage of the pigeon match, Carver beat Graham 40 to 36. The deciding heat at 100 birds each was then shot in four stages. At the beginning Scott was rather favorite in the betting Scores—Carver 21, 18, 21, 19; total 79. Scott 15, 19, 24, 16; total 74. Carver thus wins the title to the champion cup and £650 stakes. Scott has challenged Carver to a match for the cup and £200 a side, the contest to be within two months. A gentleman offered to bet £500 that Scott would win.

Scores in the glass ball match—Scott 6,812, Carver 6,805.

Result of Spiritualism.

STILL WATER, Minn., 16.—A singular and horrible murder is exciting the people of this county. Late on Monday night Mr. Tallon entered the parlor of Whithouse's hotel, at Morine, a little town ten miles from here, and finding his wife sitting on the sofa with her babe in her arms and two other children by her side, leveled a Winchester rifle at her and remarking that she had gone back on him fired. The first shot missed, but before Jno. Hackerson and Jno. Talbot, with whom she had been conversing, could interfere, he fired again, and lodged a ball in his wife's breast, which penetrated her heart and killed her instantly. Tallon is a muscular man of 50 and often drunk heavily. No one dared to interfere with him, as he was evidently insane and when the officers arrived he was in full possession, swearing with maniacal ferocity that he would shoot anyone who interfered. His wife lay on the lounge rigid, her eyes starting from their sockets and her children by her side. The officers secured him and he was brought here to jail and it is yet a question whether he shall be treated as a maniac or as a murderer. For some months he has ceased drinking but had become possessed of an hallucination that one of his best friends had conspired to kill him, and now says his wife was in the plot. His sister, who is a spiritualist, undoubtedly aided him in his strange notions.

Railroad News.

CHICAGO, 16.—The story of the consolidation of the Northwestern, St. Paul and Northern Pacific, however plausible in itself, finds little credence among railroad men, and is absolutely denied, by officials of the roads in question.

S. S. Merrill, President of the Milwaukee and St. Paul road, says there is no truth in the recent statement of a correspondent that the Northwestern road had secured control of the only entrance to the Black Hills. Mr. Merrill says there are two or three other available gateways to the hills, and that his road is in no danger of being shut out by the enterprise of its active competitor.

New York, 16.—The Milwaukee and St. Paul directors declared a dividend of 3½ per cent. on both classes of stocks, payable on April 20th.

Denver, Col., 16.—The Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo Railroad filed articles of incorporation to-day. The capital stock is placed at $3,000,000, divided into 30,000. The object is to build a broad gauge road from Pueblo via Colorado springs to Denver. Of the three railroad companies, the Denver, Utah and Pacific, the Denver, Western and Pacific, and the Denver, Longmount and Pacific, organized to build a railroad from Denver via Longmont to the Parks, the Denver, Western and Pacific is the only one which has commenced work, they having 200 teams grading.

The Land Swindler.

ST. LOUIS, 16.—Government officers, to-day, arrested Frederick E. Schuster, a notary, Charles Vogel and Charles Newman, on the charge of perjury, but it is believed the two former are connected with the land frauds unearthed yesterday. Robert L. Lindsley failed to furnish a bond for $10,000 and was jailed. He claims that Secretary Schurz has been persecuting him and his father, who has been adjuster of lands at Ironton, and that he is entirely innocent. Officials deny this as absurd, and say that Lindsley is the head of a regular ring, and the evidence against him is abundant. Officials, however, are very quiet about the matter.

Missouri Cyclone.

The Republican's Carthage special says: A tornado passed over a considerable part of Southwest Missouri last night, accompanied by rain and hail. At Galena, Kansas, just across the Missouri line, it demolished some fifteen buildings, mortally wounding two persons and seriously injuring six others. The large tabernacle was completely destroyed and several buildings blown down.

More Particulars of the Russian Tradegy.

ST. PETERSBURG.—A decree is published granting persons deported to Siberia, with loss of civil rights, permission to engage in commercial or professional pursuits after three years' good behavior. The same privilege will be accorded to political exiles, subject to the approval of the minister of interior.

Berlin, 16.—The Crown Prince and Princess Christian, the Russian embassy, Lord Ampthill, British ambassador, and the prefect of police, met the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh and Grand Duke Alexis at the railway station, and after Sabouroff, Russian ambassador, handed Grand Duke Alexis a packet of sympathetic letters and telegrams, the train proceeded to St. Petersburg. When the news of the assassination reached Berlin, it was immediately feared the murder might increase the severity of the socialist law here, and this result has already become noticeable, as a number of suspected persons have been expelled from the city and suburbs. According to the official report lately presented to Parliament, it seems that the anarchy element, though unseen, is more vital and vigorous after a lapse of two years than when the socialist law was passed. Reports state that efforts have been made, which were partially successful, to distribute socialist organs among the population, and even among the troops.

The Crown Prince is troubled with great hoarseness, and his journey to St. Petersburg is postponed until next week. Government circles have entire confidence in the peaceful policy of the new Czar. It is stated that he will shortly issue a manifesto emphasizing the motto "peace and economy," and declaring his intention to devote himself mainly to internal reform

St. Petersburg, 16.—The authorities are informed that a mine was laid in a small street which enters Nevsky Prospect, nearly opposite Anvitchkoff Palace, the residence of the new Emperor. A detachment of sappers accordingly began explorations from a small shop, the owner of which disappeared three days ago. The street is barricaded to prevent the public approaching. The sappers on opening up the ground and searching the cellars discovered the mine in the above mentioned shop. The mouth was in the shopkeeper's dwelling room, concealed under an ottoman. The mine passes under the street leading to the riding school, whence the Czar was returning on Sunday. Eight more arrests have been made, and a quantity of explosive material discovered. The mine was intended to blow up the imperial carriage in case Sunday's attempt failed.

The spot where the Emperor received the fatal injury has been covered with turf and a sentry of the old regiment of the Emperor Paul guard it. The body of the dead Emperor was taken, to-day, to the great church of the palace. The coffin was borne by the Czar, Grand Duke Valadimer, two other grand dukes and the Princes of Lutchenberg and Oldenburg. The people in the halls knelt as the procession passed. On the arrival at the church mass for the dead was celebrated. The regalia was brought from Moscow and conveyed through the streets in state.

A considerable amount of money is raised by public subscription for the wounded by the explosion of the bomb on Sunday. The cathedral chorister died of his wounds. The court martial on Roussakoff will consist of six officers of the guards, a commander, a corporal and one private from every squadron of guards.

The Agence Russe says: The grief felt at the death of the Emperor by the Russian nation is inconsiderable, but if they required proofs of the immensity of their loss, it would be forthcoming in the evidence of condolence which pours from the sovereign governments and the national representatives of the whole world.
