TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the Liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Irregular and sluggish action of the Bowels, Headache, Sickness at the Stomach, Pain in the Back and Loins, etc., indicate that the Liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are especially compounded for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effective as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. When according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, Diseased Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR PRICKLY ASH BITTERS, and take no other. PRICE, $1.00 per Bottle.

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

PERNICIOUS LITERATURE—TEMPERANCE CRANKISM—A NEW RELIGION NEEDED. IS IT "MORMONISM?"

CHICAGO, Nov. 21, 1883.

Editor Deseret News:

If writing, speaking and lecturing can forward morality, intelligence and temperance, those desirable qualifications ought at present suffer no retrogression. Our law officers have actually discovered that there are statutes for the suppression of indecent literature; our professors are endeavoring to define what is and what is not a practical education; and our temperance agitators are beginning to see the impracticability of prohibition, and are now turning to a system of training the young through the establishing of "bands of hope," the same as in England.

The news-stands are certainly remarkable for their showy exhibits of artistic literature. Illustrated periodicals displaying the rather unsavory phases of sinful and criminal life seem to be the principal stock in trade of news-dealers. The literary portion of these prints is confined entirely to the relation of moral and social transgressions. They are the main sewers into which all the objectionable matter of the daily papers is discharged. And if a person is so delectably inclined, as to wish an ample and careful condensation of all the murders, rapes, arsons, lynchings, incests, etc., which occur throughout this broad land during the week, he has only to invest ten cents in a metropolitan weekly. If his comprehension is in any way blunted, he has the illustrations of the more choice crimes to aid him through the eye, and to help the imagination to a full conception of the interesting particulars.

In thinking over this matter one cannot help attributing a certain amount of blame to the daily press of the country. Most all the matter in these illustrated papers is taken from the regular press, and those accounts which are the most gushing and sensational are the ones reproduced. Suppose those editors who inveigh against indecency so much, were to look over their sheets, and clip vice of half its deformity by relegating it to the plainest prose and to the most obscure corner of the publication. This would be one step. Then suppose parents, guardians, teachers and all order loving citizens were to discountenance the purchase and perusal of this trash, another step would be taken. Then law with a good, healthy public support behind it, would have little trouble in doing its work.

As to the dime novel business, it won't be so easy to remedy that. Our universal education makes many readers and few thinkers. Our standard novels, those produced in this country are little better than dime novels. Eastern women and preachers appear to have a monopoly of this business, and sad work they make of it. Reformed courtezans, faithless wives and truant husbands seem to be the heroes and heroines of novelist and playwright. You can't find one in ten of the average American book readers to appreciate Dickens. Why? Simply because domestic happiness is almost unknown among the trading classes here. Love of children, love of parents, attachments to home firesides, mutual confidence in husbands and wives are almost unknown. Hotel and boarding-house life, adventure and speculation, recklessness and gaiety produce this condition of society. Where is the national literature to meet this national life? Stealing the intellectual produce of other nations don't help us. Stolen goods are always productive of evil. We have not a writer or thinker that aspires to the grand ambition of making an Ameridan national history and literature. Hobbies, races, sects and petty schemes of politics, religian and education engross our public life. What else can be had where women and preachers monopolize the thinking of the masses.

We had a temperance meeting here some few days ago, which has indeed the merit of attempting something sensible as well as practical. It is the establishing of "bands of hope" societies among the children of the various religious denominations. The proceedings of the meeting were all that could be desired, were it not for the presence of the inevitable crank The man who gives his experience at meetings of this kind is always a bore, if not a nuisance. One fellow described his attempt at one time of starting a society of this kind among children. He had some 200 youngsters, and in his zeal for the cause he labeled each child with a badge. The children went home like prize kittens from a show. But it appears the majority of the kittens were of German parentage, and the labeling process broke up the school of temperance. This story is related to give the effect that Germans are opposed to temperance, and of course to the beneficent results that would follow. Not at all; the Germans, though not prohibitionists, are in general the most temperate race in this country. Their physical and social condition shows it. Their family relations are, on the whole, pleasant and they know how to raise their children. It is no wonder the unparallelled effrontery of this foundling reformer would make them indignant. Fancy any Yankee infallible labeling the child of Martin Luther's countryman without consulting him about the proceeding This is the teaching that hurts a good cause, and sets race against race, sect against sect. Down with it, and with the miserable, pettifogging crowd that foster it.

Matthew Arnold says we want a new religion. The utterance has as much truth, if not the inspiration, as any spoken by his divine and apostolic namesake. We want a national religion, in a measure; a religion that will reach the masses, one that will help uniformity of thought, consolidation of race and a general fraternizing of sects and creeds. And it must come, that is, under the auspices of the Most High. America is to-day as Europe was shortly after the coming of Christ. The disintegration of the Roman Empire caused a condition of social chaos, that to the thinker of that day must appear irremediable. But as the Methodists call the Christianity at that time, Romanism, with its compact and centralized power appeared on the scene. It found Italy a ferment of barbarism and civilization, without a language or settled government; every country in Europe in a similar condition and the Moor likely to grasp them all. The cross, bad as some make it, answered the purpose at the time and Roman civilization was perpetuated. In due time human progress when in motion, assumed new forms, and towards the 15th century, new lines of thought and independence were struck out, and we had the reformation. Now we have so many reformers that we are on the verge of another evolution, which no doubt must come, or we retrograde. We want a form now that can embody both Papal and Protestant, and also take in not the four walls of one particular church, but the whole continent from Alaska to Patagonia, and then stretch out into the Pacific and extend Greek and Roman, Papal and Protestant civilizations, all condensed into this future form. Will this form be Mormonism? It bids fair to be the National religion. It embodies Hebrew and Christian inspiration. Has it the new inspiration that is so much needed? Time will determine.

JUNIUS.

THINK OF IT, YOUNG MAN.

The following letter, from a father to a son, should be deeply pondered by every young man who is given at all to dalliance with evil habits and companionship:

My Dear Son.—What would you think of yourself if you should come to our bedside every night, and, waking us, tell us that you would not allow us to sleep any more? That is just what you are doing, and that is just what I am up here a little after midnight writing to you. Your mother is nearly worn out turning from side to side, and with sighing because you won't let her sleep. That mother who nursed you in your infancy, toiled for you in your childhood, and looked with pride and joy upon you as you were growing up to manhood, as she counted on the comfort and support you would give her in her declining years.

We read of a most barbarous manner in which one of the oriental nations punishes some of its criminals. It is by cutting the flesh from the body in small pieces; slowly cutting off the limbs, beginning with the fingers and toes, one joint at a time, till the wretched victim dies. That is just what you are doing; you are killing your mother by inches. You have planted many of the white hairs that are appearing so thickly in her head before the time. Your cruel hand is drawing the lines of sorrow on her dear face, making her look prematurely old. You might as well stick your knife in her body every time you come near her, for your conduct is stabbing her to the heart. You might as well bring her coffin and force her into it, for you are pressing her towards it with very rapid steps.

Would you tread on her body if prostrated on the floor? And yet with ungrateful feet you are treading on her heart and crushing out its life and joy—no, I needn't say "joy," for that is a word we have long ago ceased to use, because you have taken it away from us. Of course, we have to meet our friends with smiles, but they little know of the bitterness within. You have taken all the roses out of your sister's pathway and scattered thorns instead, and from the pain they inflict, scalding tears are often seen coursing down her cheeks. Thus you are blighting her life as ours.

And what can you promise yourself for the future? Look at the miserable, bloated, ragged wretches whom you meet every day on the streets, and see in them an exact picture of what you are fast coming to, and will be in a few years. Then in the end, a drunkard's doom! for the Bible says, "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God." Where, then, will you be? If not in the kingdom of God you must be somewhere else.

Will not these considerations induce you to quit at once, and for all time? And may God help you, for he can and he will, if you earnestly ask him.

Your affectionate but sorrow-stricken father.

TRUE Temperance

Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the cause—liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreadful artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellects to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

It is a fact! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, a true non-alcoholic tonic, made in Baltimore, Md., by the Brown Chemical Company, who are old druggists and in every particular reliable, will, by removing the craving appetite of the drunkard, and by curing the nervousness, weakness, and general ill health resulting from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense than any other means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially 'bitters,' are nothing but cheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It is a medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous, muscular, and digestive organs of the body, producing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.
